Columbia Official Will Fight Move

McLaren Says He Hears He Might Be Denied Renomination

Hudson, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—District Attorney John H. McLaren, superseded by Gov. Dewey in the special grand jury probe of Columbia county crime, says he will fight any attempt to deny him renomination for the prosecutor's post this fall.

McLaren, a Republican who was elected in 1949 for a three-year term, said last night that "I have heard rumors of a move to deny me a renomination. I will fight the present move with all the power at my command."

He said there "apparently are certain elements in the party who wish to throw me out. I wonder why—is it because of the present investigation? * * *."

Commission Impressed

The head of the State Crime Commission, Joseph H. Proskauer, told Dewey last winter that the commission had been "impressed by his (McLaren's) sincerity, and his integrity was in no way challenged."

Proskauer added that "long family, social and political friendships and associations would make it difficult" for McLaren to handle the special inquiry.

Paul W. Williams, New York city lawyer, is in charge of the special investigation, McLaren has continued as county prosecutor on other matters.

Woman Found Shot

New York, June 5 (AP)—A Bronx mother was found shot to death in her padlocked bedroom today, and police said they were seeking for questioning a daughter, Shirley, 24, who was released from a mental hospital a year ago. The dead woman, Mrs. Fanny Binder, 58, had been shot three times—in the head, chest and abdomen. A medical examiner said she apparently had been dead more than eight hours. The body was found by her husband, Philip, 58, and a son, Julius, who broke a padlock on the door to enter the bedroom. Binder said the daughter had been released from the Kings Park State Hospital about a year ago. Since then, he said, he, his wife and daughter occupied separate bedrooms and each had a padlock.

Tension Is High

Raleigh, N. C., June 5 (AP)—Tension still hung over Central Prison today following an uprising yesterday in which 150 inmates held 10 prison employes as hostages while bargaining for prison reform. The rebellious prisoners won promises from prison officials that guard Capt. W. G. Meadows would be suspended pending an investigation of prisoners' charges that he mistreated them. An investigation also was planned into their complaints they were served bad food. The uprising was the fifth violent incident to hit the prison within a month. A guard captain was stabbed Sunday night and three earlier stabbings involved prisoners.

Charges Dismissed

Holton, Kas., June 5 (AP)—Bank robbery charges have been dismissed against Albert Johnson, 23, who stood in the pulpit of a Topeka, Kas., church May 4 and confessed participation in the robbery. The $835 holdup of the bank at Hoyt, Kas., occurred four years ago. District Judge Robert H. Kaul dismissed the charges against Johnson under a Kansas law requiring prosecution for a crime to be initiated within two years of the offense.

Draft Call Issued

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The army today issued a draft call for 29,000 men in August.

No Violence Is Shown as Job Is Begun of Splitting 17 Camps

Koje Island, Korea, June 5 (AP)—Tank-led allied infantrymen and engineers split one of Koje island's big prisoner compounds in half with a tough barbed wire fence as 3,340 jeering Communist civilian internees stood by chanting Red hymns. There was no violence.

Erection of the fence within Compound 607 was ordered by Brig. Gen. Haydon Boatner, the Koje commander, as the first step in splitting 17 big compounds into smaller camps for the island's 80,000 POWs.

The heavily-armed troops marched into the compound shortly before Boatner issued a statement acknowledging that rations have been withheld from three compounds on separate days.

There have been reports that food rations were reduced to enforce discipline among unruly prisoners. Boatner said this was not the case.

Rations Withheld

"At no time have we withheld rations as a weapon to obtain obedience to any order, nor have we threatened to do so," the general said.

He explained that no rations were issued on the day troops entered a compound to enforce orders.

"We were taking offensive action against them because of their defiance and illegal actions," Boatner said. "In view of this and knowing they had stocks of food hoarded it would have been manifestly absurd for us to provide them with more food * * *."

Boatner emphasized that the Geneva Convention provides for withholding rations under certain conditions.

Bags of sand were delivered to three compounds Wednesday and stacked where the food usually is placed. This increased speculation that discipline was being enforced by withholding rations.

Boatner explained, however, that the sand was for use in quelling fires.

1,600 Are Distributed

Some 1,600 prisoners who were moved to Koje following the May 20 riot in a hospital camp at Pusan were removed from compound 91 and distributed among other enclosures. An official said the prisoners were separated into groups of Chinese, North Koreans, officers, enlisted men and civilians. The transfer was completed without incident.

Boatner visited compound 607 for a few minutes as engineers sweated in the hot sun building the new barbed wire fence. It was believed to be the first time he has entered a compound since he took over as the island's 16th commander less than a month ago.

Observers said some semblance of order seems to be emerging from the near-chaos which existed

Plans Are Ready For New Rondout National Bank

Plans and specifications are ready and bids will be accepted Tuesday, June 10 for the construction of the new Rondout National Bank, which is designed to be one of the most modern banking institutions in this area. The location of the new banking institution will be on the site formerly occupied by the Byrne Brothers monument business on Broadway, Henry and Van Deusen streets.

Irving L. Eyles, cashier of the Rondout National, stated today that local contractors are desired as the officials of the bank want their new banking home to be a Kingston project serving Kingston residents.

Work is expected to get underway on the building early in July. Harry Halverson is the architect.

Two-Story Structure

The building, which will be extended to Van Deusen street, will be a two-story structure of 48 feet by 70 feet. It will be of red-faced brick with white limestone trim and red granite base. The interior of the main banking floor will be of knotty pine trim and will be completely air conditioned.

The bank will include in its many new features a drive-up window with entrance for automobiles on Henry street, where there will be an outside teller's window for the convenience of pedestrians as well as automobilists.

There also will be a separate entrance for the consumer loan offices in the first floor section of the building on the Van Deusen street side. A separate entrance to the offices on the second floor also will be provided.

Parking Area Planned

The parking lot, part of which is shown in the sketch above, will face Henry street and will be maintained for the convenience of customers of the bank.

In the main banking floor, which will be 30 feet by 70 feet, there will be eight tellers' windows for the convenience of the public.

Cashier Eyles said that at present the bank employes 12 trained people and the expectations are that a number of employes will be added to the present force to take care of the expanded facilities.

With the most modern banking facilities available and with services for every type of loan, Eyles declared that the Rondout National Bank would be in a position to take care of the complete banking needs of the people of the community.

James A. Dwyer is president of the Rondout National Bank, which has served the residents of Kingston and the surrounding area since 1848.

Chief Praises Assistance

Police Chief Raymond Van Buren said today he is "highly appreciative" of the assistance given by 15 members of the civil defense auxiliary in handling details of the Memorial Day parade. The chief said the men not only "did a god job" but presented a commendable appearance considering the short time they had for preparations.

Rhee Informs President Korean Matter Exaggerated

Pusan, Korea, June 5 (AP)—President Syngman Rhee today told President Truman the South Korean political situation had been exaggerated and that he would dissolve the National Assembly only as a last resort, a reliable source said.

Truman had written Rhee that he was "shocked" at the turn of political events in this provisional South Korean capital. He cautioned Rhee not to take any "irrevocable steps," such as dissolving the assembly.

Britain and Australia also sent similar messages to the aging Korean political leader.

The source said Rhee told Truman the situation here was not as serious as the U. S. Chief Executive thought.

Truman gets his reports from the State Department, which gets them from the U. S. Embassy in Pusan.

The head of the embassy, U. S. Ambassador John J. Mucchio, reached Tokyo today en route back to Pusan from a shortened vacation in the U. S.

He told newsmen he believed opposing factions in the South Koren government "will get together and straighten this thing out."

These recent developments, in a flareup of the long feud involving Rhee and his supporters on one hand and a majority of assemblymen, have aroused the concern of South Korea's allies:

1. Rhee's declaration of martial law in three southern provinces, including Pusan.

2. His refusal to lift army rule

Reds Speak Of 'Blows' in New Action

Papers Issue Ominous Note as Tug-of-War Continues in Berlin Between Powers

Alarms Doubled

Three Hundred Boxes Placed Along Edge of Western Perimeter

Berlin, June 5 (AP)—The east-west tug of war in Red-ringed Berlin continued unabated today after a night of frontier kidnappings and shootings.

The Russians slapped back their ban on American patrols operating on the superhighway from Berlin to West Germany and the Communist press threatened a further tightening of the Red squeeze on the city.

The Red papers spoke ominously of "direct blows."

West Berlin police increased protective measures along the perilous frontier areas bordering the surrounding Russian zone after two women were grabbed last night by Russian soldiers and German Communist police.

Alarm Boxes Doubled

The westerners doubled to 300 the number of alarm boxes scattered along the perimeter for use in quickly summoning police.

In the British sector, British troops and German police continued their "anybody out but nobody in" siege of Russian-operated radio Berlin into the third day.

The radio, staffed by German Communists and guarded by 20 Red Army tommy-gunners, stayed on the air, broadcasting its customary anti-western diatribes.

Red army guards turned back patrols at both ends of the Berlin superhighway, one of the city's principal lifelines to the west.

Other traffic was normal, however.

Apparently a Mistake

The Russians had let an American military police jeep slip through to the highway yesterday for the first time in 10 days. Apparently it was just a mistake.

Trigger-happy Russian soldiers in the divided city resorted to gunplay at least twice yesterday.

Demands Punishment

In a letter to Sergei Dengin, Soviet political chief in Berlin, U. S. Commandant Maj Gen. Lemuel Mathewson demanded punishment of the German guard and assurances "that such deplorable

Taft Holds Lead Over Eisenhower In Dakota Primary

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 5 (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio today held a 591-vote lead over Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in South Dakota's bitterly contested Republican primary, with only 16 precincts missing.

Although Taft supporters claimed victory, former Governor George T. Mickelson, who headed the Eisenhower slate of delegates, refused to concede pending the official count of ballots Saturday by the county canvassing boards.

Fourteen delegates are at stake.

The returns with only 16 precincts missing gave:

Taft 64,739.

Eisenhower 64,147.

At least five of the missing precincts will not be known until the official county canvass Saturday. The election judges locked in the ballot cans the duplicate polling books of four precincts in Perkins county. There the two candidates were running neck-and-neck. Another poll book was sealed with the ballots in a Brookings county precinct—a county which registered heavily for Taft.

Victory Is Claimed

Taft supporters early Wednesday claimed a victory after their candidate had doggedly maintained a shaky lead since 10:45 p. m., Tuesday night.

Mickelson contended the narrow Taft margin still left the Taft win in doubt, and because of the closeness of the race that it was an Eisenhower victory in a Taft stronghold, even if the Ohioan did poll four to five hundred more votes.

Mickelson refused to say whether he would ask for a recount or contest the bitterly fought primary. He has 10 days in which to demand a recount by petitioning the secretary of state.

The race was the tightest in South Dakota since 1936 when former Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas won the presidential primary over Sen. William E. Borah of Idaho by 257 votes.

His 'Strength' Proved

Taft supporters said the showing Taft made proved his strength among farmers. His best showing was made in farm districts where there were no large cities or towns. He spent five days campaigning in the state. In his talks he plunked for parity for farm products and favored farm price supports.

He Will Be Present at Convention After Choice Is Made

Washington, June 5 (AP)—President Truman said today he will attend the Democratic national convention after it has chosen its presidential nominee—and he will not be that nominee.

The President added that he'd like to attend the whole Chicago convention but won't do so because his presence might create a disturbance.

Truman was told at his news conference some Republicans have said he is engaged in a "devious plot" to get the nomination for himself.

This he denied and said such charges usually originate in warped minds.

Up to People

Of yesterday's statement by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower that the Democrats have been in power too long, Truman replied it is up to the people to decide that.

He declined further comment on Eisenhower's opening campaign speech, saying he is not at all interested in the Republican pre-convention race.

Likewise, Truman declined to get into the controversy between Eisenhower and Senator Robert A. Taft over Eisenhower's air power views. He said with a grin that the GOP's quarrels please him very much but he's not going to get mixed up in them.

Taft said last Sunday that a steady deterioration of American air strength began while Eisenhower was chief of staff. Eisenhower replied at a news conference Tuesday that he always has favored a strong air force and expects air power to be dominant in any future war.

No Steel Strike Bill

On other matters today, Truman said.

1—He does not plan to send Congress any legislation dealing with the steel strike, and he won't comment on the possibility of invoking the Taft-Hartley Act.

2—He has no comment, and never will have a comment, on the Supreme Court's ruling that his seizure of the steel industry was illegal. A reporter recalled his previous statement that nobody can take away his powers of seizure in an emergency, and asked if he would elucidate. Truman said he would at a later date.

3—He doesn't expect war to break out in Europe this summer. If he did, the President said, he wouldn't let his daughter Margaret and a friend go through with their proposed European tour in the summer.

Difficulties Surmounted

4—The Democratic party surmounted difficulties in 1948 and he expects it will do so again. This was in reply to a newsman who asked if he thought the victory of Republican Senator Knowland in California's Republican and Democratic primaries meant the people of California are against the administration's foreign policy.

Truman's acceptance of an invitation to visit McGrath caused a buzz of speculation in the capital.

Asked if he thought Eisenhower spelled out the issues of the cam-

House Passes Bill For Postal Pay Roll

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The House passed today a compromise appropriation bill putting up the money to meet overdue payrolls of about 500,000 postal workers.

The bill, passed by voice vote, now goes to the Senate where it was expected to be approved promptly and sent to President Truman.

Passage followed refusal of the House to eliminate Senate-voted money to build two detention camps on the Mexican border to house illegal Mexican workers, to finance return of these workers to Mexico, and to employ additional immigration officers on the border.

Wicks' Hearings To Be Held About Off-Track Betting

Joint Committee to Meet to Organize—Wicks to Be Re-Named Chairman

Albany, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—Public hearings on the controversial proposal to legalize off-track betting on horse races probably will be held in New York city later this month by the Legislature's Wicks Committee.

Ashley Trimble Cole, chairman of the State Racing Commission, who opposes off-track betting, will testify at the first session.

Herbert Bayard Swope, former chairman of the commission and a proponent of off-track wagering, will be heard at the second session.

The joint legislative committee, headed by Majority Leader Arthur H. Wicks of the state Senate, will meet in Albany next Thursday to re-organize formally. Wicks will be re-elected chairman and John E. Egan, also of Kingston, will continue as counsel. The committee had been investigating racing for a year.

Plans for public hearings on off-track betting will be made at the session.

Two in New York

Reliable sources indicated that the first two hearings would be held in New York city within two weeks of the committee meeting here.

Several hearings will be held upstate, probably at Buffalo, Albany and Rochester.

Several church organizations, opposed to any plan to allow betting away from the tracks, have requested to be heard.

The committee announced in its first annual report last winter that it would look into the bitterly debated question of legalizing off-track betting.

The committee, on the basis of the hearings and investigations, will submit a recommendation on the issue to the 1953 Legislature.

In 1949, Governor Dewey vetoed a Republican bill that would have created a commission to study the feasibility of off-track betting.

Had Personal Doubts

Dewey once said he had personal doubts as to the wisdom or morality of permitting parimutuel betting at the tracks, which was legalized in New York in 1940.

Dewey said, however, that parimutuel wagering "is confined to those who are actually able to be present at the track and therefore

Uncertain On Result Of Contest

Eisenhower Says He Is to Speak Frankly on Problems; Would Talk With MacArthur

Denies Connection

Says He Is Free to Hit at Democrats—FEPC to States

Abilene, June 5 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today that paramount issue of the political campaign is "real peace and security in the world."

The five star general, a candidate for the Republican nomination, said he hopes the country can get out from under "the umbrella of fear and doubt and hysteria" he said now covers the country.

Declaring that he intends to "speak out as frankly as I know how" on the issues of the day, Eisenhower added:

1. He hasn't "the slightest idea" whether he can defeat Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio for the GOP nomination.

2. He would consult Gen. Douglas MacArthur on Asiatic policies if he became President.

No Political Ties

3. There is no political connection between him and the Truman administration which would prevent him from attacking the Democratic record.

4. He believes the states primarily should handle the question of creating Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC).

5. He will support the Republican presidential nominee—if he doesn't get the prize himself—on the assumption that the GOP platform will be satisfactory.

6. The states can handle education problems better than the federal government.

7. "Our government needs a searching going over" by some one who has had no connection with the Democratic administrations of the last 20 years.

8. Agriculture must not be permitted to suffer but he doesn't know at this time the exact measure of price supports that should be given by the federal government.

Eisenhower told an unprecedented press conference in his boyhood hometown that he could not have served a man nine years as he did MacArthur without acquiring great respect for his ability and integrity.

Asked if he supported the Truman administration's foreign policy, Eisenhower said he had not been a part of any administration and had not been concerned with but one phase of foreign policy.

Backs Basic Conception

He added however that he has supported the basic conception of the administration policy as it concerns the safeguarding of western Europe against communism.

Eisenhower said he regarded the preservation of peace and security in the world under the fundamental beliefs of this nation as the paramount issue of the campaign.

He said he is going to try to speak out frankly on the issues and that he is proud that there are persons who "feel that I still can be of service to the United States."

Eisenhower also was asked how he stood on the St. Lawrence seaway project, a highly controversial issue for many years.

He said he believed everyone favored the power end of the question but there was dispute over the economic need of the seaway.

Construction Would Come

Then he said if the seaway is really needed by both Canada and the United States, it inevitably will be constructed.

Discussing labor legislation, Eisenhower said he honestly believes that people can not be compelled to work by legislation.

"We've got to find other means to solve our troubles," he said.

He said as a cadet at West Point he had worked for 84 hours each week. Bue he said he favored the social gains that labor has made and would not give up those gains.

But he added that the entire labor situation can only be complicated if the government "piles law on law."

Says Farms Must Prosper

He said labor could not prosper unless the farmer prospers. And

UN Will Not Ship Red POW Back in Chains, Like Cattle

Munsan, Korea, June 5 (AP)—UN truce negotiators today accused the Communists of insisting that thousands of allied-held war prisoners be chained or handcuffed and shipped back to the Reds like cattle.

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison told the Communists their demand for forced repatriation of all allied-held prisoners "falls on deaf ears. The UN will not forcibly and violently drive to your side anyone who resists returning to you."

He reiterated that the UN screening program showed "incontrovertibly" that 100,000 prisoners would rather die than return to communism.

The chief UN negotiator's address came after North Korean Gen. Nam Il charged that recent outbreaks of violence on Koje Island have proved the allied principle of voluntary repatriation "utterly bankrupt."

Nam declared the UN plan violates the Geneva Convention and added:

"Our proposal which assures that all prisoners will return home and lead a peaceful life is in complete accord with the Geneva Convention."

"It is your desire that the United Nations command force these people, against their will and at the point of a bayonet, to return to you?" Harrison asked.

"Are you insisting that our side handcuff, chain, or otherwise bind these people and ship them to you like cattle? Are you suggesting that their human rights be disregarded, that the United Nations

Alarms Doubled

Three Hundred Boxes Placed Along Edge of Western Perimeter

Berlin, June 5 (AP)—The east-west tug of war in Red-ringed Berlin continued unabated today after a night of frontier kidnappings and shootings.

The Russians slapped back their ban on American patrols operating on the superhighway from Berlin to West Germany and the Communist press threatened a further tightening of the Red squeeze on the city.

The Red papers spoke ominously of "direct blows."

West Berlin police increased protective measures along the perilous frontier areas bordering the surrounding Russian zone after two women were grabbed last night by Russian soldiers and German Communist police.

Alarm Boxes Doubled

The westerners doubled to 300 the number of alarm boxes scattered along the perimeter for use in quickly summoning police.

In the British sector, British troops and German police continued their "anybody out but nobody in" siege of Russian-operated radio Berlin into the third day.

The radio, staffed by German Communists and guarded by 20 Red Army tommy-gunners, stayed on the air, broadcasting its customary anti-western diatribes.

Red army guards turned back patrols at both ends of the Berlin superhighway, one of the city's principal lifelines to the west.

Other traffic was normal, however.

Apparently a Mistake

The Russians had let an American military police jeep slip through to the highway yesterday for the first time in 10 days. Apparently it was just a mistake.

Trigger-happy Russian soldiers in the divided city resorted to gunplay at least twice yesterday.

Demands Punishment

In a letter to Sergei Dengin, Soviet political chief in Berlin, U. S. Commandant Maj Gen. Lemuel Mathewson demanded punishment of the German guard and assurances "that such deplorable

Taft Holds Lead Over Eisenhower In Dakota Primary

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 5 (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio today held a 591-vote lead over Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in South Dakota's bitterly contested Republican primary, with only 16 precincts missing.

Although Taft supporters claimed victory, former Governor George T. Mickelson, who headed the Eisenhower slate of delegates, refused to concede pending the official count of ballots Saturday by the county canvassing boards.

Fourteen delegates are at stake.

The returns with only 16 precincts missing gave:

Taft 64,739.

Eisenhower 64,147.

At least five of the missing precincts will not be known until the official county canvass Saturday. The election judges locked in the ballot cans the duplicate polling books of four precincts in Perkins county. There the two candidates were running neck-and-neck. Another poll book was sealed with the ballots in a Brookings county precinct—a county which registered heavily for Taft.

Victory Is Claimed

Taft supporters early Wednesday claimed a victory after their candidate had doggedly maintained a shaky lead since 10:45 p. m., Tuesday night.

Mickelson contended the narrow Taft margin still left the Taft win in doubt, and because of the closeness of the race that it was an Eisenhower victory in a Taft stronghold, even if the Ohioan did poll four to five hundred more votes.

Mickelson refused to say whether he would ask for a recount or contest the bitterly fought primary. He has 10 days in which to demand a recount by petitioning the secretary of state.

The race was the tightest in South Dakota since 1936 when former Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas won the presidential primary over Sen. William E. Borah of Idaho by 257 votes.

His 'Strength' Proved

Taft supporters said the showing Taft made proved his strength among farmers. His best showing was made in farm districts where there were no large cities or towns. He spent five days campaigning in the state. In his talks he plunked for parity for farm products and favored farm price supports.

He Will Be Present at Convention After Choice Is Made

Washington, June 5 (AP)—President Truman said today he will attend the Democratic national convention after it has chosen its presidential nominee—and he will not be that nominee.

The President added that he'd like to attend the whole Chicago convention but won't do so because his presence might create a disturbance.

Truman was told at his news conference some Republicans have said he is engaged in a "devious plot" to get the nomination for himself.

This he denied and said such charges usually originate in warped minds.

Up to People

Of yesterday's statement by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower that the Democrats have been in power too long, Truman replied it is up to the people to decide that.

He declined further comment on Eisenhower's opening campaign speech, saying he is not at all interested in the Republican preconvention race.

Likewise, Truman declined to get into the controversy between Eisenhower and Senator Robert A. Taft, over Eisenhower's air power views. He said with a grin that the GOP's quarrels please him very much but he's not going to get mixed up in them.

Taft said last Sunday that a steady deterioration of American air strength began while Eisenhower was chief of staff. Eisenhower replied at a news conference Tuesday that he always has favored a strong air force and expects air power to be dominant in any future war.

No Steel Strike Bill

On other matters today, Truman said.

1—He does not plan to send Congress any legislation dealing with the steel strike, and he won't comment on the possibility of invoking the Taft-Hartley Act.

2—He has no comment, and never will have a comment, on the Supreme Court's ruling that his seizure of the steel industry was illegal. A reporter recalled his previous statement that nobody can take away his powers of seizure in an emergency, and asked if he would elucidate. Truman said he would at a later date.

3—He doesn't expect war to break out in Europe this summer. If he did, the President said, he wouldn't let his daughter Margaret and a friend go through with their proposed European tour in the summer.

Difficulties Surmounted

4—The Democratic party surmounted difficulties in 1948 and he expects it will do so again. This was in reply to a newsman who asked if he thought the victory of Republican Senator Knowland in California's Republican and Democratic primaries meant the people of California are against the administration's foreign policy.

Truman's acceptance of an invitation to visit McGrath caused a buzz of speculation in the capital.

Asked if he thought Eisenhower spelled out the issues of the cam-

House Passes Bill For Postal Pay Roll

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The House passed today a compromise appropriation bill putting up the money to meet overdue payrolls of about 500,000 postal workers.

The bill, passed by voice vote, now goes to the Senate where it was expected to be approved promptly and sent to President Truman.

Passage followed refusal of the House to eliminate Senate-voted money to build two detention camps on the Mexican border to house illegal Mexican workers, to finance return of these workers to Mexico, and to employ additional immigration officers on the border.

Wicks' Hearings To Be Held About Off-Track Betting

Joint Committee to Meet to Organize—Wicks to Be Re-Named Chairman

Albany, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—Public hearings on the controversial proposal to legalize off-track betting on horse races probably will be held in New York city later this month by the Legislature's Wicks Committee.

Ashley Trimble Cole, chairman of the State Racing Commission, who opposes off-track betting, will testify at the first session.

Herbert Bayard Swope, former chairman of the commission and a proponent of off-track wagering, will be heard at the second session.

The joint legislative committee, headed by Majority Leader Arthur H. Wicks of the state Senate, will meet in Albany next Thursday to re-organize formally. Wicks will be re-elected chairman and John E. Egan, also of Kingston, will continue as counsel. The committee had been investigating racing for a year.

Plans for public hearings on off-track betting will be made at the session.

Two in New York

Reliable sources indicated that the first two hearings would be held in New York city within two weeks of the committee meeting here.

Several hearings will be held upstate, probably at Buffalo, Albany and Rochester.

Several church organizations, opposed to any plan to allow betting away from the tracks, have requested to be heard.

The committee announced in its first annual report last winter that it would look into the bitterly debated question of legalizing off-track betting.

The committee, on the basis of the hearings and investigations, will submit a recommendation on the issue to the 1953 Legislature.

Had Personal Doubts

Dewey once said he had personal doubts as to the wisdom or morality of permitting parimutuel betting at the tracks, which was legalized in New York in 1940.

Dewey said, however, that parimutuel wagering "is confined to those who are actually able to be present at the track and therefore

Uncertain On Result Of Contest

Eisenhower Says He Is to Speak Frankly on Problems; Would Talk With MacArthur

Denies Connection

Says He Is Free to Hit at Democrats—FEPC to States

Abilene, June 5 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower said today that paramount issue of the political campaign is "real peace and security in the world."

The five star general, a candidate for the Republican nomination, said he hopes the country can get out from under "the umbrella of fear and doubt and hysteria" he said now covers the country.

Declaring that he intends to "speak out as frankly as I know how" on the issues of the day, Eisenhower added:

1. He hasn't "the slightest idea" whether he can defeat Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio for the GOP nomination.
2. He would consult Gen. Douglas MacArthur on Asiatic policies if he became President.

No Political Ties

3. There is no political connection between him and the Truman administration which would prevent him from attacking the Democratic record.
4. He believes the states primarily should handle the question of creating Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC).
5. He will support the Republican presidential nominee—if he doesn't get the prize himself—on the assumption that the GOP platform will be satisfactory.
6. The states can handle education problems better than the federal government.
7. "Our government needs a searching going over" by some one who has had no connection with the Democratic administrations of the last 20 years.
8. Agriculture must not be permitted to suffer but he doesn't know at this time the exact measure of price supports that should be given by the federal government.

Eisenhower told an unprecedented press conference in his boyhood hometown that he could not have served a man nine years as he did MacArthur without acquiring great respect for his ability and integrity.

Asked if he supported the Truman administration's foreign policy, Eisenhower said he had not been a part of any administration and had not been concerned with but one phase of foreign policy.

Backs Basic Conception

He added however that he has supported the basic conception of the administration policy as it concerns the safeguarding of western Europe against communism.

Eisenhower said he regarded the preservation of peace and security in the world under the fundamental beliefs of this nation as the paramount issue of the campaign.

He said he is going to try to speak out frankly on the issues and that he is proud that there are persons who "feel that I still can be of service to the United States."

Eisenhower also was asked how he stood on the St. Lawrence seaway project, a highly controversial issue for many years.

He said he believed everyone favored the power end of the question but there was dispute over the economic need of the seaway.

Construction Would Come

Then he said if the seaway is really needed by both Canada and the United States, it inevitably will be constructed.

Discussing labor legislation, Eisenhower said he honestly believes that people can not be compelled to work by legislation.

"We've got to find other means to solve our troubles," he said.

He said as a cadet at West Point he had worked for 84 hours each week. Bue he said he favored the social gains that labor has made and would not give up those gains.

But he added that the entire labor situation can only be complicated if the government "piles law on law."

Says Farms Must Prosper

He said labor could not prosper unless the farmer prospers. And

UN Will Not Ship Red POW Back in Chains, Like Cattle

Munsan, Korea, June 5 (AP)—UN truce negotiators today accused the Communists of insisting that thousands of allied-held war prisoners be chained or handcuffed and shipped back to the Reds like cattle.

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison told the Communists their demand for forced repatriation of all allied-held prisoners "falls on deaf ears. The UN will not forcibly and violently drive to your side anyone who resists returning to you."

He reiterated that the UN screening program showed "incontrovertibly" that 100,000 prisoners would rather die than return to communism.

The chief UN negotiator's address came after North Korean Gen. Nam Il charged that recent outbreaks of violence on Koje Island have proved the allied principle of voluntary repatriation "utterly bankrupt."

Nam declared the UN plan violates the Geneva Convention and added:

"Our proposal which assures that all prisoners will return home and lead a peaceful life is in complete accord with the Geneva Convention."

"It is your desire that the United Nations command force these people, against their will and at the point of a bayonet, to return to you?" Harrison asked.

"Are you insisting that our side handcuff, chain, or otherwise bind these people and ship them to you like cattle? Are you suggesting that their human rights be disregarded, that the United Nations

Registration Days For Voters Set

Qualified voters, expecting to be absent from the county on the regular days of registration, may register at the Ulster County Board of Elections, John street, through September 26.

This was announced today by the board when it made known the regular days of personal registration in the city of Kingston, October 3 and 4 and October 10 and 11.

Voters may also apply for absentee ballots when they appear at the board for central registration from now until September 26.

Under recent provisions of the election law, a category is established of those who may mail or deliver applications for absentee ballots to the board of elections until and including October 25.

They are:

An inmate of a veterans hospital, his wife, parent or child, and in non-personal registration districts a person whose name is registered therein and who is in military service.

A student matriculated, a superintendent or teacher employed at institutions of learning outside the county where the applicant resides; his life, parent or child of such absentee voter.

However, in all cases the applicant for an absentee ballot must be registered in order to secure one.

Literacy Change

There has also been a change in the "evidence of literacy" provision of the election law. In the past an eighth grade or college certificate was required. The law now provides that "a certificate or a letter signed by an official of the university or college certifying to such attendance" may be accepted and a person may present a certificate of an honorable discharge from any of the armed forces of the United States as evidence. However, the person must have been a resident of the State of New York when he or she became a member of the armed forces.

SHOKAN

Shokan, June 5—The Olive American Legion Post and Auxiliary this week held their June meeting in the Ashokan schoolhouse which soon will be the permanent home of these organizations. Members enjoyed a film shown by Mr. Strickland of the Central Hudson Company and assisted by Ernest Gardner, new commander of the local post. The Auxiliary decided to donate an afghan, made under the direction of Florence Miller, chairman of the cancer committee, to the cancer hospital. The Legion groups wish to thank the voters of Olive school district No. 4 and all other interested persons who helped to make possible the acquisition of the school building for a permanent memorial to the young service men from Olive in the great wars.

Members of the Denis T. Lynch and Robert Peck families of New York were at their adjoining summer places near Tice Teneyck Mountain during the holiday.

Robert Bligh, delegate from South Kortright to the convention of Future Farmers of America, won first prize in the state chicken-rearing contest. He won the prize of 300 straight-run chicks by virtue of his success in raising 728 R.I. Red chicks, from which he housed 610 laying pullets. He also won first prize of $50 in a Dairymen's League contest.

Included in the great holiday influx of city people to the mountains was Helen Isaaksen, Brooklyn young woman who with her mother and brother formerly spent several summers in Shokan. Helen, who with some friends stayed at the Pheasant Inn, reports that her brother, Eugene, is now an army photographer with our forces in Iceland. The Isaaksen family hope to rent a bungalow or cabin here this summer.

The "back to the job" hegira of city folks began around 10 a. m. Sunday as the torrential rains showed no sign of letting up. This traffic spread made for a noticeably lighter evening volume down the Onteora Trail, and in turn was a prime factor in the relatively light accident toll. It was indeed just too bad about the weather because there probably never were so many early season visitors to the mountains. "It looks," opined one observer, "as if the trail is going to take a mighty heavy beating this summer."

Although there were many censuses in the ancient world, the Middle Ages developed a prejudice against them which extended into comparatively modern times.

Registration Days For Voters Set

Qualified voters, expecting to be absent from the county on the regular days of registration, may register at the Ulster County Board of Elections, John street, through September 26.

This was announced today by the board when it made known the regular days of personal registration in the city of Kingston, October 3 and 4 and October 10 and 11.

Voters may also apply for absentee ballots when they appear at the board for central registration from now until September 26.

Under recent provisions of the election law, a category is established of those who may mail or deliver applications for absentee ballots to the board of elections until and including October 25.

They are:

An inmate of a veterans hospital, his wife, parent or child, and in non-personal registration districts a person whose name is registered therein and who is in military service.

A student matriculated, a superintendent or teacher employed at institutions of learning outside the county where the applicant resides; his life, parent or child of such absentee voter.

However, in all cases the applicant for an absentee ballot must be registered in order to secure one.

Literacy Change

There has also been a change in the "evidence of literacy" provision of the election law. In the past an eighth grade or college certificate was required. The law now provides that "a certificate or a letter signed by an official of the university or college certifying to such attendance" may be accepted and a person may present a certificate of an honorable discharge from any of the armed forces of the United States as evidence. However, the person must have been a resident of the State of New York when he or she became a member of the armed forces.

SHOKAN

Shokan, June 5—The Olive American Legion Post and Auxiliary this week held their June meeting in the Ashokan schoolhouse which soon will be the permanent home of these organizations. Members enjoyed a film shown by Mr. Strickland of the Central Hudson Company and assisted by Ernest Gardner, new commander of the local post. The Auxiliary decided to donate an afghan, made under the direction of Florence Miller, chairman of the cancer committee, to the cancer hospital. The Legion groups wish to thank the voters of Olive school district No. 4 and all other interested persons who helped to make possible the acquisition of the school building for a permanent memorial to the young service men from Olive in the great wars.

Members of the Denis T. Lynch and Robert Peck families of New York were at their adjoining summer places near Tice Teneyck Mountain during the holiday.

Robert Bligh, delegate from South Kortright to the convention of Future Farmers of America, won first prize in the state chicken-rearing contest. He won the prize of 300 straight-run chicks by virtue of his success in raising 728 R.I. Red chicks, from which he housed 610 laying pullets. He also won first prize of $50 in a Dairymen's League contest.

Included in the great holiday influx of city people to the mountains was Helen Isaaksen, Brooklyn young woman who with her mother and brother formerly spent several summers in Shokan. Helen, who with some friends stayed at the Pheasant Inn, reports that her brother, Eugene, is now an army photographer with our forces in Iceland. The Isaaksen family hope to rent a bungalow or cabin here this summer.

The "back to the job" hegira of city folks began around 10 a. m. Sunday as the torrential rains showed no sign of letting up. This traffic spread made for a noticeably lighter evening volume down the Onteora Trail, and in turn was a prime factor in the relatively light accident toll. It was indeed just too bad about the weather because there probably never were so many early season visitors to the mountains. "It looks," opined one observer, "as if the trail is going to take a mighty heavy beating this summer."

Although there were many censuses in the ancient world, the Middle Ages developed a prejudice against them which extended into comparatively modern times.

RED RIOTS AND DEFENSE EFFORTS

Riots in Paris and Berlin, interruptions of normal traffic between east and west zones, efforts to seal off the Soviet sector of the German capital, these all make a familiar pattern. They represent the standard Russian response to defeat.

The defeat, of course, was two-fold: the signing of German peace agreement with the United States, Britain and France, and the conclusion of the six-nation European army pact, to include German units.

While both of these actions must be ratified by the legislatures of the respective governments, the signing takes them out of the talk stage. Thus Russia is confronted with the near-reality of a stronger anti-Communist front in Europe.

The Soviet purpose in stirring riot, disrupting commerce and otherwise upsetting the normal routines of Western Europe's life is plain. The Kremlin seeks to arouse fear in the hearts of ordinary Germans, Frenchmen and Britons, to the end that they will petition their lawmakers in sufficient force and numbers to block the ratification of the peace pact and six-nation defense agreement.

If enough Western Europeans can be convinced that these accords might spell war, the forward-looking statesmen in the participating countries will be hard-pressed to win the necessary backing in their parliaments. Even without a new campaign of fear, the pacts face extreme obstacles in Bonn, Paris and London.

The West's immediate task, of course, is to show the Russians that riots and other disruptions will not successfully break the upward stride of the European defense effort. Obviously we can permit no effective interruption of our progress toward security for the free world.

Secondly, we must counter the Russians' fear campaign by trying to convince the average European that the pending peace and defense agreements mean less, not more chance of war.

All the information our experts can gather indicates the Russians do not want war in the months, and perhaps years just ahead. These new gestures of violence are rated as bluffs. The fact is the Russians do not enjoy a sufficient measure of military and economic strength to warrant their taking the risk of war.

Because we gauge the Russians unprepared for war does not mean, however, that we ourselves should therefore relax. It is the very growth of our defenses, including development of the six-nation army and the German peace pact, that can keep the Russians steadily off balance.

That is where we have them now, and that is why they are screaming and flailing about. For if their fear campaign should work, our defense effort would be seriously harmed. They might thereby gain advantage over us, and one day that margin might convince them that war had become a safe adventure for them.

Our job is to see to it that the Russians never reach the point where they believe they can safely undertake conquest of the free world.

A purse or handbag is no place for a delicate contraption like a watch. The Jewelry Industry Council says that this accounts for much of the watch trouble that women experience. In purses watches jostle perfume vials, and come in contact with face powder, cigarette tobacco and other substances that do watches no good. Though the watch case may seem to be absolutely tight, these foreign materials do seep in.

GOOD MANNERS IN CHINA

According to a report current a few years ago, good manners in China made it compulsory to ask a new acquaintance two questions, "How old are you?" and "How much money have you got?" This is just another example of what Americans consider the topsy-turvy attitude toward life prevalent in China. Such questions would be considered here the highest impertinence; in China it would be rude to omit them.

There is an argument for these inquiries. It gives the person questioned a chance to announce what he would like to have thought about his age and his finances. Whether or not it was true has nothing to do with it.

Now that China has gone Communist, probably the question about wealth is out. It might sound too much like a question that would lead to the arrival of the secret police.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

THE VOICE OF AMERICA

Senator Pat McCarran addressed a question to the secretary of state on the subject of the propaganda this country is doing among the enemy, both as to the nature of the material and the media employed. The State Department answered and a document has been issued.

Frankly, it is all puzzling as to what effect, if any, our propaganda is having upon those countries to which it is being beamed. Senator McCarran writes in his introduction:

". . . In Russia we ought constantly to remind the masses of the people of their long struggle for freedom and justice. We should quote to them not from our Washington and Lincoln and Jefferson but from their Herzen and Turgeniev and Gorki. We should hold up as heroes and models the really idealistic leaders of the pre-Soviet era who fought against tyranny and injustice—thus we would be appealing to a national tradition of revolt against despots."

I am not so sure that Senator McCarran's answer is better than the State Department's. The incitement to revolution is always intellectual and spiritual. No great revolution in history is a response to hunger, to the deprivation of material advantages. The explosion always is a product of the insistence of young minds for greater freedom of expression. Would a French Revolution have occurred without the preparation of the minds of young men by Rousseau, Voltaire and the Encyclopedists?

I personally saw and heard most of the founders of the Russian Revolution. On one occasion, I saw most of them in one room. These were no peasants and workers. They were intellectuals. Lenin, Trotzky, Tseretelli, Chernov, Kerensky, Plekhanov, Kollontai, of whatever party, they were intellectuals, concerned with the intricacies of the human spirit.

Wherever the Communists have established themselves they have devoted themselves to the task of changing the minds of men, of rewriting their philosophy of life. In each country after they take control, they have made Christianity their target—a hateful target to be destroyed and obliterated from the memory of man.

Why have they done this? It is no accident that they do not delay their way on Christianity and Judaism. They set that target because freedom, the liberty of the individual man, the basic doctrine of the Old and New Testaments, menaces their concept of the control of man in the interest of the state dominated by a self-perpetuating intellectual elite.

Mao Tze-tung in China goes the way of Stalin. He is not a peasant, although he often poses as one. I recall him back in 1918 or 1919 at the Peking National University as a student of philosophy under Dr. Hu Shih, whom he now denounces as a reactionary.

As I read what the State Department offers these countries as American propaganda, I am sure that it cannot succeed because it is too low-brow. It lacks philosophic content. If we dare not speak of God, of Natural Law, as the foundation of our politics and economics and social institutions, we actually have nothing to say that is important.

Measuring this pragmatically, we have not been successful in developing a vocal, articulate pro-American element in any Soviet country, whereas Soviet Russia has succeeded in building an effective pro-Russian force in every free country, including the United States.

To this task, we have devoted billions of dollars and have no evidence of a ripple on the surface. Senator Pat McCarran wisely asks questions, but what is really needed is an understanding of why we have failed.

Look at this excerpt from something called "shirttail No. 197":

"Just how much is forty-two and a half thousand million dollars—the amount spent by the United States in foreign aid programs since the end of World War II?

"For one thing, it is equal to $283 for every man, woman and child in the country. . . .

"And thus, as you see, Americans are taking their relations with the rest of the world seriously. They have been sending abroad a week's pay a year—or the equivalent of what that will buy—for every American man, woman, and child."

Certainly this does not tell an Asiatic anything important. An Asiatic wants to know what an American believes about man's relations to man, not that each sends $283 abroad.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

WHY QUIETING DRUGS ARE USED

In examining for military service or for life insurance, if the heart seems to be beating much more rapidly than normal the medical examiner has the recruit or applicant sit down or lie down for a short time. The heart gradually slows down to normal, or nearly to normal, as the patient becomes less tense. This same rule and treatment applies to blood pressure; increased blood pressure will gradually decrease as the recruit or applicant becomes less nervous.

When tenseness or nervousness is not the cause of increased blood pressure, it is often found to be due to conditions present which make it necessary for the heart to pump blood with more force to supply blood to all parts of the body. This is called "essential," or necessary, high blood pressure and, naturally, the individual is fortunate in having a heart strong enough to pump blood past obstacles in the blood vessels, particularly against the resistance of tightened, partly closed small blood vessels (capillaries) at the surface of the skin.

While there is no known drug that will reduce high blood pressure permanently, there are "quieting" drugs called sedatives that will reduce blood pressure temporarily; the individual gets relief from symptoms and a degree of safety from heart strokes (coronary thrombosis) and from brain strokes (apoplexy). Individuals with high blood pressure are called hypertensives, ('hyper' meaning high, or more).

In Medical Clinics of North America, Dr. William A. Thomas, Clinical (Rush) Professor of Medicine, University of Illinois College of Medicine, tells us that "some psychiatrists consider the typical hypertensive personality as alternating between aggression and passiveness and therefore subject to strong emotional conflict."

Dr. Thomas states that there is no "magic bullet" for the treatment of uncomplicated essential hypertension. Psychiatry is of definite value for some patients. "Any program of mental and physical rest outlined for an essential hypertensive should be individualized and guided by everyday, practical considerations. Intermittent courses of one of the barbiturates will remove some of the nervous tension. Also some new nerve relaxing drugs are being tried."

How Is Your Blood Pressure?

Is your blood pressure high? Is it low? Do you know what precautions to take in either event? You will receive much helpful information on this subject in Dr. Barton's booklet entitled "How Is Your Blood Pressure?" obtainable by sending 25 cents to cover cost of handling and mailing, to The Bell Syndicate, Inc., in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, Post Office Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Replacements for the AWOL

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Washington — The extent to which President Truman is directing backstage operations for the Democratic national convention can be gathered from a recent Sunday-morning conference with Gov. Paul Dever of Massachusetts and Frank McKinney, chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Governor Dever is to be Democratic keynote speaker, and the three men discussed the contents of his speech at some length, almost down to the commas and the semicolons. At one point the President even asked Dever whether he planned to read his speech.

"No, Mr. President," replied the Massachusetts governor, "I just can't read a speech. I fumble and stumble too much. I'll have a few notes, but I'll know what I want to say."

There was agreement that the speech must include a strong position on civil rights, and should review Democratic achievements during the last 20 years with a warm tribute to the Truman-Acheson foreign policy.

The President seemed so interested in convention plans and the meeting lasted so long that Governor Dever was late for the 11 o'clock Mass at St. Matthew's Cathedral. After church, a group of friends asked:

"Is the President going to take an active part in the convention?"

"This is the age of modern communications," replied Dever with a smile. "It's my guess that nobody at the convention will be able to see the President's hand."

Ike's First Political Speech

His political enemies will probably make something of the fact that the first political speech Dwight Eisenhower ever made in his life was at Abilene, Kans., in 1909 as a Democrat, and the second political speech of his life was also at Abilene in 1952 as a Republican.

The first political speech was at the age of 19 at a Jackson Day dinner. Eisenhower's father was a Democrat, and young Ike was picked as Democratic representative of the younger generation. The reason he made no more political speeches until this week was because he entered West Point a few months later.

Entirely aside from his political enemies, the 1909 speech at Abilene is significant in two respects:

No. 1—Young Ike made his prodominant observation at the age of 19: "'As the twig is inclined so the tree is bent.' A man after voting the straight ticket for several elections seldom changes from one side to the other."

This will be played up by Taft leaders; in fact, Congressman Carroll Reece of Tennessee, Taft's campaign manager for the south, already has cast doubts about Ike's ability to take off the gloves against the Democrats because he's been too close to them.

On the other hand, what many GOP leaders forget is that the Democratic party has the predominant registration in the nation today, and in order to win, the Republicans must woo large blocs of Democratic votes. A candidate who has had Democratic training in the past sometimes can do this better than a dyed-in-the-wool Republican.

GOP Split: 1912-1952

No. 2—Young Ike's 1909 speech was filled with references to the division inside the Republican party, which later split it squarely in two during the row between President Taft, father of the senator and ex-President Teddy Roosevelt.

Ironically, Eisenhower is now in exactly the same kind of fight, with the Republican party becoming more bitter and another split threatened between conservative and progressive Republicans.

After the Elder Taft refused to seat Teddy Roosevelt's delegates at the 1912 convention, Roosevelt bolted, formed the Bull Moose party. Today the same fight over Texas, Louisiana and South Carolina delegates is certain to take place in Chicago, with President Taft's son and Eisenhower lined up in bitterly opposing camps.

Young Ike, speaking as a Democrat in Abilene in 1909, had some wordly-wise observations to make about the earlier split in the party of which he is now a member.

As shown by the following remarks young politician Eisenhower was trying to wean the progressive wing of the Republican party over to the Democrats, just as Eisenhower the candidate will now have to win Democrats over to the Republican party.

"One branch (of the Republican party)," he told the Jackson Day meeting at Abilene, "is the Square-Dealers, Insurgents, and Reformers. Although these men are loud in their denunciation of Cannon, Aldrich, and a few others who are hide-bound party men, yet they refuse to join any other party and at election vote the Republican ticket. . . .

"There is an inborn desire in all normal and healthy boys to help the smaller contestants in an even fight," Eisenhower continued. "A young man, in speaking of the political situation the other day, said: 'My father is a Republican and so was his father, but I am going to vote for the Democrats at the next election because I think they need me and the Republicans do not.'

Boosts Democratic Principles

"But notwithstanding such reasoning as an admiration of fair play, the parental vote and the like, a man's first vote generally is cast correctly. He has arrived at an age of great self-confidence and has acquired a feeling of self-importance, for he figures that he will be about one-fifteenth of a millionth part of the vote of the United States. . . .

"A leader of a political party who is a clean and fearless fighter," concluded young Eisenhower, "and possesses a winning manner is undoubtedly the means of attracting a large number of votes. The young man sees that the more honest and fearless leaders have become disgusted with the actions of the leaders and the party proper. He admires these men greatly but he cannot help but think and remark that they are fighting for many of the same principles which the Democratic party advocated."

That was Dwight Eisenhower's first and last contribution to the Democratic party. According to the Abilene News:

"To say that he handled himself nicely would be putting it mildly. His speech was well-received."

A few months later, Ike Eisenhower was in West Point, where no one is supposed to be either a Democrat or a Republican.

Differences, Similarities Exist in British Controls in Respect to Ours

By DAVID LAWRENCE

London, June 5 — Britain has controls, but they are of a somewhat different character from those which exist in the United States. With respect to regulation of wages and prices, however, there are some similarities.

Thus, in Britain today the chancellor of the exchequer, who corresponds to the secretary of the treasury in Washington, has the responsibility for dealing with the leaders of trade unions and industrial companies on the subject of wages.

Conferences have been held to urge the trade unions to be moderate in their demands, though there is no way to restrain them except by public sentiment. The chancellor, R. A. Butler, has not asked for a complete wage freeze and has conceded that there might be some very moderate adjustments, but he does speak out bluntly against the possibility of a wage-price inflationary spiral that could cause great damage and suffering before it could be brought under control.

Many of the trade-union leaders are themselves convinced that restraint is needed, but are afraid they will be repudiated by the rank and file unless wage increases are granted.

Probably the most important restraint that exists is the knowledge that, if the cost of production goes up very high, Britain will be unable to compete in the export markets of the world and that this, in turn, will make it impossible for Britons to buy the necessary food and the other articles so essential to their livelihood.

The government, of course, can prevent prices from rising and has already warned that profits will have to be somewhat restricted. Mr. Butler says:

"If wages are pushed up in this way to offset price increases for which compensation has already been received, they will themselves give the most powerful impetus to rises in prices at the very time when we have a chance of getting stability."

It was necessary for Mr. Butler to assure the unions that the government would establish conditions in which no more than "reasonable profit" is earned. He said:

"We are all against excessive profit."

All this has a familiar ring to the American who has been observing the fight against inflation in the United States. But, while the average American trade-union leader and industrialist sees inflation as an abstract proposition, the Briton sees a possible fall in exports as a realistic threat to his survival. The best check, therefore, against inflation is the knowledge that the cost of production must be held down or exported articles will not be able to compete against other countries.

Another aspect of the wage problem is the tendency here to introduce increased productivity as a basis for raising wages. The standard of living is low compared to other countries, but Britain is in such a fix that humanitarian considerations are secondary and productivity is primary, especially because of the great emergency in the export field.

The Conservative government has reduced somewhat the deficit in dollars resulting from the fact that Great Britain buys more from the rest of the world than she sells. The drain on Britain's gold reserves has been constant, and it was one of the main reasons why the Conservative government came into power. Had the deficit continued at the rate it was piling up in 1951, the collapse of Britain would have come in only a few months.

The deficit is too big even as it is, and at the moment it is increased by the decline in rubber prices. The British had expected to sell more and more natural rubber from their southeastern Asia plantations. Also it should not be forgotten that the British get a good deal of revenue from shipping and that, when there is a block in world trade, they lose the receipts from hauling the cargoes as well as such profit as can be made on the materials themselves.

The British and American economic systems are by no means alike in their operation. Here competition is looked upon as a ruinous affair, and this is one of the reasons why nationalization was such an easy step for the British public to take. Incidentally, the Conservative government, which is attempting to "denationalize" some of the industries taken over by the Labor government, is finding it hard to sell the idea to the former owners, who are being told by radicals that, if a Labor government is returned to power, the properties would again be acquired by the government.

In the case of the transport business, a complicated mechanism has been set in motion—which it will take a year to work out—that contemplates selling the equipment back to private enterprise and placing a tax on road haulage. The denationalizing of steel is a long way off, but the Conservative party is pledged to try it at the proper time.

To transform an economic system in ordinary times is quite a job, but to try it in times of national and international emergency is an even greater one. That's why those who believe in private enterprise must necessarily look with a tolerant sympathy upon the efforts of the Conservative government here to find a way out of the morass into which Britain has been led by a mixture of state socialism and radicalism. This has been brought about not just by "left wing" elements but by the lack of foresight and initiative of industrial leaders in Britain in the past who have failed to mechanize and who have mistakenly regarded monopoly and cartels as a convenient substitute for competition.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

San Diego, Calif., June 4—Admiral William H. Standley, whose experiences as our ambassador in Moscow have been sketchily related here these last few days, is one old Democrat who now sees the Russian menace to our country which was recklessly fostered by the Roosevelt-Truman regime. He did not appreciate the danger then but he is now doing his best to redeem the situation by revealing information showing the quality of the Roosevelt government's dealings with Moscow. He is 80 years old and, although he is not physically feeble, still politics is out of his line and the most he can do is make a few speeches, most of them to small audiences, usually of Republicans. He just wants his information to be effective and to be effective it must be presented to the public before Election Day and, preferably, before the conventions. I have read most of the manuscript of his memoirs, written not for profit as Eisenhower's were, but for the public knowledge, and I believe that with a little professional revision, which is necessary in most such cases, it would make a book of historic value.

The story is a depressing one. Admiral Standley tells us that an agent of the American Red Cross, a man named Hubbel, was sent to Moscow with him to try to solve the mystery of the disappearance of American Red Cross supplies. The Russians would never account for anything and the ambassador believed they were using American Red Cross and American relief supplies for their armies. Mr. Hubbel wanted to give the Russians three fine ambulances, completely equipped. Standley said he wouldn't approve any more gifts until they permitted American agents to witness the issue of the stuff to the recipients. Mr. Hubbel soon learned his lesson and the offer of the three American ambulances never was made.

It may be remembered that Norman Davis, a sort of housepet of the Roosevelt family, had been made president of the American Red Cross, a $25,000 job which had become a patronage position for the first time. Davis had been a roving ambassador for some time and he was typical of the character of the Roosevelt appointees. Roosevelt preferred men whom he could patronize, men who needed his genteel largess, bestowed at no cost to himself, however.

"An important act in the Red Cross play and also a lesson to the Russians was the visit to the Soviet Union and the circumstances surrounding it, of Arthur Sulzberger, owner and editor of the New York Times," the admiral's story says. "A message was received from President Roosevelt which read as follows: 'Mr. Arthur Sulzberger of the New York Times is a director of the International Red Cross. He desires to visit the Soviet Union in the interest of the society. It is requested that you obtain the necessary permission and visas.'"

Roy W. Howard, of the Scripps-Howard papers, an old-time working reporter with a brilliant record of exclusive interviews with Lloyd George, Stalin, and Hitler and an audience with the Japanese emperor, who was then regarded by his subjects as a divine person, had applied for permission to go to some of the fronts. Roosevelt turned him down on the ground that he was not a reporter but a publisher and was well served by the reporters he had in the field. Joseph Medill Patterson, publisher of the New York News, got the same brush-off. But Howard later received an intimation that if he would latch on as a Red Cross man he could make it. Howard declined. Howard and Patterson were on the outs with Roosevelt. Sulzberger's Times remained friendly and was to support him for his fourth term.

Admiral Standley writes that he took up the request for a visa for Sulzberger with the foreign office and was told that Stalin wanted to know whether Sulzberger was coming to Russia solely in the interests of the Red Cross.

"Or," the admiral writes, "was he coming as an editor and newspaper man? I promptly replied that President Roosevelt's message stated that he was coming as a representative of the International Red Cross and that I was sure he was not coming as a newspaper man. This did not satisfy Stalin who came back promptly with a request that I get this assurance from Roosevelt, himself. This was promptly forthcoming and just as promptly were the permission granted and visas issued."

Standley invited Sulzberger to

RED RIOTS AND DEFENSE EFFORTS

Riots in Paris and Berlin, interruptions of normal traffic between east and west zones, efforts to seal off the Soviet sector of the German capital, these all make a familiar pattern. They represent the standard Russian response to defeat.

The defeat, of course, was two-fold: the signing of German peace agreement with the United States, Britain and France, and the conclusion of the six-nation European army pact, to include German units.

While both of these actions must be ratified by the legislatures of the respective governments, the signing takes them out of the talk stage. Thus Russia is confronted with the near-reality of a stronger anti-Communist front in Europe.

The Soviet purpose in stirring riot, disrupting commerce and otherwise upsetting the normal routines of Western Europe's life is plain. The Kremlin seeks to arouse fear in the hearts of ordinary Germans, Frenchmen and Britons, to the end that they will petition their lawmakers in sufficient force and numbers to block the ratification of the peace pact and six-nation defense agreement.

If enough Western Europeans can be convinced that these accords might spell war, the forward-looking statesmen in the participating countries will be hard-pressed to win the necessary backing in their parliaments. Even without a new campaign of fear, the pacts face extreme obstacles in Bonn, Paris and London.

The West's immediate task, of course, is to show the Russians that riots and other disruptions will not successfully break the upward stride of the European defense effort. Obviously we can permit no effective interruption of our progress toward security for the free world.

Secondly, we must counter the Russians' fear campaign by trying to convince the average European that the pending peace and defense agreements mean less, not more chance of war.

All the information our experts can gather indicates the Russians do not want war in the months, and perhaps years just ahead. These new gestures of violence are rated as bluffs. The fact is the Russians do not enjoy a sufficient measure of military and economic strength to warrant their taking the risk of war.

Because we gauge the Russians unprepared for war does not mean, however, that we ourselves should therefore relax. It is the very growth of our defenses, including development of the six-nation army and the German peace pact, that can keep the Russians steadily off balance.

That is where we have them now, and that is why they are screaming and flailing about. For if their fear campaign should work, our defense effort would be seriously harmed. They might thereby gain advantage over us, and one day that margin might convince them that war had become a safe adventure for them.

Our job is to see to it that the Russians never reach the point where they believe they can safely undertake conquest of the free world.

A purse or handbag is no place for a delicate contraption like a watch. The Jewelry Industry Council says that this accounts for much of the watch trouble that women experience. In purses watches jostle perfume vials, and come in contact with face powder, cigarette tobacco and other substances that do watches no good. Though the watch case may seem to be absolutely tight, these foreign materials do seep in.

GOOD MANNERS IN CHINA

According to a report current a few years ago, good manners in China made it compulsory to ask a new acquaintance two questions, "How old are you?" and "How much money have you got?" This is just another example of what Americans consider the topsy-turvy attitude toward life prevalent in China. Such questions would be considered here the highest impertinence; in China it would be rude to omit them.

There is an argument for these inquiries. It gives the person questioned a chance to announce what he would like to have thought about his age and his finances. Whether or not it was true has nothing to do with it.

Now that China has gone Communist, probably the question about wealth is out. It might sound too much like a question that would lead to the arrival of the secret police.

'These Days'

THE VOICE OF AMERICA

Senator Pat McCarran addressed a question to the secretary of state on the subject of the propaganda this country is doing among the enemy, both as to the nature of the material and the media employed. The State Department answered and a document has been issued.

Frankly, it is all puzzling as to what effect, if any, our propaganda is having upon those countries to which it is being beamed. Senator McCarran writes in his introduction:

". . . In Russia we ought constantly to remind the masses of the people of their long struggle for freedom and justice. We should quote to them not from our Washington and Lincoln and Jefferson but from their Herzen and Turgeniev and Gorki. We should hold up as heroes and models the really idealistic leaders of the pre-Soviet era who fought against tyranny and injustice—thus we would be appealing to a national tradition of revolt against despots."

I am not so sure that Senator McCarran's answer is better than the State Department's. The incitement to revolution is always intellectual and spiritual. No great revolution in history is a response to hunger, to the deprivation of material advantages. The explosion always is a product of the insistence of young minds for greater freedom of expression. Would a French Revolution have occurred without the preparation of the minds of young men by Rousseau, Voltaire and the Encyclopedists?

I personally saw and heard most of the founders of the Russian Revolution. On one occasion, I saw most of them in one room. These were no peasants and workers. They were intellectuals. Lenin, Trotzky, Tseretelli, Chernov, Kerensky, Plekhanov, Kollontai, of whatever party, they were intellectuals, concerned with the intricacies of the human spirit.

Wherever the Communists have established themselves they have devoted themselves to the task of changing the minds of men, of rewriting their philosophy of life. In each country after they take control, they have made Christianity their target—a hateful target to be destroyed and obliterated from the memory of man.

Why have they done this? It is no accident that they do not delay their way on Christianity and Judaism. They set that target because freedom, the liberty of the individual man, the basic doctrine of the Old and New Testaments, menaces their concept of the control of man in the interest of the state dominated by a self-perpetuating intellectual elite.

Mao Tze-tung in China goes the way of Stalin. He is not a peasant, although he often poses as one. I recall him back in 1918 or 1919 at the Peking National University as a student of philosophy under Dr. Hu Shih, whom he now denounces as a reactionary.

As I read what the State Department offers these countries as American propaganda, I am sure that it cannot succeed because it is too low-brow. It lacks philosophic content. If we dare not speak of God, of Natural Law, as the foundation of our politics and economics and social institutions, we actually have nothing to say that is important.

Measuring this pragmatically, we have not been successful in developing a vocal, articulate pro-American element in any Soviet country, whereas Soviet Russia has succeeded in building an effective pro-Russian force in every free country, including the United States.

To this task, we have devoted billions of dollars and have no evidence of a ripple on the surface. Senator Pat McCarran wisely asks questions, but what is really needed is an understanding of why we have failed.

Look at this excerpt from something called "shirttail No. 197":

"Just how much is forty-two and a half thousand million dollars—the amount spent by the United States in foreign aid programs since the end of World War II?

"For one thing, it is equal to $283 for every man, woman and child in the country. . . .

"And thus, as you see, Americans are taking their relations with the rest of the world seriously. They have been sending abroad a week's pay a year—or the equivalent of what that will buy—for every American man, woman, and child."

Certainly this does not tell an Asiatic anything important. An Asiatic wants to know what an American believes about man's relations to man, not that each sends $283 abroad.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

WHY QUIETING DRUGS ARE USED

In examining for military service or for life insurance, if the heart seems to be beating much more rapidly than normal the medical examiner has the recruit or applicant sit down or lie down for a short time. The heart gradually slows down to normal, or nearly to normal, as the patient becomes less tense. This same rule and treatment applies to blood pressure; increased blood pressure will gradually decrease as the recruit or applicant becomes less nervous.

When tenseness or nervousness is not the cause of increased blood pressure, it is often found to be due to conditions present which make it necessary for the heart to pump blood with more force to supply blood to all parts of the body. This is called "essential," or necessary, high blood pressure and, naturally, the individual is fortunate in having a heart strong enough to pump blood past obstacles in the blood vessels, particularly against the resistance of tightened, partly closed small blood vessels (capillaries) at the surface of the skin.

While there is no known drug that will reduce high blood pressure permanently, there are "quieting" drugs called sedatives that will reduce blood pressure temporarily; the individual gets relief from symptoms and a degree of safety from heart strokes (coronary thrombosis) and from brain strokes (apoplexy). Individuals with high blood pressure are called hypertensives, ('hyper' meaning high, or more).

In Medical Clinics of North America, Dr. William A. Thomas, Clinical (Rush) Professor of Medicine, University of Illinois College of Medicine, tells us that "some psychiatrists consider the typical hypertensive personality as alternating between aggression and passiveness and therefore subject to strong emotional conflict."

Dr. Thomas states that there is no "magic bullet" for the treatment of uncomplicated essential hypertension. Psychiatry is of definite value for some patients. "Any program of mental and physical rest outlined for an essential hypertensive should be individualized and guided by everyday, practical considerations. Intermittent courses of one of the barbiturates will remove some of the nervous tension. Also some new nerve relaxing drugs are being tried."

How Is Your Blood Pressure?

Is your blood pressure high? Is it low? Do you know what precautions to take in either event? You will receive much helpful information on this subject in Dr. Barton's booklet entitled "How Is Your Blood Pressure?" obtainable by sending 25 cents to cover cost of handling and mailing, to The Bell Syndicate, Inc., in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, Post Office Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Replacements for the AWOL

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Washington — The extent to which President Truman is directing backstage operations for the Democratic national convention can be gathered from a recent Sunday-morning conference with Gov. Paul Dever of Massachusetts and Frank McKinney, chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Governor Dever is to be Democratic keynote speaker, and the three men discussed the contents of his speech at some length, almost down to the commas and the semicolons. At one point the President even asked Dever whether he planned to read his speech.

"No, Mr. President," replied the Massachusetts governor, "I just can't read a speech. I fumble and stumble too much. I'll have a few notes, but I'll know what I want to say."

There was agreement that the speech must include a strong position on civil rights, and should review Democratic achievements during the last 20 years with a warm tribute to the Truman-Acheson foreign policy.

The President seemed so interested in convention plans and the meeting lasted so long that Governor Dever was late for the 11 o'clock Mass at St. Matthew's Cathedral. After church, a group of friends asked:

"Is the President going to take an active part in the convention?"

"This is the age of modern communications," replied Dever with a smile. "It's my guess that nobody at the convention will be able to see the President's hand."

Ike's First Political Speech

His political enemies will probably make something of the fact that the first political speech Dwight Eisenhower ever made in his life was at Abilene, Kans., in 1909 as a Democrat, and the second political speech of his life was also at Abilene in 1952 as a Republican.

The first political speech was at the age of 19 at a Jackson Day dinner. Eisenhower's father was a Democrat, and young Ike was picked as Democratic representative of the younger generation. The reason he made no more political speeches until this week was because he entered West Point a few months later.

Entirely aside from his political enemies, the 1909 speech at Abilene is significant in two respects:

No. 1—Young Ike made his profound observation at the age of 19: "'As the twig is inclined so the tree is bent.' A man after voting the straight ticket for several elections seldom changes from one side to the other."

This will be played up by Taft leaders; in fact, Congressman Carroll Reece of Tennessee, Taft's campaign manager for the south, already has cast doubts about Ike's ability to take off the gloves against the Democrats because he's been too close to them.

On the other hand, what many GOP leaders forget is that the Democratic party has the predominant registration in the nation today, and in order to win, the Republicans must woo large blocs of Democratic votes. A candidate who has had Democratic training in the past sometimes can do this better than a dyed-in-the-wool Republican.

GOP Split: 1912-1952

No. 2—Young Ike's 1909 speech was filled with references to the division inside the Republican party, which later split it squarely in two during the row between President Taft, father of the senator and ex-President Teddy Roosevelt.

Ironically, Eisenhower is now in exactly the same kind of fight, with the Republican party becoming more bitter and another split threatened between conservative and progressive Republicans.

After the Elder Taft refused to seat Teddy Roosevelt's delegates at the 1912 convention, Roosevelt bolted, formed the Bull Moose party. Today the same fight over Texas, Louisiana and South Carolina delegates is certain to take place in Chicago, with President Taft's son and Eisenhower lined up in bitterly opposing camps.

Young Ike, speaking as a Democrat in Abilene in 1909, had some wordly-wise observations to make about the earlier split in the party of which he is now a member.

As shown by the following remarks young politician Eisenhower was trying to wean the progressive wing of the Republican party over to the Democrats, just as Eisenhower the candidate will now have to win Democrats over to the Republican party.

"One branch (of the Republican party)," he told the Jackson Day meeting at Abilene, "is the Square-Dealers, Insurgents, and Reformers. Although these men are loud in their denunciation of Cannon, Aldrich, and a few others who are hide-bound party men, yet they refuse to join any other party and at election vote the Republican ticket. . . .

"There is an inborn desire in all normal and healthy boys to help the smaller contestants in an even fight," Eisenhower continued. "A young man, in speaking of the political situation the other day, said: 'My father is a Republican and so was his father, but I am going to vote for the Democrats at the next election because I think they need me and the Republicans do not.'

Boosts Democratic Principles

"But notwithstanding such reasoning as an admiration of fair play, the parental vote and the like, a man's first vote generally is cast correctly. He has arrived at an age of great self-confidence and has acquired a feeling of self-importance, for he figures that he will be about one-fifteenth of a millionth part of the vote of the United States. . . .

"A leader of a political party who is a clean and fearless fighter," concluded young Eisenhower, "and possesses a winning manner is undoubtedly the means of attracting a large number of votes. The young man sees that the more honest and fearless leaders have become disgusted with the actions of the leaders and the party proper. He admires these men greatly but he cannot help but think and remark that they are fighting for many of the same principles which the Democratic party advocated."

That was Dwight Eisenhower's first and last contribution to the Democratic party. According to the Abilene News:

"To say that he handled himself nicely would be putting it mildly. His speech was well-received."

A few months later, Ike Eisenhower was in West Point, where no one is supposed to be either a Democrat or a Republican.

Differences, Similarities Exist in British Controls in Respect to Ours

By DAVID LAWRENCE

London, June 5 — Britain has controls, but they are of a somewhat different character from those which exist in the United States. With respect to regulation of wages and prices, however, there are some similarities.

Thus, in Britain today the chancellor of the exchequer, who corresponds to the secretary of the treasury in Washington, has the responsibility for dealing with the leaders of trade unions and industrial companies on the subject of wages.

Had the deficit continued at the rate it was piling up in 1951, the collapse of Britain would have come in only a few months.

The deficit is too big even as it is, and at the moment it is increased by the decline in rubber prices. The British had expected to sell more and more natural rubber from their southeastern Asia plantations. Also it should not be forgotten that the British get a good deal of revenue from shipping and that, when there is a block in world trade, they lose the receipts from hauling the cargoes as well as such profit as can be made on the materials themselves.

The British and American economic systems are by no means alike in their operation. Here competition is looked upon as a ruinous affair, and this is one of the reasons why nationalization was such an easy step for the British public to take. Incidentally, the Conservative government, which is attempting to "denationalize" some of the industries taken over by the Labor government, is finding it hard to sell the idea to the former owners, who are being told by radicals that, if a Labor government is returned to power, the properties would again be acquired by the government.

In the case of the transport business, a complicated mechanism has been set in motion—which it will take a year to work out—that contemplates selling the equipment back to private enterprise and placing a tax on road haulage. The denationalizing of steel is a long way off, but the Conservative party is pledged to try it at the proper time.

To transform an economic system in ordinary times is quite a job, but to try it in times of national and international emergency is an even greater one. That's why those who believe in private enterprise must necessarily look with a tolerant sympathy upon the efforts of the Conservative government here to find a way out of the morass into which Britain has been led by a mixture of state socialism and radicalism. This has been brought about not just by "left wing" elements but by the lack of foresight and initiative of industrial leaders in Britain in the past who have failed to mechanize and who have mistakenly regarded monopoly and cartels as a convenient substitute for competition.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

San Diego, Calif., June 4—Admiral William H. Standley, whose experiences as our ambassador in Moscow have been sketchily related here these last few days, is one old Democrat who now sees the Russian menace to our country which was recklessly fostered by the Roosevelt-Truman regime. He did not appreciate the danger then but he is now doing his best to redeem the situation by revealing information showing the quality of the Roosevelt government's dealings with Moscow. He is 80 years old and, although he is not physically feeble, still politics is out of his line and the most he can do is make a few speeches, most of them to small audiences, usually of Republicans. He just wants his information to be effective and to be effective it must be presented to the public before Election Day and, preferably, before the conventions. I have read most of the manuscript of his memoirs, written not for profit as Eisenhower's were, but for the public knowledge, and I believe that with a little professional revision, which is necessary in most such cases, it would make a book of historic value.

The story is a depressing one. Admiral Standley tells us that an agent of the American Red Cross, a man named Hubbel, was sent to Moscow with him to try to solve the mystery of the disappearance of American Red Cross supplies. The Russians would never account for anything and the ambassador believed they were using American Red Cross and American relief supplies for their armies. Mr. Hubbel wanted to give the Russians three fine ambulances, completely equipped. Standley said he wouldn't approve any more gifts until they permitted American agents to witness the issue of the stuff to the recipients. Mr. Hubbel soon learned his lesson and the offer of the three American ambulances never was made.

It may be remembered that Norman Davis, a sort of housepet of the Roosevelt family, had been made president of the American Red Cross, a $25,000 job which had become a patronage position for the first time. Davis had been a roving ambassador for some time and he was typical of the character of the Roosevelt appointees. Roosevelt preferred men whom he could patronize, men who needed his genteel largess, bestowed at no cost to himself, however.

"An important act in the Red Cross play and also a lesson to the Russians was the visit to the Soviet Union and the circumstances surrounding it, of Arthur Sulzberger, owner and editor of the New York Times," the admiral's story says. "A message was received from President Roosevelt which read as follows: 'Mr. Arthur Sulzberger of the New York Times is a director of the International Red Cross. He desires to visit the Soviet Union in the interest of the society. It is requested that you obtain the necessary permission and visas.'"

Roy W. Howard, of the Scripps-Howard papers, an old-time working reporter with a brilliant record of exclusive interviews with Lloyd George, Stalin, and Hitler and an audience with the Japanese emperor, who was then regarded by his subjects as a divine person, had applied for permission to go to some of the fronts. Roosevelt turned him down on the ground that he was not a reporter but a publisher and was well served by the reporters he had in the field. Joseph Medill Patterson, publisher of the New York News, got the same brushoff. But Howard later received an intimation that if he would latch on as a Red Cross man he could make it. Howard declined. Howard and Patterson were on the outs with Roosevelt. Sulzberger's Times remained friendly and was to support him for his fourth term.

Admiral Standley writes that he took up the request for a visa for Sulzberger with the foreign office and was told that Stalin wanted to know whether Sulzberger was coming to Russia solely in the interests of the Red Cross.

"Or," the admiral writes, "was he coming as an editor and newspaper man? I promptly replied that President Roosevelt's message stated that he was coming as a representative of the International Red Cross and that I was sure he was not coming as a newspaper man. This did not satisfy Stalin who came back promptly with a request that I get this assurance from Roosevelt, himself. This was promptly forthcoming and just as promptly were the permission granted and visas issued."

Standley invited Sulzberger to

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Remarkable Playing Won This Contract

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

What does a traveling salesman do when he isn't traveling or selling? If he's a bridge player, he drops into a bridge club wherever he happens to be.

Charles H. Sanders, of New York, travels quite a bit as sales manager for a cigaret company. On a recent trip to Cincinnati, Mr. Sanders, one of the ranking players in the country, had to find a remarkable play to fulfill the contract in the hand shown today.

West opened the jack of diamonds, and Mr. Sanders won in dummy with the ace. He promptly led three top clubs from the dummy, discarding low diamonds from his hand.

The average player would probably try to draw trumps next. Mr. Sanders, however, saw no reason to give the opponents a chance to defeat the contract if the distribution happened to be freakish.

His opponents happened to be two of the best players in the country, and he knew that they would take a great delight in hornswoggling the visiting expert, if they could.

After running the three top clubs, Mr. Sanders proceeded to lead out the top hearts. The ace of hearts was safely cashed, but West ruffed the king of hearts.

West could not afford to lead two rounds of trumps, since then Mr. Sanders would make his contract with four trump tricks, two hearts, a diamond, and three clubs. West therefore returned a diamond, forcing declarer to ruff.

Declarer now made the key play of leading his low heart. East won with the ten of hearts and could not find a way to defeat the contract. If he returned anything but a trump South would surely be able to ruff his queen of hearts with dummy's queen of spades.

If East returned a trump, two rounds of trumps would permit declarer to draw all of the trumps and cash his queen of hearts safely at the end.

Bridge Travel Shows Increase

Travel over the three Hudson river bridges under control of the New York State Bridge Authority was 8.71 per cent higher during May this year than in May, 1951, the authority reported today.

The bridges clocked 538,848 vehicles last month and 495,684 a year ago, an increase of 43,164.

The Rip Van Winkle Bridge carried 123,255 vehicles last month and 111,222 a year ago for a gain of 12,033 vehicles or 10.82 per cent.

The Mid-Hudson Bridge clocked 289,583 against 266,670 last year for a gain of 22,913 or 8.59 per cent, and the Bear Mountain carried 126,010 against 117,792 for a gain of 8,218 or 6.98 per cent.

The Kingston-Rhinecliff ferry which broke down in May of last year was tied up for ten days and the gain in travel on it last month was considerable. It carried 6,956 vehicles last month and 4,732 a year ago, a gain of 2,224. It carried 2,633 pedestrian passengers last month and only 1,477 a year ago for a gain of 1,156.

Late Bulletin

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The House voted overwhelmingly today in favor of a new GI Bill of Rights for veterans discharged from the armed forces since fighting began in Korea on June 27, 1950.

The roll call vote was 361 to 1. The lone dissenter was Rep. Devereux (D.-Md.), onetime commander of the army garrison on Wake Island.

The bill now goes to the Senate.

The bill, drafted to correct what its sponsors call abuses in the World War II veterans benefit law, provides educational and job training assistance with payments to be made directly to veterans instead of to schools and colleges.

It also extends home and business loan guarantees, social security credits and mustering-out pay for the new batch of vetcrans.

The education provision calls for maximum monthly payments of $110 to qualified veterans without dependents. Those with dependents would get up to $150 a month. Scaled-down grants are allowed for veterans who take only part-time schooling or on-the-job training.

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 5 (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft apparently edged out Gen. Dwight Eisenhower for South Kakota's 14 delegates to the Republican convention, subject to an official canvass, in the nip and tuck battle.

With 10 precincts unreported, the Ohioan held a slim 590 vote lead over new civilian Eisenhower. The vote in the remote uncounted precincts did not appear to be enough to change the unofficial tabulations.

2,417 Letters Are MailedWithStamps Of Anniversary

Letters bearing a special 300th anniversary cachet were mailed to collectors in every state in the United States and 15 foreign countries today. Leo Schupp, cachet director for Kingston's 300th Anniversary, reported that he mailed 2,417 such letters today.

The special cachet consists of a reproduction of the official insignia, surrounded by references to the Chambers Deed, Kingston as the first capital of New York State, and the heading "The Colonial City Greets You on Its 300th Anniversary, June 5, 1952." In all cases self-addressed, stamped envelopes were sent to Mr. Schupp on which the cachet stamp was placed and cancelled today at the local post office with the special 300th anniversary cancellation. Each letter also had one of the special poster stamps on the back of the envelope.

It is difficult to measure the publicity value of this number of direct contacts all over the world, but the anniversary group is well pleased with the results.

Flights Are Canceled

New York, June 5 (AP)—A work stoppage by American Airlines field personnel at LaGuardia Field caused the cancellation today of nine regularly scheduled flights and threatened to cancel more. About 350 mechanics, baggage handlers and other ground workers yesterday afternoon began a "sitdown" which continued throughout the early morning work shift.

Queen Takes Salute

London, June 5 (AP)—Queen Elizabeth 2nd took the salute at a traditional trooping the color ceremony today for the first time in the history of the British army.

The colors honored by royal review at the pageant, marking the official 26th birthday of the young monarch, were those of the Second Battalion of the Scots Guards.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Heron of Kingston called on Reuben Barrett on Tuesday.

Mrs. Stanley Barrett and children, Stanley, Jr., and Judy, of Schenectady, spent the first of the week here with Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Barrett. Stanley, Jr., took part in the dance revue held in the George Washington School in Kingston Monday and Tuesday evenings. Stanley Barrett, Sr., came down Tuesday evening and they returned home with him.

Mrs. Elsa Hart, local postmaster, is attending the State Postmasters' Convention in Albany this week. Mrs. Hart is a state director of the association. Miss Sarah Lounsbery, postmaster of Stone Ridge, accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jansen visited Mrs. Jansen's sister and family, the Raymond Pages of Susquehanna, Pa., over the weekend.

Mrs. Harry Bush and Mrs. Edmond O'Hara have returned home from the hospital somewhat improved. They had been in the hospital following an automobile accident which occurred in Kingston a week ago.

Mettacahonts

Mettacahonts, June 5 — The Willing Workers will hold their June meeting on the 11th at 2 p. m., in the home of Mrs. Alton Depuy.

Mr. and Mrs. William Treadway entertained guests over the holiday and weekend.

Mrs. Jesse Osterhoudt has returned to her home from the Ellenville hospital.

M. Gates came from Newark, N. J., to spend the weekend at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jansen Osterhoudt and daughter entertained supper guests Saturday from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell of Kingston were recent callers at the home of Mrs. Bell's sister, Mrs. Jesse Osterhoudt and family at her home.

The Santa Gretrudis breed of cattle is said to be the only beef cattle breed developed in the United States.

Knights of Columbus Elects

At its meeting Monday evening, the Knights of Columbus elected new officers. Seated, left to right, are Howard Fox, warden; Kenneth Clark, deputy grand knight; Charles Trice, grand knight; and Richard Fay, chancellor. Standing, from left, John Ceccarelli, inside guard; Walter Foster, financial secretary; James Gilpatric, lecturer; W. Kenneth Geary, treasurer; and Stanley Dempsey, outside guard. (Freeman photo)

The Sweetest Girl of All

Here's to the girl, the prettiest girl, the sweetest girl to me.

Her face is on the dollar and her name is Liberty.

She will clothe you, she will feed you, she will take you out of soak.

And with her picture in your pocket, you will never need be broke.

Junior—Dad, what's the difference between a gun and machine gun?

Dad—Oh, a big difference. It's just as if I spoke and then your mother spoke.

They say that a woman became peeved at her maid because she had so much company.

Mistress—You have more callers in a week than I have in a month.

Maid—Well, that's easy to figure out, if you tried to be agreeable you'd have as many friends as I have.

Nothing saves time better than love at first sight.

A retailer, on receiving the first delivery of a large order, was annoyed to find the goods not up to sample.

"Cancel my order immediately," he wired the manufacturers.

They replied, "regret you cannot cancel immediately. Must take your turn."

Wheat Test Developed

Raleigh, N. C. (AP)—A test has been developed to see whether wheat is dry enough to combine or store, says John Curtis, marketing specialist for the North Carolina State College extension service. To make the test, place a sample of the grain in a small glass bottle with some ammonium chloride, make the bottle airtight by closing securely, and shake the bottle 50 times. If the ammonium chloride becomes damp, the grain is too wet to store safely.

Next time you prepare meat loaf use any leftover slices for hot open-faced sandwiches for the next day's lunch. Arrange the slices on bread or toast, top with hot gravy, and serve with a cooked vegetable.

Sandwich Filling

Chop two hard-cooked eggs and mix with three tablespoons of thick sour cream and lots of salt and freshly-ground pepper; use as a filling for two hearty lunchbox sandwiches. Add some carrot sticks to the lunchbox for crunchy contrast and flavor.

YMCA Fund Drive Reaches $17,000

At a meeting of the board of directors in the YMCA, Wednesday evening, it was reported that the drive for funds had passed the $17,000 mark.

James E. Tobin, chairman of the drive, expressed pleasure at the accomplishments of the solicitors, and his gratitude to those who contributed.

During his talk, Chairman Tobin urged that all who have not made complete reports do so this week.

President Chester A. Baltz, Sr., of the YMCA said the campaign office would remain open until the work is completed.

The executive committee completed a budget which will be presented to the directors at their June 17 meeting.

Jiffy Darning

A new time saver for the lady of the house is a small darning kit containing soft knit fabrics which can be applied directly to Pop's socks with an iron—no sewing is required. When heat is applied a plastic coating on the back of the small circle of knit fabric permanently fuses it to the sock.

Tree 'Rings'

In general a tree forms a "ring" on its trunk and branches every year, but in some years a long dry spell may produce a divided ring that looks like two and in very bads years, the annual ring may be almost invisible.

Byron Price Will Be Bard Speaker At Commencement

Annandale-on-Hudson, June 5—Byron Price, assistant secretary general of the United Nations, will deliver the principal address at the 92nd annual commencement exercises of Bard College on Saturday, June 21, President James H. Case, Jr., has announced.

Two years ago Price received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at Bard College's 90th Commencement for his distinguished career as reporter, editor, director of censorship during World War 2, and now as one of the principal officers of the United Nations. He has also received honorary degrees from Wabash College, Harvard University, and Indiana University.

A native of Indiana, Price was graduated from Wabash College. For many years he was with the Associated Press, first as reporter and editor; then as news editor, later chief of its Washington Bureau; and from 1937 to 1941 its executive news editor. From 1941 to 1945 he was U. S. Director of Censorship. Immediately following the war he became vice president of the Motion Picture Association of America and in 1947 assumed his present position of Assistant Secretary General for Administrative and Financial Services of the United Nations.

Human beings blink their eyes at different rates, ranging from 25 or more times a minute to about one a minute.

Chocolate Pudding Garnish

Garnish individual servings of chocolate pudding with fluffs of egg white meringue. To make the meringue beat two egg whites until stiff but not dry; add a quarter cup of sugar gradually, beating well after each addition. Serve the meringue fluff "as is," without steaming or baking.

YMCA Fund Drive Reaches $17,000

At a meeting of the board of directors in the YMCA, Wednesday evening, it was reported that the drive for funds had passed the $17,000 mark.

James E. Tobin, chairman of the drive, expressed pleasure at the accomplishments of the solicitors, and his gratitude to those who contributed.

During his talk, Chairman Tobin urged that all who have not made complete reports do so this week.

President Chester A. Baltz, Sr., of the YMCA said the campaign office would remain open until the work is completed.

The executive committee completed a budget which will be presented to the directors at their June 17 meeting.

Jiffy Darning

A new time saver for the lady of the house is a small darning kit containing soft knit fabrics which can be applied directly to Pop's socks with an iron—no sewing is required. When heat is applied a plastic coating on the back of the small circle of knit fabric permanently fuses it to the sock.

Tree 'Rings'

In general a tree forms a "ring" on its trunk and branches every year, but in some years a long dry spell may produce a divided ring that looks like two and in very bads years, the annual ring may be almost invisible.

Byron Price Will Be Bard Speaker At Commencement

Annandale-on-Hudson, June 5—Byron Price, assistant secretary general of the United Nations, will deliver the principal address at the 92nd annual commencement exercises of Bard College on Saturday, June 21, President James H. Case, Jr., has announced.

Two years ago Price received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws at Bard College's 90th Commencement for his distinguished career as reporter, editor, director of censorship during World War 2, and now as one of the principal officers of the United Nations. He has also received honorary degrees from Wabash College, Harvard University, and Indiana University.

A native of Indiana, Price was graduated from Wabash College. For many years he was with the Associated Press, first as reporter and editor; then as news editor, later chief of its Washington Bureau; and from 1937 to 1941 its executive news editor. From 1941 to 1945 he was U. S. Director of Censorship. Immediately following the war he became vice president of the Motion Picture Association of America and in 1947 assumed his present position of Assistant Secretary General for Administrative and Financial Services of the United Nations.

Effort Is Defeated

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The Senate defeated overwhelmingly today a Republican effort to suspend all price controls next Sept. 1. The vote, turning down a proposal by Senator Dirksen (R-Ill.), was 54 to 27. With legislative efforts to end the steel strike temporarily sidetracked, the Senate resumed debate and voting on extension of the entire system of defense controls, due to expire at the end of this month.

GS Officers, Troop Leaders Are Elected

New Paltz, June 5—New committee officers were chosen and two new troop leaders were welcomed to the New Paltz Girl Scout Committee at a meeting last week.

Mrs. Loren D. Campbell was elected chairman, Mrs. Henry Barg, co-chairman, Mrs. Robert Swain, secretary and Mrs. Charles Langwick, treasurer, for the coming year.

The committee planned the formation of a separate senior troop for high school girls which will be led by Mrs. Emerson Sortore, a newcomer to the New Paltz organization. The senior troop had been combined with the junior troop.

Another new troop leader will be Mrs. John McAusland who will lead a brownie troop.

Mrs. Richard Jones, treasurer of the Study Club of New Paltz, presented the club's donation of a campership at Camp Wendy.

Mrs. William Heidgerd announced that a survey has been completed of the activities and programs of local troops. Part of a national survey so that county committees may best assist leaders, the plan was passed upon at a recent meeting of the executive board of the Ulster County Girl Scout Council.

Mrs. Heidgerd, who was appointed as volunteer trainer for Ulster county this year, will correlate information on troop activities from every Girl Scout organization in this county in a report to national headquarters.

The committee made plans to enlarge opportunities for Girl Scout activities during the coming year in New Paltz.

Mrs. Campbell appointed the following persons as chairmen of standing committees: Mrs. Charles Langwick, finance; Mrs. Donald Allen, Juliette Low fund and nomination; Mrs. Henry Barg, budget; Mrs. Harold Elsbree, constitution; Mrs. William Heidgerd, volunteer training, and Miss Bertha Bennett, organization and camping.

Seekers' President Surprised With Cake

New Paltz, June 5—A surprise birthday celebration culminated the regular meeting of the Seekers Class of the Methodist Church at the home of Mrs. John Christensen last Tuesday.

On behalf of the group, Mrs. Frank Elliott presented a beautifully decorated birthday cake and their best wishes to Mrs. John Christensen, president of the class who was to celebrate her birthday in a few days.

Mrs. Webb Kniffen acted as cohostess of the event and led the devotions. A study of hymn writer Edith Sanford Tillotsen was presented by R. M. Hasbrouck. Mrs. Eugene Trautwein sang Plant Roses, one of the hymns composed by Mrs. Tillotsen.

Others present at the meeting were Mrs. Abel Quick, Mrs. Bertha Beggs, Mrs. Edward Morrison, Mrs. Adam Koenig, Mrs. Victor Hungerford, Mrs. Carrie Vail, Miss Bertha Metcalf, Miss Margaret Langwick, Mrs. Minnie Duryea and a guest, Mrs. Edna Frandsen.

League Will Hold Food Sale Friday

New Paltz, June 5—The Kerk League of the Reformed Church will hold a food sale at the Empire Market, Friday, June 6. Proceeds of the sale will go into the fund the League is raising to purchase new stoves for the church kitchen.

Scheduled to begin at 2 p. m., the sale will last on into the evening hours, as long as the supply lasts.

The June picnic meeting of the League is now planned for June 10, at 6 p. m., at the fireplace of the Manse. Mrs. Richard Fall and Mrs. Arthur McCord will be in charge of the picnic, to which husbands and children are invited. The League plans to hold an election of officers afterward.

Demonstrations Staged

New York, June 5 (AP)—CIO International Electrical Workers Union members today started off a series of nation-wide demonstrations at 53 General Electric Co., plants to back up pay boost demands. Union leaders said the demonstration at one Pittsfield, Mass., employing 650 persons in naval defense work, was 100 per cent effective. They said the work stoppage at the other Pittsfield plant was 90 per cent effective. At the Lynn, Mass., plant report meetings were held.

Employes Are Dismissed

La Paz, Bolivia, June 4 (AP)—La Razon, largest newspaper in Bolivia, has finally given up hope of resuming publication and has dismissed its 300 employes. The paper, which opposed the National Revolutionary Movement (MNR) had not appeared since April 9, when the MNR revolution erupted against the military government and placed Victor Paz Estenssoro in power. La Razon was owned by Carlos Victor Aramayo, one of Bolivia's three principal tin mining company owners. It had a circulation of 27,000, four times as large as its nearest competitor.

Financial and Commercial

New York, June 5 (AP)—Stocks subsided today after an opening rush carried the market upward.

The railroads leaped ahead at the opening bell and boosted the rest of the list along into higher ground, but within a short time buying enthusiasm abated, and prices backed away from their best.

Most activity was centered in the carrier section where prices at the best were up fractions to around a point. When the turn came the rails slipped into a mixed price pattern over a fractional range.

Local Hospital Receives Notice Of AMA Approval

Dr. Edward H. Leveroos, associate secretary of the American Medical Association, has notified Kingston Hospital that it has been approved for a two-year residency training program, Administrator William Sheldon announced today.

On March 19 Dr. Louis J. B. LeBel, a member of the staff of the American Medical Association, made a thorough study of the hospital facilities and educational program. His report mentioned specifically the splendid esprit de corps between the city-owned laboratory, the county-owned Tumor Clinic and the non-profit Kingston Hospital Association.

The graduate training evaluation report, submitted by Dr. LeBel, was as follows:

"This is a general hospital with 118 beds and 15 bassinets. The average daily census is 102 beds. The hospital is about to begin a program of expansion.

"The Kingston Hospital is run as a non-profit association, having its own governing body and its own constitution and by-laws. Right adjacent to it, is the City of Kingston's Laboratory, which is a branch of the city government. This is housed in a modern, commodious, brick building, and is completely equipped to carry out any pathological or public health procedure. Although owned by the municipal government, it does all of the work for the Kingston Hospital, the city, the Benedictine Hospital in Kingston, and also for the entire county, and even beyond that, especially when public health is involved. It is under the direction of Dr. Herbert Derman, a board diplomate. The work embraces the entire field of clinical pathology, plus a blood bank, hemtology, biochemistry, bacteriology, sanitary chemistry and bacteriology (water, milk, sewage, etc.), all tissue work, serology. He does autopsy work for both hospitals, the city, the county. He has 15 technicians. Autopsy rate 27½ per cent.

"Adjacent to the City of Kingston Laboratory, is the county owned tumor clinic, which does all the tumor diagnosis and therapy for the City of Kingston and its hospitals, and the entire county. There appears to be a splendid 'Esprit de Corps' and the whole set-up would seem to function as a unit, in spite of the three separate ownerships.

"The radiologist of the hospital is Dr. Ted R. Smallden, Jr., a board diplomate, assisted by Dr. Milton Grover, also a board diplomate, and three technicians. The Tumor Clinic takes care of necessary therapy.

"The educational program for residents in general practice, under the direction of Harold L. Rakov, MD.; DIM; FACP, as outlined by him is a two year residency, divided into 12 months internal medicine, five months surgery, four months obstetrics, pediatrics, etc., two months anesthesia in A. M., Tuberculosis Hospital in P. M., and practical work in contagious diseases, and one month basic science by Drs. Derman and Marvin, with application to clinical experience throughout the two years."

Says His Blood Unfit

Washington, June 5 (AP)—President Truman has agreed to be honorary chairman of the "Kids of America Blood Bank," but he regretfully turned down an invitation to give a pint of his own blood for the wounded in Korea. "I think you will find that the blood of a 68-year-old man is not fit for the boys," Truman told 13-year-old Jimmy Carrick of Pittsburgh, Pa., who extended the invitation yesterday. The President added that this is the view of doctors. Jimmy, hospitalized 11 of his 13 years with spinal tuberculosis, has solicited 9,000 pints of blood for the Red Cross and is on a coast-to-coast tour to get more blood contributions.

Effort Is Defeated

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The Senate defeated overwhelmingly today a Republican effort to suspend all price controls next Sept. 1. The vote, turning down a proposal by Senator Dirksen (R-Ill.), was 54 to 27. With legislative efforts to end the steel strike temporarily sidetracked, the Senate resumed debate and voting on extension of the entire system of defense controls, due to expire at the end of this month.

GS Officers, Troop Leaders Are Elected

New Paltz, June 5—New committee officers were chosen and two new troop leaders were welcomed to the New Paltz Girl Scout Committee at a meeting last week.

Mrs. Loren D. Campbell was elected chairman, Mrs. Henry Barg, co-chairman, Mrs. Robert Swain, secretary and Mrs. Charles Langwick, treasurer, for the coming year.

The committee planned the formation of a separate senior troop for high school girls which will be led by Mrs. Emerson Sortore, a newcomer to the New Paltz organization. The senior troop had been combined with the junior troop.

Another new troop leader will be Mrs. John McAusland who will lead a brownie troop.

Mrs. Richard Jones, treasurer of the Study Club of New Paltz, presented the club's donation of a campership at Camp Wendy.

Mrs. William Heidgerd announced that a survey has been completed of the activities and programs of local troops. Part of a national survey so that county committees may best assist leaders, the plan was passed upon at a recent meeting of the executive board of the Ulster County Girl Scout Council.

Mrs. Heidgerd, who was appointed as volunteer trainer for Ulster county this year, will correlate information on troop activities from every Girl Scout organization in this county in a report to national headquarters.

The committee made plans to enlarge opportunities for Girl Scout activities during the coming year in New Paltz.

Mrs. Campbell appointed the following persons as chairmen of standing committees: Mrs. Charles Langwick, finance; Mrs. Donald Allen, Juliette Low fund and nomination; Mrs. Henry Barg, budget; Mrs. Harold Elsbree, constitution; Mrs. William Heidgerd, volunteer training, and Miss Bertha Bennett, organization and camping.

Seekers' President Surprised With Cake

New Paltz, June 5—A surprise birthday celebration culminated the regular meeting of the Seekers Class of the Methodist Church at the home of Mrs. John Christensen last Tuesday.

On behalf of the group, Mrs. Frank Elliott presented a beautifully decorated birthday cake and their best wishes to Mrs. John Christensen, president of the class who was to celebrate her birthday in a few days.

Mrs. Webb Kniffen acted as cohostess of the event and led the devotions. A study of hymn writer Edith Sanford Tillotsen was presented by R. M. Hasbrouck. Mrs. Eugene Trautwein sang Plant Roses, one of the hymns composed by Mrs. Tillotsen.

Others present at the meeting were Mrs. Abel Quick, Mrs. Bertha Beggs, Mrs. Edward Morrison, Mrs. Adam Koenig, Mrs. Victor Hungerford, Mrs. Carrie Vail, Miss Bertha Metcalf, Miss Margaret Langwick, Mrs. Minnie Duryea and a guest, Mrs. Edna Frandsen.

League Will Hold Food Sale Friday

New Paltz, June 5—The Kerk League of the Reformed Church will hold a food sale at the Empire Market, Friday, June 6. Proceeds of the sale will go into the fund the League is raising to purchase new stoves for the church kitchen.

Scheduled to begin at 2 p. m., the sale will last on into the evening hours, as long as the supply lasts.

The June picnic meeting of the League is now planned for June 10, at 6 p. m., at the fireplace of the Manse. Mrs. Richard Fall and Mrs. Arthur McCord will be in charge of the picnic, to which husbands and children are invited. The League plans to hold an election of officers afterward.

About the Folks

Mr. Kennedy is now renewing old friendships in Kingston and while here is registered at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Demonstrations Staged

New York, June 5 (AP)—CIO International Electrical Workers Union members today started off a series of nation-wide demonstrations at 53 General Electric Co., plants to back up pay boost demands. Union leaders said the demonstration at one Pittsfield, Mass., employing 650 persons in naval defense work, was 100 per cent effective. They said the work stoppage at the other Pittsfield plant was 90 per cent effective. At the Lynn, Mass., plant report meetings were held.

Employes Are Dismissed

La Paz, Bolivia, June 4 (AP)—La Razon, largest newspaper in Bolivia, has finally given up hope of resuming publication and has dismissed its 300 employes. The paper, which opposed the National Revolutionary Movement (MNR) had not appeared since April 9, when the MNR revolution erupted against the military government and placed Victor Paz Estenssoro in power. La Razon was owned by Carlos Victor Aramayo, one of Bolivia's three principal tin mining company owners. It had a circulation of 27,000, four times as large as its nearest competitor.

Financial and Commercial

New York, June 5 (AP)—Stocks subsided today after an opening rush carried the market upward.

The railroads leaped ahead at the opening bell and boosted the rest of the list along into higher ground, but within a short time buying enthusiasm abated, and prices backed away from their best.

Most activity was centered in the carrier section where prices at the best were up fractions to around a point. When the turn came the rails slipped into a mixed price pattern over a fractional range.

Local Hospital Receives Notice Of AMA Approval

Dr. Edward H. Leveroos, associate secretary of the American Medical Association, has notified Kingston Hospital that it has been approved for a two-year residency training program, Administrator William Sheldon announced today.

On March 19 Dr. Louis J. B. LeBel, a member of the staff of the American Medical Association, made a thorough study of the hospital facilities and educational program. His report mentioned specifically the splendid esprit de corps between the city-owned laboratory, the county-owned Tumor Clinic and the non-profit Kingston Hospital Association.

The graduate training evaluation report, submitted by Dr. LeBel, was as follows:

"This is a general hospital with 118 beds and 15 bassinets. The average daily census is 102 beds. The hospital is about to begin a program of expansion.

"The Kingston Hospital is run as a non-profit association, having its own governing body and its own constitution and by-laws. Right adjacent to it, is the City of Kingston's Laboratory, which is a branch of the city government. This is housed in a modern, commodious, brick building, and is completely equipped to carry out any pathological or public health procedure. Although owned by the municipal government, it does all of the work for the Kingston Hospital, the city, the Benedictine Hospital in Kingston, and also for the entire county, and even beyond that, especially when public health is involved. It is under the direction of Dr. Herbert Derman, a board diplomate. The work embraces the entire field of clinical pathology, plus a blood bank, hemtology, biochemistry, bacteriology, sanitary chemistry and bacteriology (water, milk, sewage, etc.), all tissue work, serology. He does autopsy work for both hospitals, the city, the county. He has 15 technicians. Autopsy rate 27½ per cent.

"Adjacent to the City of Kingston Laboratory, is the county owned tumor clinic, which does all the tumor diagnosis and therapy for the City of Kingston and its hospitals, and the entire county. There appears to be a splendid 'Esprit de Corps' and the whole set-up would seem to function as a unit, in spite of the three separate ownerships.

"The radiologist of the hospital is Dr. Ted R. Smallden, Jr., a board diplomate, assisted by Dr. Milton Grover, also a board diplomate, and three technicians. The Tumor Clinic takes care of necessary therapy.

"The educational program for residents in general practice, under the direction of Harold L. Rakov, MD.; DIM; FACP, as outlined by him is a two year residency, divided into 12 months internal medicine, five months surgery, four months obstetrics, pediatrics, etc., two months anesthesia in A. M., Tuberculosis Hospital in P. M., and practical work in contagious diseases, and one month basic science by Drs. Derman and Marvin, with application to clinical experience throughout the two years."

Says His Blood Unfit

Washington, June 5 (AP)—President Truman has agreed to be honorary chairman of the "Kids of America Blood Bank," but he regretfully turned down an invitation to give a pint of his own blood for the wounded in Korea. "I think you will find that the blood of a 68-year-old man is not fit for the boys," Truman told 13-year-old Jimmy Carrick of Pittsburgh, Pa., who extended the invitation yesterday. The President added that this is the view of doctors. Jimmy, hospitalized 11 of his 13 years with spinal tuberculosis, has solicited 9,000 pints of blood for the Red Cross and is on a coast-to-coast tour to get more blood contributions.

Comfortable Inflation

Great segments of our population like inflation. If an officeholder wants to commit political suicide, let him sponsor legal measures that would take away the comfortable fruits of inflation. With many people inflation is an economic balm that assuages the pains of a too competitive world. It is like a tired man resting on a downy couch.

What, in this respect, has inflation done? Among other things, it has boosted wages from 100% to 300%. Steel wages, for example, are up around 200% in 15 years. And today, wheat, a basic world commodity, is up about 600% from the bottom prices of 1932. For the period from 1932 to 1952 cotton is up about 800%.

So, if any politician, big or little, were to set out to deflate wages and agricultural prices, he would soon find himself in a political doghouse. If the high wage earners of America and the farmers should gang up on any such candidate, his name would be mud.

Now what has happened with wheat and cotton prices and with industrial wages has also happened in scores of other economic centers. The result is that inflation pretty well infests our total national life. The wages of money is the lone important exception.

And in 1952 Uncle Sam's financial responsibilities are so great as to force a continuation of our existing inflation. In 1932, wheat was 40 cents a bushel and cotton was 5 cents a pound. In that year national income was 40 billions of dollars.

Today the government's spending program calls for 80 billions of dollars a year. That is twice total national income in 1932. How can America raise such enormous sums via taxation without having inflation frozen into the economy? She just can't, that's all.

So, to please the worker and the farmer—who have never been more prosperous—and to enable Uncle Sam to pay his gigantic bills, deflation of a drastic nature must be prevented if that is at all possible.

The wage problem is a serious one. High wages and high prices are natural concomitants. But high prices tend to keep consumption low which, in turn, creates unemployment. High wage workers can't eat their cake and have it too.

High wages and moderate prices are only possible where efficiency is high and productivity large. In the future I think our serious economic troubles are going to rise in industrial wages and in agricultural prices. It will be in these spheres of influence that the government will take a firm hand if wages slide off badly and farm prices decline.

This wage picture I can dramatically illustrate. A friend of mine is an expert cabinet maker. He and his family suffered dreadfully during the depression thirties. There was no work for him at his trade.

With the arrival of inflation, his pauper existence has been turned into princely living. Jobs? Why, he has been deluged with them. For five years he has been doing beautiful bank interior work. His wages are (in hs own words) "fabulous."

With a twinkle in his eye, he recently told me of a New England experience. He went there to do a two weeks' job. The bank president was a very genial man. The bank is a rich one, with a big surplus and undivided profits account. The banker liked the cabinet maker. Expense was of little account—with taxes such as they are.

Well, my friend, the cabinet maker, took four weeks to do the job and he got double time for half of his work. I said to him: "I thought it was a two weeks' job—how come it took you four?"

"Oh," he said, "the banker was rich and I was in no hurry."

There, if you please, is the plainest statement I have ever heard outlining the basic inflation philosophy that is in the center of America.

Yes, workers want high wages, short hours, long vacations with pay, cradle-to-grave social security. And farmers, make no mistake about it, want high prices for their wheat, cotton, corn, oats, barley, potatoes, peanuts, linseed oil, tobacco and a hundred different products. Politically upsetting such things would be tragic to any perpetuator.

Who is not on the inflation train? Why, all those people who still are willing to see their savings earn a pathetic 2, 2½ and 3 per cent a year! They just have no champion.

KERHONKSON

Kerhonkson, June 5—Many attended the annual horse show, held for the first time last year at Grahamsville Fair Grounds, sponsored by the fire department. There will be a repeat performance this year on June 8. Refreshments will be sold by the ladies auxiliary there.

Max Rudd plans to open a branch of the Giant Market of Ellenville in the near future in the building in which Miller Brothers formerly operated a grocery and vegetable market. Mr. Rudd leased the property from Mr. and Mrs. David Karp and will have a grand opening as soon as the necessary alterations are completed.

Mrs. John Kilgannon and Mrs. Walter Lifer, accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd Barley of Accord and Mrs. Hiram Brooks of Pataukunk were in New York Monday and enjoyed dinner at the Swiss Chalet in Ramsey, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Van Aken and daughter, Barbara, of Poughkeepsie, spent Friday with her mother, Mrs. James R. Doyle, motoring to Schenectady and Albany where they visited friends.

Patroon Grange 1519 will meet for the first time in its newly purchased home, the former Kerhonkson School on Route 209.

Daniel Scheely and Mrs. Burton Simpson took the former's daughter, Patricia, to New York Sunday.

Stanley Rode has purchased the Ford owned by Earl Booth.

Mrs. J. W. Latchford and sister, Mrs. George Lifer, of Weehawken, attended the meeting of the New York Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, for two days last week at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ruhman of Akron, Ohio, visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lake and son, Billy, of Derby, Conn., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carr.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Groves, Jr., welcomed a baby daughter Monday.

Rex Walter, student at Delhi, spent the weekend at his home here.

Franklin Booth and Jason Decker spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Decker and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Terwilliger of New Jersey were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Terwilliger.

Carol Berenbaum of New York spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Berenbaum.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Benjamin and family of Riverhead, L. I., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Sherman.

Miss Ruth and John Rowan, accompanied by Mrs. Theo Cullen of Elmira visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eldridge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Beers are about ready to move in their new home on Mill street.

Harry Lane has been elected president of the Kerhonkson Fire Company, replacing Paul Booth who resigned a short time ago.

Mrs. Clare Rosenthal is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. Berenbaum.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mustion and family spent the weekend at Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford J. Knoller spent the holiday weekend in Canada.

John Grossman and Harry Savage of Waterbury, Conn., spent the holiday weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Geary.

Two Local Guernseys Transferred to Canada

Two pure-bred Guernseys, owned by A. H. Chambers of Kingston, have been transferred to J. H. Crang, Newmarket, Ont., Canada, it was announced today by the American Guernsey Cattle Club. The transfer of ownership was recorded by the herd register division of the Club.

Four Area Nurses To Attend Parley In Atlantic City

Several delegates from District 11, New York State Nurses Association, will represent the registered professional nurses of this area at the American Nurses' Association convention in Atlantic City, June 15-20, it was announced here yesterday.

District 11 covers the counties of Greene, Orange, Sullivan and Ulster.

Miss Esther Schisa, RN, district vice-president, said the national nurses' convention is particularly important this year because delegates will decide whether four present national nursing organizations are to be consolidated into two, or retain their present independent status.

Present national organizations which would be involved in the merger are the American Nurses' Association, the National League of Nursing Education, the National Organization for Public Health Nursing, and the Association of Collegiate Schools of Nursing. Under the proposed structure plan on which delegates will vote at Atlantic City, all of these organizations except the American Nurses' Association would be merged into a National League for Nursing. The ANA would continue to exist in its present form.

Nurses from this area chosen as delegates include Miss Mary Keating and Miss Marjorie Geoghegan, Benedictine Hospital, Miss Dorothy Buddenhagen, Kingston Hospital; and Miss Esther Schisa, Ulster County Department of Health.

Open Shoes

If your heels have suffered from chapping and scaling as they are likely to during the winter months, try to get them in shape before you wear summer peek-a-boo shoes and sandals. After a good soaping, rub feet with a thick towel to remove rough and flaky scales. If spots are especially rough, rub cold cream into them before donning stockings.

Housework Easy Without Nagging Backache

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Under the proposed structure plan on which delegates will vote at Atlantic City, all of these organizations except the American Nurses' Association would be merged into a National League for Nursing. The ANA would continue to exist in its present form.

Nurses from this area chosen as delegates include Miss Mary Keating and Miss Marjorie Geoghegan, Benedictine Hospital, Miss Dorothy Buddenhagen, Kingston Hospital; and Miss Esther Schisa, Ulster County Department of Health.

Glasses, but Not Drinking

Washington, June 5 (AP) — Miss Elizabeth Smart of the Women's Christian Temperance Union told a House radio-television investigating group that telecasts from the Stork Club in New York show lots of prominent people with beverage glasses on the tables before them. "You seldom see them drink, though," she testified yesterday. Rep. Klein, a New York city Democrat, told her: "I think Mr. (Sherman) Billingsley, who owns the place, has the same complaint." Rep. Chenoweth (R-Colo.) added: "They probably can't afford to."

There are about 75,000 people in Cork, Ireland, and its suburbs.

SCHULER'S POTATO CHIPS

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

Retail prices for chicken, beef rib roasts, chuck pot roasts and stewing beef were a little lower in many stores this week.

Legs of lamb advanced irregularly but the uptrend generally did not affect other lamb cuts. Most pork and veal items were unchanged. Large eggs rose 2 to 6 cents a dozen in scattered sections where production began to taper off seasonally, but this uptrend was not yet widespread.

Several fresh fruits and vegetables were offered in a wide range of quality, condition and price, affected by erratic weather in growing areas. Tomatoes, lettuce, corn, asparagus, strawberries and mushrooms were in this category. Lower in most places were artichokes, snap beans, beets, carrots, cauliflower, parsley, cherries and grapefruit.

Peaches, Melons Plentiful

Peaches and canteloupes were becoming more plentiful. The season's first shipments of plums from Texas and apricots from California reached distant markets. Apples, eggplant and peppers were a trifle higher.

Potatoes were still hard to find but volume shipments from the Carolinas were reported beginning and small supplies from California and a few other sections trickled steadily into city markets. The situation should ease considerably within the next three weeks, Agriculture Department reporters said.

The American Institute of Food Distribution reported that the potato shortage has been a bonanza for those who sell substitutes. Canners of white and sweet potatoes have been able to dispose of their entire holdings, the institute's weekly digest said. Relatively little rice is left of last year's crop, and the demand for macaroni, frozen french fries, baked beans and the like has been urgent.

May Rue Day

The institute said the potato growers "may rue the day this potato fiasco happened." Per capita consumption of spuds already has declined from about 180 pounds to about 100 within the memory of many persons still eating them, the digest said, and whenever consumers switch to a substitute food, "either through shortages of the one they have been accustomed to eating, or because of mere cussedness, or being influenced to try new dishes suggested in food columns in magazines or newspapers, the switch is often permanent."

The Agriculture Department stressed canned and frozen orange and grapefruit products and strawberries as most-plentiful foods for thrifty buying this week. Week-end specials of some of the larger store chains and independent markets included beef rib roasts and chuck roasts, broiler and fryer chickens, smoked hams, cold cuts, several varieties of fresh or frozen fish, eggs, cheddar cheese, fresh corn, lettuce, beets, carrots, tomatoes and oranges.

Price Ceilings Authorized

New price ceilings were authorized to go into effect this week on a wide range of food items which already were selling at or near ceilings. The object was to allow stores higher markups so as to assure them more equitable earnings under the pricing law.

A spokesman for a large store chain in the east said at midweek: "We haven't raised a single price as a result of the new ceilings and as far as we know, none of our competitors have, either. Competition just won't permit it, and we have to maintain our sales volume or starve." He conceded, however, that there might be a rash of minor price-boosting over the next few weeks on items enough in demand to support the permitted increases.

Another big chain said that about one-third of the three to four thousand items it sells are below ceilings and most are "basic" foods like cereals, canned fruits and vegetables, baby foods, bakery products, meat, dairy and produce items.

Price stabilizers estimated the permitted markups would average out to about one cent an item on the foods affected. These include breakfast cereals, coffee concentrates, cookies, processed fish (except tuna and salmon), flour in five-pound packages, frozen foods except juices, many canned vegetables, fruits and meats, margarine, pickles and cheese.

Men in Gray Meet

Jackson, Miss., June 5 (AP)—Two 106-year-old Confederate veterans will swap battle yarns today in what may be the final reunion of the thin Gray ranks. The two—William Townsend of Olla, La., and William Bush of Fitzgerald, Ga.—met again last night, when the Georgian arrived by plane. They were the only two of eight living Confederates to attend. They both wore Gray uniforms and shook hands from their chairs.

It takes from 3,500 to 5,000 bees to weigh a pound.

It takes good meat to make good frankfurts....

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR QUALITY!

This is especially true of the meats you buy.

One may be tempted by glowing claims of saving a few pennies — when the fact of the matter is — you haven't saved anything.

Take for example — Frankfurts. FIRST PRIZE Frankfurts are made from the same fresh wholesome government inspected beef and pork you would buy for pot roast and stews for your own home. No variety meats or substitutes are used in making FIRST PRIZE Frankfurts — such as lungs, tripe, melts, udders and the like.

These offal items are very low in food value but the use of them cannot easily be detected in the taste of the frankfurt. When you purchase frankfurts that contain these offal fillers — although they may look all right to you in appearance — you have been cheated.

It does not pay to take chances on frankfurts . . . this is especially true when there are so many frankfurts eaten by children.

We again repeat — only wholesome cuts of beef and pork are used in making FIRST PRIZE Frankfurts. It takes good meat to make good frankfurts — the kind that build healthy bodies of bone and muscle.

Be particular in the meats you buy — and remember — you get only the value you pay for.

Remodeling Work Almost Completed At Mohican Store

The Mohican Market on John street, opposite the public parking grounds, which opened its doors at the present location on January 22, 1927, has been undergoing a thorough remodeling process during the past few weeks. The work is now practically completed and Manager Emzie J. Trowbridge will have one of the most modern and up-to-date food markets in town when the work is completed.

Throughout the store new show cases have been installed. In the meat department new stainless steel cases and new refrigeration units have been installed. Modern cases have been also installed in the bakery department, fish department and in the dairy section. A new lighting system is now in use and throughout the store a new hardwood floor has been laid. Alterations have also been made to the grocery and vegetable departments.

In the bakery department on the second floor new ovens were installed last year and that department modernized.

New equipment installed in the store has been designed for better display to the customer, greater facility to the clerks and for better refrigerating and storage of all produce.

Business as usual has been maintained during the modernization process.

As Pegler Sees It

be his guest at the embassy and Sulzberger, in accepting, asked whether Standley could also accommodate his secretary. He could.

"Rather to my astonishment in view of the messages previously referred to, when Sulzberger's secretary appeared, he was no other than Mr. Jimmy Reston, the New York Times' most experienced reporter," the admiral's story reads. "The matter was never referred to again but I felt sure the Russians considered that they had been duped. * * * By an interesting coincidence Mr. Cy Sulzberger, a New York Times reporter assigned to the Middle East, was in Moscow at the time and frequently, with Reston, the three of them went into a huddle. So, in addition to the Red Cross and the American embassy, Mr. Sulzberger had his own lines of communication and information. * * *

"When I returned home, President Roosevelt told me that when Sulzberger, imbued with the general desire of newspaper men to see behind the iron curtain, requested authority to go to Russia, the President replied 'Arthur, if I ask for authority for you to go to Moscow every newspaper man in the country will also want to go. I couldn't stand the pressure. But you are a director of the international Red Cross. Why don't you ask to go in that capacity?' And Mr. Sulzberger replied that his desire was to go to Russia in any capacity and so he came as a director of the Red Cross."

Remodeling Work Almost Completed At Mohican Store

The Mohican Market on John street, opposite the public parking grounds, which opened its doors at the present location on January 22, 1927, has been undergoing a thorough remodeling process during the past few weeks. The work is now practically completed and Manager Emzie J. Trowbridge will have one of the most modern and up-to-date food markets in town when the work is completed.

Throughout the store new show cases have been installed. In the meat department new stainless steel cases and new refrigeration units have been installed. Modern cases have been also installed in the bakery department, fish department and in the dairy section. A new lighting system is now in use and throughout the store a new hardwood floor has been laid. Alterations have also been made to the grocery and vegetable departments.

In the bakery department on the second floor new ovens were installed last year and that department modernized.

New equipment installed in the store has been designed for better display to the customer, greater facility to the clerks and for better refrigerating and storage of all produce.

Business as usual has been maintained during the modernization process.

be his guest at the embassy and Sulzberger, in accepting, asked whether Standley could also accommodate his secretary. He could.

"Rather to my astonishment in view of the messages previously referred to, when Sulzberger's secretary appeared, he was no other than Mr. Jimmy Reston, the New York Times' most experienced reporter," the admiral's story reads. "The matter was never referred to again but I felt sure the Russians considered that they had been duped. • • • By an interesting coincidence Mr. Cy Sulzberger, a New York Times reporter assigned to the Middle East, was in Moscow at the time and frequently, with Reston, the three of them went into a huddle. So, in addition to the Red Cross and the American embassy, Mr. Sulzberger had his own lines of communication and information. • • •

"When I returned home, President Roosevelt told me that when Sulzberger, imbued with the general desire of newspaper men to see behind the iron curtain, requested authority to go to Russia, the President replied 'Arthur, if I ask for authority for you to go to Moscow every newspaper man in the country will also want to go. I couldn't stand the pressure. But you are a director of the international Red Cross. Why don't you ask to go in that capacity?' And Mr. Sulzberger replied that his desire was to go to Russia in any capacity and so he came as a director of the Red Cross."

Says Bowlatorium Likely Through as Center for Sports

Attorney George Kaufman of 23-27 Grand Street Inc., the new corporation in control of the Ruzzo Bowlatorium, on Grand street, said today it now appeared that the establishment would no longer operate as a bowling center.

It was reported late in May that an effort was under way to continue operation of the alleys, but Kaufman's statement indicates that the new corporation plans to lease the property for other purposes.

The bowling equipment is the property of the Brunswick-Balke-Collendar Co., and a spokesman for that company said last month that the equipment would be taken from the building some time after May 27, a day after completion of the state bowling tournament.

No definite move has been made to date, it was learned today, to reclaim the equipment.

paign, Truman said he just didn't know.

Truman's surprise acceptance of an invitation to weekend in New England with J. Howard McGrath, meanwhile, stirred political speculation.

So did his agreement to talk over the party outlook this afternoon with Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, a leading contender for the Democratic presidential nomination.

No Political Implication

The President told newsmen there is no political implication whatever in his forthcoming weekend with McGrath, who plummeted out of his cabinet two months ago in a top-level row over the corruption-in-government investigation.

Truman said his visit at McGrath's farm would be purely a social occasion.

As for Kefauver, for whose candidacy he has shown no enthusiasm, the President said he didn't know what the senator wanted to talk to him about this afternoon.

He said Kefauver has the right to tell him whatever he wants to, the same as any other senator or any other citizen.

Truman repeated previous statements that he means to be neutral in the Democratic nomination fight. But, again stating what he's said before, the President declared he has the same right as any free-born American to express a preference.

Truman has indicated for several weeks that he might attend the Chicago convention, after all the balloting is over, and more than likely make a speech. But he disclosed today for the first time that he definitely is planning to go.

When a reporter asked if Truman is "neutral for or against somebody," the President replied that when he says he is neutral that is exactly what he means and there is no use straining the definition.

The retired general also owed much of his showing to the Black Hills cities of Rapid City and Lead. Predictions gave him only a slight edge there. He polled about 63 per cent of the vote.

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee easily won the eight South Dakota Democratic delegates. His supporters polled better than 68 per cent of the nearly 33,000 votes in the Democratic primary. His opponent was an uninstructed slate, headed by State Chairman Ed Downs and National Committeeman Lewis A. Bicknell.

"If this is what you mean by your strident demands for unconditional repatriation of all, then say so, unmistakably and clearly so that the entire world will hear the barbarous and medieval price you are attempting to exact for an armistice.'"

Harrison repeated the allied offer to have all prisoners rescreened after an armistice is signed. But he insisted that the UN stand on refusing to force a prisoner to return was "firm, final and irrevocable."

Harrison again proposed an indefinite recess until the Reds call for another session, but the Communists stuck to their insistence on daily meetings.

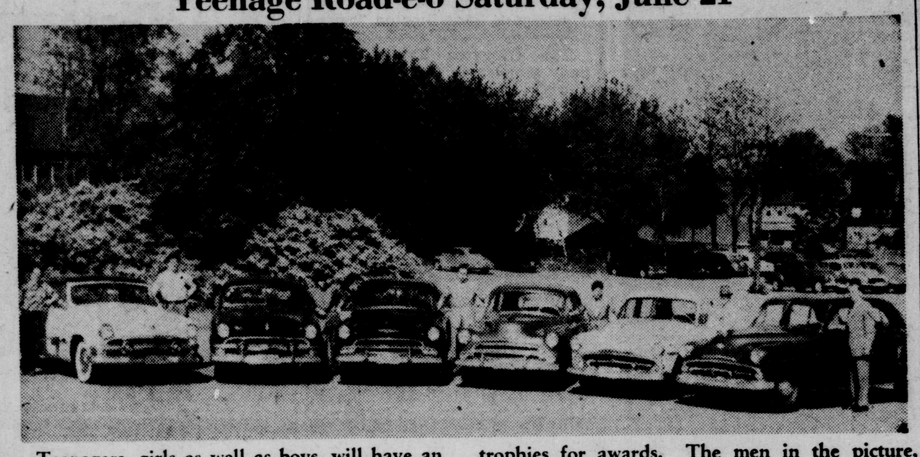
Teenage Road-e-o Saturday, June 21



Teenagers, girls as well as boys, will have an opportunity Saturday, June 21, to try their driving skills on these six new automobiles at the Teenage Road-e-o sponsored by the Kingston unior Chamber of Commerce. Two Fords were loaned by Old Capital Motors; two Chevrolets by Bev Anderson Chevrolet, Inc.; one Plymouth by Wiltwyck Motors and one Plymouth by Silsby Motors. Electrol, Inc., has donated three large trophies for awards. The men in the picture, left to right, are Stanley Dempsey, Robert Matthews, Wayne Archibald, Jack Doyle and Robert MacKinnon, Junior Chamber members, and Raymond McAndrew representing Wiltwyck Motors and Clifford Bunting representing Silsby Motors. Applications for the Road-e-o may be obtained at the Kingston High School or at Cerasaro Brothers Sport Center.

Road-e-o Will Be Held June 21

Jack Doyle, chairman of Kingston's Junior Chamber of Commerce Teen-Age Road-e-o Committee, has announced that the local driving contest has been postponed from June 7, the originally scheduled date, to Saturday, June 21, at 10 a. m.

Doyle indicated the change in schedule was decided upon to permit a greater number of young people from not only the City of Kingston, but from Saugerties, Woodstock, Phoenicia and other outlying towns to enter the competition on an obstacle course to be set up in the Kingston Municipal Stadium.

The course will be established in accordance with the rules and regulations of the National Teen-Age Road-e-o committee.

In order to qualify for participations in the actual driving part of the contest, applicants must take a quiz in traffic safety rules and driving courtesy to be held Wednesday, June 18, at the Kingston High School during the day for for students and again that night at Cerasaro Brothers Sport Center, North Front street, for applicants who work during the day.

The road-e-o will determine the most skillful teen-age driver in the Kingston area. The contest is open to both boys and girls who do not reach their 20th birthday before August 23 of this year. Each applicant must have a valid driver's license or learner's permit and must not have had a traffic violation during the past six months. No automobile is required by the applicant, since the contest cars will be furnished.

WAVES Get Call To 10th Reunion At Nation's Capital

"All WAVES! Hear this!" is the Navy call being broadcast throughout the nation today in advance of the 10th annual anniversary reunion July 26 and 27 at the Hotel Statler, Washington, D. C.

The invitation is being sent to all former and present WAVES, women's branch of the United States Navy, for what the "alumnae" promoters promise will be the biggest and most festive celebration ever held for this service.

All ex-WAVES in the Kingston-Poughkeepsie-Newburgh area are asked to get in touch immediately with the chiefs in charge of recruiting for additional information and reunion blanks. The Kingston address is the central post office, while that of Poughkeepsie and Newburgh also is the post office building in the respective communities.

The committee in charge of the 10th reunion said those returning will be welcomed by Washington WAVES. Two hundred double and 50 single rooms are being held at the Hotel Statler and those who plan to attend are asked to get in direct touch with Victor Bushman, Hotel Statler, for reservations.

Included in the entertainment will be an Army-Navy Club luncheon; a trip to Mount Vernon; a trip to Annapolis, a Washington-at-Night bus trip, the annual banquet and many other things.

The committee also reported that the uniform of the day will be civilian dress, unless the WAVE is on active duty and wishes to wear her uniform.

Scalps or Fines

Gray squirrels once were so numerous and caused so much damage in Ohio that a law was passed requiring every male citizen to deliver 100 squirrel scalps every year, or pay a $3 cash fine. This law was passed in 1808.

Variable Mile

Length of a standard nautical mile in U. S. usage is 6080.27 feet while British, French and German versions range from two inches to four feet shorter.

Merz Denies CIO Sent Him Here to Organize Yards

Everett Merz, of the town of Saugerties, who headed a group of area shipyard workers in a move he described as one "to organize for better working conditions" said in a letter to The Freeman today that he was not sent to this area by the CIO.

The group gained the privilege of an election to determine whether the shipyard workers wanted to retain affiliation with the AFL or join the CIO, and as a result they remained with the AFL.

Merz said he has worked in various sections of the state "doing all kinds of work" during the past eight years, and he said he moved with the local group to gain conditions other shipyards are receiving on the eastern seaboard, either under the CIO or AFL.

Worked in Both Unions

"I worked under both unions in my present and past working days in the shipyards," Merz said, and he wanted to announce "that I was not sent up here in the Kingston shipyards by the CIO to organize the shipyard workers for them, but I was asked by a group of men already organized in Island Dock before I worked there, if I would head their group and try to bring the CIO up in the Kingston shipyards to organize them."

Merz said that "After seeing and working under these very poor conditions which were existing in the shipyards I accepted to head this group and bring the CIO up here to organize them. And I want everyone to know I am an independent person obliged to no one and never intend to be obliged to any one political or union group."

Merz said he has lived in the town of Saugerties for the past four years and is a taxpayer. He said he lives where he is "able to work and provide for my family."

June 8 to 14 Set Aside As Fraternal Week

Stressing that "it is the duty of fraternalists to bring their message of brotherly love into the hearts of men, to impress upon them their duty to democracy and good government," Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk today proclaimed June 8 to 14 as Fraternal Week.

The mayor's action was taken in cooperation with the National Fraternal Congress of America which cites that "Democracies have witnessed the abolition of fraternal organizations in the dictator dominated countries of the world, because they were democracy in operation and contrary to the whims of the dictators."

Mayor Newkirk pointed out that the congress represents the Fraternal Benefit Societies of the State of New York and all fraternal members of the city of Kingston.

Registration Is Set

Registration for the fall term at St. Ursula's Academy will be held next week starting Monday, June 9, and continuing through Saturday, June 14.

Atkinson Has 30 Years With Central Hudson

Robert Atkinson, 330 Hurley avenue, was honored by the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corporation this week for 30 years as a member of the Central Hudson organization. Mr. Atkinson is the electric distribution superintendent in the Kingston district.

Atkinson started work with Central Hudson on May 19, 1922 as an electrician. He subsequently held the positions of junior assistant engineer and district engineer.

At a ceremony in the utility company's general offices, President Ernest R. Acker of the Central Hudson System presented Atkinson with a 30-year service emblem and cited him for his important contribution to the successful conduct of the company's operations in the Kingston district.

Two Defendants Are Placed on Probation

Two men were placed on probation today by County Judge John M. Cashin, one on a grand larceny charge and the other on an assault count.

Frank Mancuso, held for robbery of the Highland Diner, received a suspended sentence of one and a half to three years in prison, on a letter from the complaining witness pleading for leniency.

One condition is that Mancuso make restitution in the amount of $213.50.

Intercession in his behalf saved Mancuso from serving time in Clinton State Prison at Dannemora. He had pleaded guilty to second degree larceny.

Mancuso was represented by Attorney Alexander Goldberg of Poughkeepsie.

George Woodworth was the other defendant put on probation on his plea of guilty to assault, third degree. Sentence called for a year in jail.

Woodworth had been indicted for second degree assault on the allegation he resisted an officer at the time of his arrest.

Thomas Cassoman was the defense attorney.

Railroad Retirement Advisor to Be Here

A representative of the Railroad Retirement Board will be at the New York Central Freight Station, 545 Broadway, between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. Wednesday, June 11, it was announced today.

He will assist the railroad worker, his wife, widow, or survivors, with any retirement or survivor problems they may have in connection with the Railroad Retirement and Railroad Unemployment Insurance Acts.

EAT WELL for Less

Chiffon Ring for Father's Day

FATHER'S DAY calls for something special in the way of dessert, and here it is—Spiced Molasses Chiffon Ring a la mode.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Fathers usually want a dessert a la mode—either pie or cake with a collop of ice cream on top. For Fathers Day 1952 (that's June 15th) here's a new and wonderful version of a la mode a la pop.

Sliced Molasses Chiffon Ring (12 to 15 servings)

Two and one-quarter cups sifted cake flour, 1 cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon cloves, ½ cup salad oil, 5 egg yolks, unbeaten, ½ cup cold water, ½ cup unsulphured molasses, ½ teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 cup (7 to 8) egg whites.

Heat oven to 325 degrees F. (slow). Sift first 8 ingredients into mixing bowl. Make a well in dry ingredients; add salad oil, egg yolks, cold water, and molasses in order given. Beat mixture satin smooth. Combine cream of tartar and egg whites in a large mixing bowl; beat until they form very stiff peaks (stiffer than for meringue or angel cake). Fold egg-yolk batter gradually into beaten egg whites. Fold until just blended (do not stir).

Bake 75 minutes in an ungreased 4-quart ring pan or in a 10 x 4-inch tube pan. Cool cake by inverting over funnel or a ½-pint milk bottle. When cake is thoroughly cold, loosen sides with spatula; invert pan and strike edge sharply on table. Cake will drop out. Frost with Taffy Frosting. Fill center with your favorite ice cream just before serving if desired.

Taffy Frosting (Sufficient Frosting for a 10-inch Cake)

One and one-half cups sugar, ½ teaspoon cream of tartar, 2 tablespoons unsulphured molasses, ½ cup water, 2 egg whites, unbeaten, ⅛ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg.

Mix first four ingredients thoroughly in a saucepan to dissolve sugar. Bring mixture to a full rolling boil; continue boiling ½ minute without stirring. Put egg whites and salt in mixing bowl; gradually add syrup in a thin stream, beating constantly with rotary or electric beater at medium speed. Increase beating to fastest speed after all syrup has been added. Add nutmeg; beat until mixture stands in very stiff peaks. (If electric mixer is used, beat mixture in the larger bowl.) Spread frosting over cake.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Strawberries ready-to-eat cereal, crisp bacon, enriched rolls, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Egg and potato salad, sliced tomatoes, watercress and lettuce, Russian dressing, toasted muffins, butter or fortified margarine, apple sauce cake, cheese, tea, milk.

DINNER: Pan broiled fillets of sole, tartar sauce, parsley new potatoes, baby peas with white onions, enriched bread, cabbage and green pepper salad, spiced molasses chiffon ring a la mode, coffee, milk.

Trust Company to Aid City Postal Workers

Kingston postoffice employes, whose regular federal salary checks have been delayed, will have an opportunity to get their money in advance of the belated pay checks through the courtesy of the Kingston Trust Company.

The Kingston Trust Company announced today that all postal employes of the Kingston office would be advanced the amount of money due them by the government. Postal employes may call at the main office, corner of Main and Fair streets or at the Central Branch, 518 Broadway.

The local banking institution action is the result of congressional delay in enacting legislation to provide funds for operation of the federal postal system.

Two Defendants Are Placed on Probation

Two men were placed on probation today by County Judge John M. Cashin, one on a grand larceny charge and the other on an assault count.

Frank Mancuso, held for robbery of the Highland Diner, received a suspended sentence of one and a half to three years in prison, on a letter from the complaining witness pleading for leniency.

One condition is that Mancuso make restitution in the amount of $213.50.

Intercession in his behalf saved Mancuso from serving time in Clinton State Prison at Dannemora. He had pleaded guilty to second degree larceny.

Mancuso was represented by Attorney Alexander Goldberg of Poughkeepsie.

George Woodworth was the other defendant put on probation on his plea of guilty to assault, third degree. Sentence called for a year in jail.

Woodworth had been indicted for second degree assault on the allegation he resisted an officer at the time of his arrest.

Thomas Cassoman was the defense attorney.

Railroad Retirement Advisor to Be Here

A representative of the Railroad Retirement Board will be at the New York Central Freight Station, 545 Broadway, between 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. Wednesday, June 11, it was announced today.

He will assist the railroad worker, his wife, widow, or survivors, with any retirement or survivor problems they may have in connection with the Railroad Retirement and Railroad Unemployment Insurance Acts.

EAT WELL for Less

Chiffon Ring for Father's Day

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Fathers usually want a dessert a la mode—either pie or cake with a collop of ice cream on top. For Fathers Day 1952 (that's June 15th) here's a new and wonderful version of a la mode a la pop.

Sliced Molasses Chiffon Ring (12 to 15 servings)

Two and one-quarter cups sifted cake flour, 1 cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon soda, 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon cloves, ½ cup salad oil, 5 egg yolks, unbeaten, ½ cup cold water, ½ cup unsulphured molasses, ½ teaspoon cream of tartar, 1 cup (7 to 8) egg whites.

Heat oven to 325 degrees F. (slow). Sift first 8 ingredients into mixing bowl. Make a well in dry ingredients; add salad oil, egg yolks, cold water, and molasses in order given. Beat mixture satin smooth. Combine cream of tartar and egg whites in a large mixing bowl; beat until they form very stiff peaks (stiffer than for meringue or angel cake). Fold egg-yolk batter gradually into beaten egg whites. Fold until just blended (do not stir).

Bake 75 minutes in an ungreased 4-quart ring pan or in a 10 x 4-inch tube pan. Cool cake by inverting over funnel or a ½-pint milk bottle. When cake is thoroughly cold, loosen sides with spatula; invert pan and strike edge sharply on table. Cake will drop out. Frost with Taffy Frosting. Fill center with your favorite ice cream just before serving if desired.

Taffy Frosting (Sufficient Frosting for a 10-inch Cake)

One and one-half cups sugar, ½ teaspoon cream of tartar, 2 tablespoons unsulphured molasses, ½ cup water, 2 egg whites, unbeaten, ⅛ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg.

Mix first four ingredients thoroughly in a saucepan to dissolve sugar. Bring mixture to a full rolling boil; continue boiling ½ minute without stirring. Put egg whites and salt in mixing bowl; gradually add syrup in a thin stream, beating constantly with rotary or electric beater at medium speed. Increase beating to fastest speed after all syrup has been added. Add nutmeg; beat until mixture stands in very stiff peaks. (If electric mixer is used, beat mixture in the larger bowl.) Spread frosting over cake.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Strawberries ready-to-eat cereal, crisp bacon, enriched rolls, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Egg and potato salad, sliced tomatoes, watercress and lettuce, Russian dressing, toasted muffins, butter or fortified margarine, apple sauce cake, cheese, tea, milk.

DINNER: Pan broiled fillets of sole, tartar sauce, parsley new potatoes, baby peas with white onions, enriched bread, cabbage and green pepper salad, spiced molasses chiffon ring a la mode, coffee, milk.

Trust Company to Aid City Postal Workers

Kingston postoffice employes, whose regular federal salary checks have been delayed, will have an opportunity to get their money in advance of the belated pay checks through the courtesy of the Kingston Trust Company.

The Kingston Trust Company announced today that all postal employes of the Kingston office would be advanced the amount of money due them by the government. Postal employes may call at the main office, corner of Main and Fair streets or at the Central Branch, 518 Broadway.

The local banking institution action is the result of congressional delay in enacting legislation to provide funds for operation of the federal postal system.

MODENA NEWS

Modena, June 5—The annual Children's Day exercises will be held Sunday, June 8, at 7:30 p. m. in the Modena Methodist Church. A program of recitations, songs and special choir music has been arranged.

The regular meeting of the Plattekill Town Board will be held Wednesday night, June 11, at the town building in Modena.

Burial was made in the Modena Rural Cemetery Sunday of Mrs. Lillian Rhodes, widow of Eber Rhodes, who died Thursday, May 29, at her home here after being in ill health for several years. Mrs. Rhodes, 71, was a daughter of the late James and Alena Cutler Gulnac of Bearsville. She had resided in Modena for 45 years, and was a member of the Modena Methodist Church and the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the church. Besides a son, Gordon, at home, she is survived by a sister, Mrs. Ida LeFevre, of New Paltz, and a brother, Franck Gulnac, also of that village. Funeral services were conducted at the Sutton Funeral Chapel in Clintondale Sunday with the Rev. William A. Imler, pastor of the Modena and Clintondale Methodist Churches, officiating. Burial was in charge of Harold Sutton of Clintondale. Bearers were Max Meyers, William Doolittle, Lewis Hyatt and Harold West.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Coddington and sons of Walden were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. DeWitt, Sr., and family Friday.

Mrs. Claude Roosa of Marlborough was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Patrick Moran and family last weekend.

Mrs. Michael Vogrin of New York, formerly of Modena, visited Mrs. Alvina Matheisen recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roosa and daughter, Joan, were visitors in Newburgh Saturday night.

Miss Kathryn Kalamucki and Miss Phyllis Paltridge enjoyed the parade and a theatre performance in Kingston Memorial Day.

Mrs. Fred Bernard spent Friday with her daughter, Mrs. George Lare, at Gardnertown.

A number of local people enjoyed the radio program Bride and Groom Wednesday when the Rev. Herbert C. Greenland of New York, formerly of Modena and Kingston, performed the ceremony.

Miss Mary Moran, a teacher at the Stattsburgh school, spent the holiday vacation at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Freston J. Paltridge were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Solie Bernard and family at Poughkeepsie Sunday.

Miss Beatrice Rhodes and Teddy Gradowski of New York spent the holiday weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Ruger and family, north of Modena village.

Cpl. Irving Ruger, stationed at Camp Le Jeune, expects to visit relatives and friends here during a furlough to be granted during July before receiving further assignment.

Murphy Reports $47,300 Building Permits in May

Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy's building permit report for May showed only five applications for the building of new dwellings at an estimated cost of $47,300.

The chief issued 36 permits for building and alterations during the month at at estimated cost of $86,177.

This was far under the April total of $529,365 represented in 44 permits, but most of that total was for the permit granted to build the new building on the high school grounds at an estimated cost of $425,000.

Two permits were issued last month for garages at $2,700, one for a store, at $15,000, and nine permits for alterations, additions and repairs on residential structures at $6,452, and nine for the same purposes on non residential buildings at $11,210. Eight permits were issued for oil tanks and burners at $3,515.

The total for May, 1951 was $611,000, but that included the Hillcrest Garden development in the Millers Lane area. Otherwise the chief had issued only five permits for new dwellings a year ago at an estimated cost of $45,300.

KRUMVILLE

Krumville, June 4—Mrs. Juan Botella spent Sunday and Monday in Oneonta attending the graduation of her daughter, Mary, from Hartwick College. Miss Botella has been an honor student every year since she entered the school.

Miss Edith Jacobsen of Norwalk, Conn., spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Arne Jacobsen.

The Mother's Club met Thursday afternoon at the schoolhouse. Plans were made for a final picnic at the school on June 19. It will be a noon picnic and lunch will be served the children. This will be followed by the Mother's Club meeting. Hostesses at the meeting were Mrs. Katie Davis, Mrs. Juan Botella and Mrs. Harold Bradley.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Andersen and son, Eric, spent the weekend at their home here.

Mrs. Hazel Osborne, health nurse for the Onteora Central School, visited the local school Monday.

Several from here attended the parade and Memorial Day services in Olive Bridge Friday.

KOJE PRISON CAMP "MEMORIAL"—Grave of a North Korean POW, surrounded by picket fence in foreground, becomes a "memorial" for POW's in this prison camp compound on Koje Island. The prisoners conducted an elaborate service before the body was interred.

Woman Becomes Cabbie

Springfield, Mass. (AP) — Miss Shirley Miner always liked to drive all day. She's the city's first postwar woman taxi driver. She says she is ready to perform all the cabbie's duties, even to changing tires.

Ancient Tombs Found

Rome (AP)—A large number of ancient tombs have been found during excavations near Naples, and in Northeastern Sicily. The first group was uncovered near Caivano, in the province of Naples, where some 70 bronze vases were found scattered in 16 tombs. A second group of tombs nearby led to the finding of 51 bronze vases and several bronze coins belonging to the Fourth and Third centuries B.C.

HIGHLAND NEWS

Mrs. Charles C. Whittaker spent the holiday at the home of her brother in Kingston.

Dr. Virgil Tompkins, Suffern, spent the holiday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Tompkins.

James Chaffee, Wassaic, moderator of North River Presbytery, attended services in the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning.

Mrs. Rose Seaman returned Saturday from Middletown where she had spent several days. Her daughter and granddaughter came with her, Mrs. Foster A. Root and Betty Root.

The Monday afternoon bridge club met with Mrs. Fred Lewis Vail, with Miss Eliza Raymond substituting for Mrs. G. H. Mackey.

Packets for Peace is the World Community Day project of the Highland Council of Church Women this year. World Community Day will not be until November 7, but as always, work on this project may be started during the summer. The packets are to contain clothing, which may be good, used clothing, for children from infancy to six years of age. Articles especially needed are warm underwear, sweaters, snow suits, simple dresses and coats for girls; pants, blouses and coats for boys. It also is desired that the packets contain layettes and the Council suggests that these be made by groups working together during the summer and fall. The layettes are to contain receiving blanket, kimonas, gowns, diapers, shirts, socks, rubber sheeting for crib, quilted pad for crib, bath towels, face cloths, face towels, mattress sheet. After the World Day Community service the packets will be sent through Church World Service to needy areas of the world. Need for children's clothing is desperate in many places. Mrs. Meredith Turner is the Council chairman for World Community day. She will answer questions in regard to collection of clothing and the making of layettes.

Ancient Tombs Found

Rome (AP)—A large number of ancient tombs have been found during excavations near Naples, and in Northeastern Sicily. The first group was uncovered near Caivano, in the province of Naples, where some 70 bronze vases were found scattered in 16 tombs. A second group of tombs nearby led to the finding of 51 bronze vases and several bronze coins belonging to the Fourth and Third centuries B.C.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Discusses Children's Art at PTA Meeting

Woodstock, June 5—The subject of evaluation of children's art was discussed Tuesday night by Rosabell Mann at the Woodstock Art Gallery at the final meeting of the season of the Woodstock Parent-Teacher Association.

At the business meeting plans were discussed for the party which the P-TA will sponsor for the graduation class following the exercises Monday, June 23, at the Woodstock School. Music for both round and square dancing will be provided by Frank Provenzano. The corsages and boutonnieres will again be made by Mrs. Nick Fox. The committee in charge of the party has requested donations of sandwiches and cakes. Anyone interested in contributing these refreshments may call Mrs. Irene Kullman, Woodstock 2313, or Mrs. Hans Cohn, Woodstock 2439. The parents of the graduates and the members of the school board have been invited to attend.

An enthusiastic vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Edna Quick for her arrangement of the children's art exhibition. Mrs. Quick was assisted by Mrs. Margo King and Mrs. Marianne Mecklem.

In the absence of Mrs. Joseph Marr, president, the meeting was conducted by Mrs. Harold Mellin. The treasurer reported that to date $180 had been received from the sale of tickets for the play, The Seven Ravens, to be presented at the school Friday afternoon and evening for the benefit of the graduation party.

A resolution was passed that the money remaining after all expenses for the graduation party had been paid, would be placed in a separate savings account to be used at some future date for parent-teacher work. The resolution was also passed to transfer the checking account of the P-TA to the Woodstock Branch of the Bank of Orange County. It was announced that Edwin Swenson, manager of the bank, had informed the treasurer that there is no service charge for all non-profit and charitable organizations.

In reply to a letter received from the Woodstock Community War Memorial Association requesting a donation, it was said that according to the laws and manual governing the Parent-Teacher Association, the organization is not permitted to give any donations.

It was announced that a total of $3 had been derived as the percentage on the commissions from the sale of several books by Thomas Galt, well-known author of juvenile books, who spoke at the April P-TA meeting.

After the meeting was adjourned, members of the PTA assisted Mrs. Quick in the removal of the children's art work from the walls of the gallery.

Auxiliary Presents Slate of Officers

Woodstock, June 5—The Woodstock Unit 1026, American Legion Auxiliary, held its regular monthly meeting at the Legion Hall Wednesday evening, May 28, with the president, Mrs. George Aplustill, presiding. After the opening ceremonies, the following reports were given: community service — 19 hours collecting for the Red Cross; coupons—436 regular, 148 miscellaneous; membership — 50; publicity—12 and one-half inches in three newspapers; rehabilitation—several hundred new, all-occasion greeting cards, valued at $25.72, sent to Castle Point Veterans Hospital through the kindness of Mrs. Wesley O'Brien.

The nominating committee then presented the following slate of officers for the coming year: Mrs. G. Alfred Nussbaum, president; Mrs. Clarence Snyder, first vice-president; Mrs. Wesley O'Brien, second vice-president; Mrs. Aaron Hasbrouck, secretary; Miss Florence Peper, treasurer; Mrs. George Aplustill, Mrs. Edwin Holumzer and Mrs. William Klippel, members of the executive committee.

A $5 donation will be sent to the Woodstock Memorial Association for the planting and upkeep of the Woodstock War Memorial. A $5 donation was voted to the Carville gasoline fund.

Members were reminded of the State Convention of the American Legion Auxiliary to be held at Saratoga, July 24 to 26.

A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. William Woestendiek for donating 30 geranium plants which were placed on all veterans' graves in the Woodstock Cemetery by the auxiliary.

Mrs. Everett Cashdollar, chaplain, volunteered to make the wreath and basket of flowers which was placed on the Woodstock War Memorial during the Memorial Day parade in which members of the legion and auxiliary participated.

Mrs. George Aplustill, president, will represent the organization at the annual meeting of the Woodstock Memorial Association which was postponed from Memorial Day to Monday, June 9, at 8 p. m. in the basement of the Dutch Reformed Church.

A food sale will be held Saturday, June 14, next door to the Colonial Pharmacy in this village, beginning at 9 a. m.

The annual fair and cafeteria supper, given by the auxiliary, will be held at the Legion Hall, Saturday evening, July 26. Further details will be announced later.

The mystery package was won by Mrs. William Klippel, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Clarence Snyder and Mrs. Reuben Jansen.

The next regular meeting will be held June 25. Mrs. G. Alfred Nussbaum and Mrs. John Peacock are on the refreshments committee.

To Hold Examinations For Postal Positions

Woodstock, June 5—An examination for appointment to clerk jobs in the Post Office has been announced by the director of the New York office of the U. S. Civil Service Commission. The starting salary for these jobs is $1.61½ an hour.

Persons living within the delivery of the Post Office or who are employed at the Post Office may file in this examination.

No specific education or experience is required but applicants must take a written examination which includes address checking and a test of their ability to follow instructions.

Further information on the examination and the necessary card forms for applying may be obtained from the Commission's Secretary, R. Bronson, at the Woodstock Post Office, or from the U. S. Civil Service Regional Office in the Federal Building, Christopher street, New York. Applications will be received in the Regional Office until the needs of the service are met.

15 Seaman Killed

Den Helder, The Netherlands, June 5 (AP)—A Dutch Thunderjet crashed into a British minesweeper today and the 112-foot vessel sank in flames. A report from the British embassy to London said 15 seamen lost their lives. A cautious British admiralty statement conceded that "casualties are believed to be heavy." The plane crashed during NATO exercises. A Dutch communique said the pilot was killed and two survivors of the 65-ton British vessel were rescued.

Warren's Vote Is Hailed by Aides

San Francisco, June 5 (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren's vote in Tuesday's Republican presidential primary neared the million mark today and Eisenhower supporters hailed his victory as a slap at Sen. Robert A. Taft.

The record-smashing primary—close to 3,500,000 Californians voted—insured Warren a key role at the GOP national convention.

His 2 to 1 defeat of a home state "free choice" slate led by Rep. Thomas H. Werdel gave the governor 70 pledged delegates. In addition he won six votes in Wisconsin April 1 to help his own chances as a possible compromise candidate or as a deadlock breaker.

The nearly complete count, from 19,453 of the 19,730 precincts, showed Warren 994,220; Werdel 508,251.

State and national campaign leaders for Gen. Dwight Eisenhower quickly issued jubilant statements emphasizing that the Werdel group favored Taft—while their own organization had endorsed Warren.

Taft did not enter the primary and personally stayed clear of the bitter Warren-Werdel battle. However, Werdel himself named Taft as his first choice and splinter factions supporting the Ohio senator urged Californians to elect the anti-Warren slate.

Although Warren campaigned in Wisconsin with the help of Eisenhower boosters, he has declared repeatedly he is not tied up with any candidate.

Discusses Children's Art at PTA Meeting

Woodstock, June 5—The subject of evaluation of children's art was discussed Tuesday night by Rosabell Mann at the Woodstock Art Gallery at the final meeting of the season of the Woodstock Parent-Teacher Association.

At the business meeting plans were discussed for the party which the P-TA will sponsor for the graduation class following the exercises Monday, June 23, at the Woodstock School. Music for both round and square dancing will be provided by Frank Provenzano. The corsages and boutonnieres will again be made by Mrs. Nick Fox. The committee in charge of the party has requested donations of sandwiches and cakes. Anyone interested in contributing these refreshments may call Mrs. Irene Kullman, Woodstock 2313, or Mrs. Hans Cohn, Woodstock 2439. The parents of the graduates and the members of the school board have been invited to attend.

An enthusiastic vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Edna Quick for her arrangement of the children's art exhibition. Mrs. Quick was assisted by Mrs. Margo King and Mrs. Marianne Mecklem.

In the absence of Mrs. Joseph Marr, president, the meeting was conducted by Mrs. Harold Mellin. The treasurer reported that to date $180 had been received from the sale of tickets for the play, The Seven Ravens, to be presented at the school Friday afternoon and evening for the benefit of the graduation party.

A resolution was passed that the money remaining after all expenses for the graduation party had been paid, would be placed in a separate savings account to be used at some future date for parent-teacher work. The resolution was also passed to transfer the checking account of the P-TA to the Woodstock Branch of the Bank of Orange County. It was announced that Edwin Swenson, manager of the bank, had informed the treasurer that there is no service charge for all non-profit and charitable organizations.

In reply to a letter received from the Woodstock Community War Memorial Association requesting a donation, it was said that according to the laws and manual governing the Parent-Teacher Association, the organization is not permitted to give any donations.

It was announced that a total of $3 had been derived as the percentage on the commissions from the sale of several books by Thomas Galt, well-known author of juvenile books, who spoke at the April P-TA meeting.

After the meeting was adjourned, members of the PTA assisted Mrs. Quick in the removal of the children's art work from the walls of the gallery.

Auxiliary Presents Slate of Officers

Woodstock, June 5—The Woodstock Unit 1026, American Legion Auxiliary, held its regular monthly meeting at the Legion Hall Wednesday evening, May 28, with the president, Mrs. George Aplustill, presiding. After the opening ceremonies, the following reports were given: community service — 19 hours collecting for the Red Cross; coupons—436 regular, 148 miscellaneous; membership — 50; publicity—12 and one-half inches in three newspapers; rehabilitation—several hundred new, all-occasion greeting cards, valued at $25.72, sent to Castle Point Veterans Hospital through the kindness of Mrs. Wesley O'Brien.

The nominating committee then presented the following slate of officers for the coming year: Mrs. G. Alfred Nussbaum, president; Mrs. Clarence Snyder, first vice-president; Mrs. Wesley O'Brien, second vice-president; Mrs. Aaron Hasbrouck, secretary; Miss Florence Peper, treasurer; Mrs. George Aplustill, Mrs. Edwin Holumzer and Mrs. William Klippel, members of the executive committee.

A $5 donation will be sent to the Woodstock Memorial Association for the planting and upkeep of the Woodstock War Memorial. A $5 donation was voted to the Carville gasoline fund.

Members were reminded of the State Convention of the American Legion Auxiliary to be held at Saratoga, July 24 to 26.

A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. William Woestendiek for donating 30 geranium plants which were placed on all veterans' graves in the Woodstock Cemetery by the auxiliary.

Mrs. Everett Cashdollar, chaplain, volunteered to make the wreath and basket of flowers which was placed on the Woodstock War Memorial during the Memorial Day parade in which members of the legion and auxiliary participated.

Mrs. George Aplustill, president, will represent the organization at the annual meeting of the Woodstock Memorial Association which was postponed from Memorial Day to Monday, June 9, at 8 p. m. in the basement of the Dutch Reformed Church.

A food sale will be held Saturday, June 14, next door to the Colonial Pharmacy in this village, beginning at 9 a. m.

The annual fair and cafeteria supper, given by the auxiliary, will be held at the Legion Hall, Saturday evening, July 26. Further details will be announced later.

The mystery package was won by Mrs. William Klippel, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Clarence Snyder and Mrs. Reuben Jansen.

The next regular meeting will be held June 25. Mrs. G. Alfred Nussbaum and Mrs. John Peacock are on the refreshments committee.

Four Are Convicted In Cicero Riots

Chicago, June 5 (AP)—The police chief, two policemen and the village attorney of suburban Cicero were convicted last night on charges stemming from race rioting last July in the all-white suburb.

The officials were tried before a federal court jury on charges of violating or conspiring to violate the federal civil rights statute. The indictments were returned in connection with the rioting which occurred when a Negro attempted to move his family into an apartment building in the community of 70,000.

Three days of rioting, with crowds of 5,000 milling around the apartment building, ended on July 12 when five companies of national guardsmen were sent to the scene.

Nearly a score of persons were hurt and more than 100 others were arrested during the disturbances. The Negro's apartment was set afire and some of his furniture destroyed.

Chief Is Convicted

Police Chief Erwin Konovsky was convicted on two counts, violating the federal rights statute and conspiracy. He faces a possible maximum sentence of two years in prison and a $2,000 fine.

The two policemen, Sgt. Roland Drami and Frank A. Lange, were convicted of violating the statute and face a possible maximum punishment of one year in prison and $1,000 fine each.

Village Attorney Nicholas Berkos faces a similar punishment on his conviction of conspiracy. He was acquitted on an indictment charging violation of the statute.

The defendants had been accused of depriving Harvey E. Clark, Jr., 29 year old Negro bus driver, of his civil rights by failing to keep crowds from interfering with his efforts to move into the apartment he had rented.

Judge Walter J. La Buy set June 23 for hearing defense motions for a new trial. Sentencing was postponed until after that time.

The jury of seven women and five men deliberated about five hours in the second court trial in connection with the race rioting.

In the first case, the Cook county (Chicago) grand jury returned indictments against six persons last September. However, charges against all except Konovsky were quashed. The police chief later was acquitted on a directed verdict on a charge of malfeasance.

Two Men Are Held By FBI; One Is Government Aide

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The FBI today arrested two men—one a federal official—and charged them with diversion of surplus government rope.

The two men were named as: Capt. Manual Gonzales, 42, assistant chief of the division of ship repair and maintenance for the U. S. Maritime Administration, arrested in the Commerce department building in Washington.

Emile Schmidt, 65, used rope buyer, was taken into custody by FBI agents in New Orleans.

FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover said Gonzales was charged with embezzling and selling without authority some 170,000 pounds of rope valued at about $8,500.

Schmidt Is Charged

Schmidt, he said, was charged with receiving a portion of the goods, which had been in storage aboard the reserve fleet of the Maritime Administration at Beaumont, Tex.

Capt. Gonzales, a former navy commander, was in charge of that fleet when the rope was disposed of between January, 1951, and March, 1952, Hoover said.

Gonzales was promoted in March of this year to his present position in the maritime administration. He resides at 6604 Riggs road in suburban Hyattsville, Md.

The FBI said today's arrests make a total of eight persons who have been taken into custody in recent weeks in an investigation involving embezzlements from the Beaumont reserve fleet supplies.

The maritime administration has been disposing of supplies at Beaumont because it considers them a fire hazard to the 135 ocean-going vessels now in mothballs at Beaumont's Neches river basin.

Arranged Purchase

Hoover said Schmidt previously arranged for what he called the legitimate purchase of more than one million pounds of used rope stored aboard fleet vessels in Beaumont.

An FBI spokesman said the four-stripe rank of captain—equivalent to colonel in the army—goes with the job of assistant chief of ship repair.

The FBI names those previously arested in the Beaumont investigation at Capt. Howard J. Gray, 44, assistant fleet captain there; Norman A. Fisher, 44, a boat operator; Fritz Herman Kaleck, 41, an insurance agent; and Murphy F. Sterling, 30-year-old steel worker, all of Beaumont; Thomas Oscar Wigley, 45, former electrician for the reserve fleet, arrested at San Francisco; and Edwin J. Anderson, 37, of Galveston, former fleet diver, who was taken into custody at Galveston.

Local Artist Is Designer for Child Novelty Wall Paper

Strange characters, born at the Saxton Fells School of Art in the Burgevin Building at 243 Fair street, are making their appearances in numerous nurseries and children's rooms throughout the country.

These characters are being transplanted from nationally known radio and TV programs to wall paper which is being produced by Child Life Wall Paper Company, Inc., of which A. A. Champanier of Woodstock is president and treasurer. Champanier is also proprietor of the Saxton Fells School of Art in Kingston.

Some time ago Champanier began working on the idea of using nationally known radio and TV characters for wall paper designs. These whimsical and amusing designs are now available in natural colors and the hand-printed paper is available throughout the country at stores. Distribution has also been arranged in Mexico and Europe.

Secures Rights

Thus far Champanier has secured the rights to produce on wall paper many of the famous characters of radio and TV, including the Gabby Hayes cowboy characters of TV; Time for Beanie TV characters from this popular Hollywood puppet show; the Jon and Sparky radio show characters and several others. Negotiations have been completed for rights to produce another very famous artist's characters.

These characters are transplanted to wall paper design and preliminaries are made at the Saxton Fells School of Art in Kingston. The paper is then produced by a hand process by the manufacturer. The product is being advertised in national trade papers. The special colorations of the product is all custom made and the characters are transplanted from radio and TV to the wall paper designs at the Kingston art shop of the Child Life Wall Paper Company, Inc., by Champanier.

In a recent issue of "Interior Design" there appeared a picture and article depicting the "Time for Beanie" wall paper designed and executed by Champanier.

Four Are Convicted In Cicero Riots

Chicago, June 5 (AP)—The police chief, two policemen and the village attorney of suburban Cicero were convicted last night on charges stemming from race rioting last July in the all-white suburb.

The officials were tried before a federal court jury on charges of violating or conspiring to violate the federal civil rights statute. The indictments were returned in connection with the rioting which occurred when a Negro attempted to move his family into an apartment building in the community of 70,000.

Three days of rioting, with crowds of 5,000 milling around the apartment building, ended on July 12 when five companies of national guardsmen were sent to the scene.

Nearly a score of persons were hurt and more than 100 others were arrested during the disturbances. The Negro's apartment was set afire and some of his furniture destroyed.

Chief Is Convicted

Police Chief Erwin Konovsky was convicted on two counts, violating the federal rights statute and conspiracy. He faces a possible maximum sentence of two years in prison and a $2,000 fine.

The two policemen, Sgt. Roland Drami and Frank A. Lange, were convicted of violating the statute and face a possible maximum punishment of one year in prison and $1,000 fine each.

Village Attorney Nicholas Berkos faces a similar punishment on his conviction of conspiracy. He was acquitted on an indictment charging violation of the statute.

The defendants had been accused of depriving Harvey E. Clark, Jr., 29 year old Negro bus driver, of his civil rights by failing to keep crowds from interfering with his efforts to move into the apartment he had rented.

Judge Walter J. La Buy set June 23 for hearing defense motions for a new trial. Sentencing was postponed until after that time.

The jury of seven women and five men deliberated about five hours in the second court trial in connection with the race rioting.

In the first case, the Cook county (Chicago) grand jury returned indictments against six persons last September. However, charges against all except Konovsky were quashed. The police chief later was acquitted on a directed verdict on a charge of malfeasance.

Two Men Are Held By FBI; One Is Government Aide

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The FBI today arrested two men—one a federal official—and charged them with diversion of surplus government rope.

The two men were named as: Capt. Manual Gonzales, 42, assistant chief of the division of ship repair and maintenance for the U. S. Maritime Administration, arrested in the Commerce department building in Washington.

Emile Schmidt, 65, used rope buyer, was taken into custody by FBI agents in New Orleans.

FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover said Gonzales was charged with embezzing and selling without authority some 170,000 pounds of rope valued at about $8,500.

Schmidt Is Charged

Schmidt, he said, was charged with receiving a portion of the goods, which had been in storage aboard the reserve fleet of the Maritime Administration at Beaumont, Tex.

Capt. Gonzales, a former navy commander, was in charge of that fleet when the rope was disposed of between January, 1951, and March, 1952, Hoover said.

Gonzales was promoted in March of this year to his present position in the maritime administration. He resides at 6604 Riggs road in suburban Hyattsville, Md.

The FBI said today's arrests make a total of eight persons who have been taken into custody in recent weeks in an investigation involving embezzlements from the Beaumont reserve fleet supplies.

The maritime administration has been disposing of supplies at Beaumont because it considers them a fire hazard to the 135 ocean-going vessels now in mothballs at Beaumont's Neches river basin.

Arranged Purchase

Hoover said Schmidt previously arranged for what he called the legitimate purchase of more than one million pounds of used rope stored aboard fleet vessels in Beaumont.

An FBI spokesman said the four-stripe rank of captain—equivalent to colonel in the army—goes with the job of assistant chief of ship repair.

The FBI names those previously arested in the Beaumont investigation at Capt. Howard J. Gray, 44, assistant fleet captain there; Norman A. Fisher, 44, a boat operator; Fritz Herman Kaleck, 41, an insurance agent; and Murphy F. Sterling, 30-year-old steel worker, all of Beaumont; Thomas Oscar Wigley, 45, former electrician for the reserve fleet, arrested at San Francisco; and Edwin J. Anderson, 37, of Galveston, former fleet diver, who was taken into custody at Galveston.

Births

The city registrar recorded 98 births in May. This was four above May of 1951 and five more than April of this year.

The following births were recorded recently:

Local Artist Is Designer for Child Novelty Wall Paper

Strange characters, born at the Saxton Fells School of Art in the Burgevin Building at 243 Fair street, are making their appearances in numerous nurseries and children's rooms throughout the country.

These characters are being transplanted from nationally known radio and TV programs to wall paper which is being produced by Child Life Wall Paper Company, Inc., of which A. A. Champanier of Woodstock is president and treasurer. Champanier is also proprietor of the Saxton Fells School of Art in Kingston.

Some time ago Champanier began working on the idea of using nationally known radio and TV characters for wall paper designs. These whimsical and amusing designs are now available in natural colors and the hand-printed paper is available throughout the country at stores. Distribution has also been arranged in Mexico and Europe.

Secures Rights

Thus far Champanier has secured the rights to produce on wall paper many of the famous characters of radio and TV, including the Gabby Hayes cowboy characters of TV; Time for Beanie TV characters from this popular Hollywood puppet show; the Jon and Sparky radio show characters and several others. Negotiations have been completed for rights to produce another very famous artist's characters.

These characters are transplanted to wall paper design and preliminaries are made at the Saxton Fells School of Art in Kingston. The paper is then produced by a hand process by the manufacturer. The product is being advertised in national trade papers. The special colorations of the product is all custom made and the characters are transplanted from radio and TV to the wall paper designs at the Kingston art shop of the Child Life Wall Paper Company, Inc., by Champanier.

In a recent issue of "Interior Design" there appeared a picture and article depicting the "Time for Beanie" wall paper designed and executed by Champanier.

Eno Is Arrested

New York, June 5 (AP)—Stanley W. Eno, Jr., 34, of 3656 Farm Ranch Road South, Bethpage, was arrested on a grand larceny charge yesterday in Queens. Assistant District Attorney Bernard Patten and Eno had admitted embezzling about $10,000 from American Airlines in the past two years by making out fraudulent expense accounts. Eno recently was discharged as eastern regional crew schedule coordinator for the airline. He had been an airline employe 12 years. Police said he told them he spent the $10,000 on his wife and three children. Patten said Eno explained that he had wanted to keep up socially with the pilots on about half a pilot's pay.

Says Reports 'Brushed'

New York, June 5 (AP)—A fireman testified yesterday that Gerard W. Purcell, former fireman charged with stealing more than $200,000 as an official of a firemen's association, "brushed off" reports of duplication of tickets for a firemen's ball. Most of the early testimony in Purcell's trial on grand larceny and forgery charges involved sales of firemen's ball tickets by various firemen. Fireman Anthony J. Tini, now financial and recording secretary of the uniformed firemen's association, told of Purcell's reaction to the report of ticket duplication.

The number of U. S. farms declined from 6,800,000 in 1935 to 5,380,000 in 1950.

Begins Jail Sentence

Los Angeles, June 5 (AP)—Producer Walter Wanger has begun serving a four-month sentence for the jealousy shooting of Jennings Lang, agent for his scren star wife, Joan Bennett. Grim and tight-lipped, the 57-year-old moviemaker surrendered last night at county jail. He turned a deaf ear to newsmen's queries about a possible reconciliation with Miss Bennett. The two have been estranged since the shooting last Dec. 13.

Wet Weather Is Prospect

(By The Associated Press)

Wet weather was in prospect today for wide areas in the mid-continent, along the east coast and in southeastern states. Thundershowers hit areas in the upper Mississippi valley and central plain states, with wet weather predicted for most of the North Central region during the day. Rain and hail storms swept wide areas of Oklahoma yesterday. The shower activity in the east extended from New England to Virginia and North Carolina. Fairly pleasant weather was reported in other areas. It was warm over most of the country with temperatures near normal or slightly below only in the Great Lakes region. One of yesterday's highest readings was 105 at Presidio, Tex.

Dog With Bank Account

Tulsa, Okla., June 5 (AP)—Duke the Seeing-Eye dog is careful where he sets his paw down nowadays. He's a pooch with a bank account and his pawprint on a blank check is guaranteed up to $600. Duke provides the eyes for Bob Triplett, a 35-year-old Tulsa businessman and owner of a dog food plant at Columbus, Miss. When Triplett lost his sight in a plane crash two years ago, he acquired Duke. The two friends walked into the Farmers and Merchants Bank and Triplett told Vice President C. L. Northcutt he wanted to open an account—for the dog. Northcutt inked Duke's paw, and set it on the application. His first check cleared the bank the following day—a $5 contribution to Triplett's church.

The ox was one of the first animals to be domesticated.

Bride-Elect Announces Unique Reception

Unique plans are in the making for a reception following the forthcoming marriage of Miss Ruth Read Lander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Lander, Westchester county, to William Tuck, Woodstock, Sunday afternoon, June 8.

The couple will be married in Montclair, N. J., and a "strictly gypsy reception" reminiscent of the first Maverick festivals in Woodstock, will take place on the grounds of the Maverick Concert hall, beginning at 5 p. m.

Since relatives, friends and acquaintances from far and near are invited to attend the reception, a large attendance is expected. Many notables in the fields of the creative arts plan to be present.

Miss Lander has been engaged in the advertising business while Mr. Tuck is a well known photographer, whose work has appeared in national publications.

Bernice Levine to Wed Bertram Neustadt

New York, June 5 (Special)—Miss Bernice Leona Levine, formerly of Kingston, now at 336 West 95th street, New York, and Bertram Joseph Neustadt, of 1254 Union street, Brooklyn, secured a marriage license at the municipal building here today.

The couple said they would be married shortly.

Miss Levine, the daughter of Benjamin and Rose Katz Levine, is a native of Kingston. Her prospective husband, who was born in Glen Cove, is the son of Philip and Lena Goodman Neustadt.

Rev. Ivan F. Gossoo Is Ministerial President

The Rev. Ivan F. Gossoo was elected president of the Kingston Ministerial Association at a regular meeting held in the YMCA Tuesday. The Rev. Ralph M. Houston was re-elected vice president, the Rev. Donald E. Brown, secretary-treasurer and Burton S. Tandy, corresponding secretary.

A picnic was planned for Monday, June 23, at 2:30 p. m., instead of the June meeting. The regular business sessions of the association will be resumed in September.

Mary Olive Ashdown Weds Frederick Kirk In St. Joseph's

Miss Mary Olive Ashdown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ashdown, 82 Yarmouth street, became the bride of Frederick R. Kirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wharton Kirk, 20 Otis street, at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon, Sunday, June 1, in St. Joseph's Church. The Rev. John D. Simmons, assistant pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. A reception for 60 guests was held at the Stuyvesant Hotel.

Organ wedding selections were played by Mrs. Frank Rafferty.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace, styled with a basque bodice, long pointed sleeves and a winged collar. Her full skirt, over taffeta, terminated in a cathedral train. Her silk illusion finger-tip veil was attached to a headpiece of matching lace, trimmed with appliqued leaves and seed pearls. She carried a white satin prayer book with a white orchid.

Miss Maureen Donnelly of 167 Pine street was the honor attendant. She was attired in a ballerina length gown of green iridescent taffeta, fashioned with a basque bodice, bouffant skirt and matching jacket. A scroll type headpiece of yellow lilies-of-the-valley and a bouquet of yellow roses completed her ensemble.

Henry W. Kramer of 42 Wrentham street was best man. Raymond Ashdown, brother of the bride and Donald Ransom, uncle of the bridegroom, served as ushers.

The couple will visit in the New England states on their wedding trip. For traveling, the bride was attired in a navy blue faille suit with navy and white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Kirk graduated from the Academy of Saint Ursula and is employed by the New York Telephone Company.

Mr. Kirk, a graduate of Kingston High School, attended Farmingdale Technical School and is employed by The New York Times

Harry S. Jacobs Is Honored for Service

At a recent Friday night in Temple Emanuel Harry S. Jacobs active for many years in civic affairs, was honored at Oneg Shabbat (Sabbath reception), for his more than four decades of consecrated service as secretary and treasurer of the congregation. Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom devoted his sermon to the principle of service, utilizing Mr. Jacobs' life as an eloquent example.

Many past presidents of the congregation voiced their gratitude, friendship and approval in high tribute to Mr. Jacobs. Mrs. Jacobs' dedicated activity in temple and sisterhood was also lauded.

A purse and wallet, as symbolic tokens of the congregation's affection for Mr. Jacobs, were presented by the president of Temple Emanuel, Harry Gold.

Among the past presidents who addressed the group were, Dr. Sidney Wolff, Joseph Honig, Dr. S. T. Levitas, Richard Kalish, Dr. Harold Mandell and Sam N. Mann.

Mrs. Leone Gross, president of the Sisterhood, tendered her greetings for the ladies' organization. A spirit of good fellowship and rededication marked the evening.

Bride-Elect Announces Unique Reception

Unique plans are in the making for a reception following the forthcoming marriage of Miss Ruth Read Lander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Lander, Westchester county, to William Tuck, Woodstock, Sunday afternoon, June 8.

The couple will be married in Montclair, N. J., and a "strictly gypsy reception" reminiscent of the first Maverick festivals in Woodstock, will take place on the grounds of the Maverick Concert hall, beginning at 5 p. m.

Since relatives, friends and acquaintances from far and near are invited to attend the reception, a large attendance is expected. Many notables in the fields of the creative arts plan to be present.

Miss Lander has been engaged in the advertising business while Mr. Tuck is a well known photographer, whose work has appeared in national publications.

Boy Musician Has Remarkable Talent, Attracts Attention

Luke Boeve, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Boeve of 45 Avon Road, New Rochelle, and a grandson of the late Rev. Lucas Boeve, D.D., for many years pastor of the Old First Dutch Reformed Church in this city, has attracted the attention of musicians for his musical ability.

In a recent issue of The Standard-Star of New Rochelle appears a picture of the youthful musician at the console of the North Avenue Presbyterian Church, where Luke plays for children's services, for weddings and also assists his instructor, church organist Robert Waller, in keeping the chapel organ in repair.

Luke, a seventh grader at Albert Leonard Junior High School in New Rochelle, has been a member of the school band and orchestra, and prior to attending his present school was a member of the piano group classes in the Roosevelt School. He still studies piano although he prefers the organ.

The young musician claims his parents are a "little musical." His material grandfather, Alfred D. Van Buren of this city, a lawyer by profession, was a noted pianist, violinist and organist. At present Luke plans to follow his grandfather, the Rev. Mr. Boeve in the ministry.

In addition to his activities as a member of the junior high school band and orchestra, he plays the flute in the Junior Symphony, an outgrowth of the New Rochelle Symphony.

Piano is his second favorite instrument, but he also plays the tuba, sousaphone, violin and piccolo.

Between times he assists in keeping the 3,000-pipe church organ in condition under the supervision of the church organist.

Margaret K. Millham Becomes Bride of John F. McCloskey

The marriage of Miss Margaret Kathryn Millham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Millham, 65 South Chestnut street, New Paltz, to Pfc. John Francis McCloskey, U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mrs. Mary McCloskey, 29 Capp avenue, Wappingers Falls, took place Sunday, June 1, in St. Joseph's Church, New Paltz. The Rev. Michael Komar officiated at the ceremony and was assisted by the Revs. George Fagan, John Mahoney and William McManus. A reception for 100 guests was held at the Hotel Stuyvesant, this city.

Traditional wedding selections were played by Stephen Selvaggio, organist and included the Ave Maria and Panis Angelicus. White carnations and while gladioli were used for decorating the church.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown trimmed with seed pearls, fashioned with a Peter Pan collar and long pointed sleeves, and a long full skirt terminating in a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil was attached to a white satin cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book trimmed with orange blossoms and a white orchid.

Mrs. McCloskey, a graduate of New Paltz High School, is employed in the office of the International Business Machines Corp., Poughkeepsie.

Pfc. McCloskey graduated from Wappinger Falls High School and is serving with the U. S. Marine Corps, stationed in Jacksonville, Fla.

Good Taste Today

by Emily Post

(Author of 'Etiquette,' 'Children Are People,' etc.)

A FORTUNATE DAUGHTER

A young girl writes me: "I am 14 years old and whenever I go to a party or to a dance with a boy, my father insists upon driving us to wherever we are going and calling at a certain time to drive us home. All of the other girls are allowed to go by themselves and they tease me about this. Don't you think I should be allowed to go alone?"

In my opinion you're a very lucky girl to have so devoted a father. Fourteen is certainly much too young to go out alone with a boy in the evening. If you are one of a group all going together that would be another matter.

Very Long Engagement

Dear Mrs. Post: We've been engaged for six years. One stroke of bad luck and then another prevented the marriage before. Now my family feels that it's such an old story that it would be better taste for us to get married quietly and have no wedding. I can't see what our long engagement has to do with it.

Answer: Neither can I! On the contrary, I think after waiting so long, you of all persons should have the kind of wedding you want.

Friend Lacks Tact

Dear Mrs. Post: No matter when a certain friend comes to the house, she invariably raves about other friends. Either they had the most wonderful party or invited her to the most wonderful place, or have the most wonderful car, or house, etc. I begin to feel that anything I do for her is poor by comparison. Aren't such remarks in bad taste?

Answer: Yes. In fact, they are very stupid on her part as well as rude!

Eat, Not Drink, Soup

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me which is correct—to eat soup, or to drink soup?

Answer: The word is "eat." Strange to say it is never "drink" even when it is served in a cup that you lift to your lips.

Boy Musician Has Remarkable Talent, Attracts Attention

Luke Boeve, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas Boeve of 45 Avon Road, New Rochelle, and a grandson of the late Rev. Lucas Boeve, D.D., for many years pastor of the Old First Dutch Reformed Church in this city, has attracted the attention of musicians for his musical ability.

In a recent issue of The Standard-Star of New Rochelle appears a picture of the youthful musician at the console of the North Avenue Presbyterian Church, where Luke plays for children's services, for weddings and also assists his instructor, church organist Robert Waller, in keeping the chapel organ in repair.

Luke, a seventh grader at Albert Leonard Junior High School in New Rochelle, has been a member of the school band and orchestra, and prior to attending his present school was a member of the piano group classes in the Roosevelt School. He still studies piano although he prefers the organ.

The young musician claims his parents are a "little musical." His material grandfather, Alfred D. Van Buren of this city, a lawyer by profession, was a noted pianist, violinist and organist. At present Luke plans to follow his grandfather, the Rev. Mr. Boeve in the ministry.

In addition to his activities as a member of the junior high school band and orchestra, he plays the flute in the Junior Symphony, an outgrowth of the New Rochelle Symphony.

Piano is his second favorite instrument, but he also plays the tuba, sousaphone, violin and piccolo.

Between times he assists in keeping the 3,000-pipe church organ in condition under the supervision of the church organist.

Weds Marine in New Paltz

PFC. AND MRS. JOHN McCLOSKEY

At a reception held at the Hotel Stuyvesant following their marriage in St. Joseph's Church, New Paltz, Sunday, Pfc. John McCloskey, U. S. Marine Corps, and Mrs. McCloskey cut their wedding cake. The Rev. Michael Komar officiated at the ceremony. Mrs. McCloskey is the former Miss Margaret Kathryn Millham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Millham, 65 South Chestnut street, New Paltz. (Pennington photo)

Margaret K. Millham Becomes Bride of John F. McCloskey

The marriage of Miss Margaret Kathryn Millham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Millham, 65 South Chestnut street, New Paltz, to Pfc. John Francis McCloskey, U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mrs. Mary McCloskey, 29 Capp avenue, Wappingers Falls, took place Sunday, June 1, in St. Joseph's Church, New Paltz. The Rev. Michael Komar officiated at the ceremony and was assisted by the Revs. George Fagan, John Mahoney and William McManus. A reception for 100 guests was held at the Hotel Stuyvesant, this city.

Traditional wedding selections were played by Stephen Selvaggio, organist and included the Ave Maria and Panis Angelicus. White carnations and while gladioli were used for decorating the church.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown trimmed with seed pearls, fashioned with a Peter Pan collar and long pointed sleeves, and a long full skirt terminating in a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil was attached to a white satin cap trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book trimmed with orange blossoms and a white orchid.

Miss Patricia Millham was her sister's honor attendant. She was attired in a ballerina length blue net over taffeta gown with matching headpiece. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses.

Joseph McCloskey of Beacon was his brother's best man. George Millham, brother of the bride, and William Sullivan of Wappinger Falls served as ushers.

Mrs. McCloskey, a graduate of New Paltz High School, is employed in the office of the International Business Machines Corp., Poughkeepsie.

Pfc. McCloskey graduated from Wappinger Falls High School and is serving with the U. S. Marine Corps, stationed in Jacksonville, Fla.

McCormick Three-Hits Merchants for Wiltwycks to Win, 3 to 0

Johnny Minadeo Knocks in Two Runs for Winners

McCormick Whiffs 12 in 2nd Victory

Thanks to the sturdy right arm of Gus McCormick, Wiltwyck Motors is on top of the heap in the City Baseball League with a record of two wins and no losses.

McCormick hung up his second straight victory of the young campaign last night with a neat three-hit 3 to 0 shutout over the Colonial Merchants. It was the Merchants' first loss this year and dropped them into a three-way tie for second place with Jones Dairy and Chez Emile.

Fans 12 Batters

Showing excellent control by issuing only one free ticket, McCormick breezed through his chore by registering 12 strikeouts.

Opposing the unbeaten Wiltwyck moundsman was Ange Fondino who pitched well enough to win if his club had come through with a few hits.

Fondino permitted five hits (all singles), fanned two and gave up five walks.

After a scoreless first inning, Wiltwycks shoved across two runs in the top half of the second with the help of a walk, single and an outfield error committed by the Merchants.

Johnny Minadeo, who stroked two hits in as many trips to the plate, drove in the first run with a single to right field and when Clearwater allowed the ball to get by him, another run came across.

The final run of the game came in the fourth when Murphy reached first on Post's error and went to second when D. Minadeo walked. McCormick helped his own cause with a single. Johnny Minadeo's second hit drove in Post to give Wiltwycks a 3-0 edge and the ball game.

Fondino was still on the hook, however, before the inning ended. He struck out A. Passante to ease the tension and with the bases still loaded, got E. Passante to hoist out to Finn in left for the final out.

The Motormen had another big opportunity in the sixth when they loaded the bases with two out with the aid of a single, hit batsman and a walk. Fondino arose to the occasion, however, and got out of any further trouble as E. Passante lifted to right for the final out.

Steeger's Notes: McCormick, the Wiltwyck hurler, was never in trouble in goirg on to his second straight victory. The Merchants never managed to get more than one man on base in any inning... The game might have wound up in a scoreless tie except for three blooper hits. About six of the eight bingles for the both teams were out of the cheap variety... F. Francello, who batted for Clearwater in the fifth, got the only solid hit off McCormick... The attendance was fair considering the threatening weather... No league action until Sunday afternoon when Boulevard Gulf meets Chez Emile.

Ez 2-1 Choice To Regain Crown

Philadelphia, June 5 (AP)—The fourth and most lucrative episode in the Jersey Joe Walcott-Ezzard Charles road series will be unreeled tonight with Charles rated a 2-to-1 favorite to make boxing history and become the first former heavyweight king to win back his crown.

Forecasts of fair weather for the 9 p. m. (E.S.T.) 15-rounder in Municipal Stadium, site of many historic events in sports, boosted promoter Herman Taylor's confidence that about 35,000 will pay $250,000 to see the scrap.

With $175,000 paid for the radio-TV rights, this latest, and no doubt last, number in the 3-year-old rivalry appears a cinch to eclipse the financial take of the other three stops in Chicago, Detroit and Pittsburgh.

Provenzano's 714 High Single Series In State Money

John S. Provenzano's 714 gross series led Kingston in-the-money totals in the singles division of the state tournament and should be worth about $75 in prize money, an official compilation reveals.

Runnerup was Frank Grimaldi with a 709 blast. Hymie Arlesnsky shot 683 and Ed Rhymer, a 45-handicap bowler, reeled off a 681.

The unofficial list of in-the-money scores:

John S. Provenzano, 714
Frank Grimaldi, 709
Hymie Arlensky, 683
Ed Rhymer, 681

Orv Van Alstyne, 664; Gene Vogel 663; Jack Martin 658; Dick Howard 658; James Secreto 654; Ray Otto 654; Marty Kellenberger 652; Joe Misasi 647; Larry Petersen Sr. 643; Al Kieffer 642; Ralph Frederick 641; A. Bali 641,

Also, Charlie Manfro 639; S. Zwirn 639; Eddie Heins 636; Percy Slover 636; Bill Johnson 635; Charlie Horne 635; J. Ennis 634; George Svirsky 632; Don McConnell 632,

Also, Anton Werbalowsky 631; Vernon Freese 627; J. Quigley 618; Frank Cirone 618; Ken Williams 618; Tom Amato 618; Bill Lawrence 617; B. K. Burr 617; Harry Houska 616; A. Fondino 616; Mike Provenzano 616; Elwood Robinson 615.

Saddle Pals Put Off Horse Show

The Ulster County Saddle Pals Horse Show has been postponed from June 8 to June 22, it was announced today. The show, which will be held at Kenneth Davenport's Field in Stone Ridge, will begin at 10 a. m. and continue until 5 p. m.

Judges will be F. A. Gildersleeve of Kingston, Virgil Van Wagonen of Woodstock and Bud Smiley of the Lake Mohonk Hotel. Navajo Joe McNierney of Kingston will be ring steward and Mrs. Albert E. Milliken will be ring secretary. Dr. A. Evans will serve as veterinarian and Charles Kinkade of Kingston as farrier.

Entry blanks may be obtained from Blair Cornish of Stone Ridge

Saxton Registers 29th Straight Boxing Win

Chicago, June 5 (AP)—Muscular Johnny Saxton followed out his plans of crowding, covering and connecting to whip rangy Luther Rawlings last night and register his 29th consecutive ring victory without a loss.

The New York welterweight, outweighting his Chicago opponent 147 to 144½ pounds, showed off his steaming left hook and close-in artistry before a mere 2,411 customers in Chicago Stadium.

Rawlings, absorbing his ninth defeat in 42 pro bouts, slowed Saxton down with a crisp left to the chin in the fourth and stepped up his pace for the next three rounds.

But Saxton matched anything the No. 2 lightweight contender could offer and four times drove him into the ropes in the eighth. Rawlings never could equal the New York slugger's speed and aggressiveness.

Field Cut Down

Cleveland, June 5 (AP)—A starting field of 21 was down to four today in the International Professional tennis championships. The survivors are defending champion Frank Kovacs of Oakland, Calif., second-seeded Francisco (Pancho) Segura of Ecuador, third-seeded Richard (Pancho) Gonzales of Los Angeles, and fourth-seeded Don Budge of Los Angeles. Budge will play Segura tonight and Kovacs will meet Gonzales in another semifinal match tomorrow night.

Four Unbeaten Keglers In Line for Masters

Milwaukee, June 5 (AP)—The American Bowling Congress' Masters' invitational double elimination match tourney looks more like the all-star classic every day.

Of the undefeated bowlers, three of them figured prominently in this season's all-star—Junie McMahon of Chicago, the national match game champion; Steve Nagy of Cleveland, who boasted high average of 209 in the all-star, and Andy Varipapa of Hempstead, N. Y., twice winner of the national crown.

The lone "outsider" is Willard Taylor of South Charleston, W. Va.

This quartet, and 12 others who have one defeat each, still are in the running for the Masters' crown, but one more defeat will eliminate any of the 12. It will take two losses to oust the four in the winners' bracket.

McMahon clashes with Varipapa and Nagy opposes Taylor in tonight's matches.

Last night's best match saw McMahon edge Ned Day of West Allis, Wis., former national match champion, 903-886 in their four-game duel.

In other winners' bracket matches, Nagy beat Charles Polich of Caspian, Mich., 807-750; Taylor beat Don Nesta, the tourney darkhorse from Watertown, Wis., 729-684, and Varipapa beat Jack Soelberg, Portland, Ore., 766-749.

Port Jervis Nails Down DUSO Bunting

Clinches Flag With 3-1 Win Over NFA

With Lefthander John Barbarino hurling a crafty two-hitter, Port Jervis High School clinched the DUSO Baseball championship this week with a 3 to 1 squeaker victory over Newburgh Free Academy in Newburgh.

Barbarino was well on his way to the DUSO Hall of Fame by flinging six straight frames of hitless ball.

The no-hitter was lost in the seventh when Jack Fanning, NFA catcher, belted a long drive to left field for a homer. Bobby Spreer followed with a double but after that Barbarino settled down again to retire the next three batters.

Port entertains Newburgh Friday afternoon but the Academy nine is just going along for the ride and the possibility that a lot of Academy reserve players will see some action.

This week's win by Port wrapped up the title regardless of the outcome of Friday's tilt.

With only one game remaining, Port has a two-game bulge over both Newburgh and Kingston.

Kingston also winds up its 1952 campaign Friday by playing Poughkeepsie at the municipal stadium. Game time is 4 p. m.

Katrine Club to Meet

A regular meeting of the Lake Katrine Rod and Gun Club will be held Tuesday night, June 10, at the club house. A full turnout of members is requested as important business will be transacted. Refreshments will be served.

McCormick Three-Hits Merchants for Wiltwycks to Win, 3 to 0

Johnny Minadeo Knocks in Two Runs for Winners

McCormick Whiffs 12 in 2nd Victory

Thanks to the sturdy right arm of Gus McCormick, Wiltwyck Motors is on top of the heap in the City Baseball League with a record of two wins and no losses.

McCormick hung up his second straight victory of the young campaign last night with a neat three-hit 3 to 0 shutout over the Colonial Merchants. It was the Merchants' first loss this year and dropped them into a three-way tie for second place with Jones Dairy and Chez Emile.

Fans 12 Batters

Showing excellent control by issuing only one free ticket, McCormick breezed through his chore by registering 12 strikeouts.

Opposing the unbeaten Wiltwyck moundsman was Ange Fondino who pitched well enough to win if his club had come through with a few hits.

Fondino permitted five hits (all singles), fanned two and gave up five walks.

After a scoreless first inning, Wiltwycks shoved across two runs in the top half of the second with the help of a walk, single and an outfield error committed by the Merchants.

Johnny Minadeo, who stroked two hits in as many trips to the plate, drove in the first run with a single to right field and when Clearwater allowed the ball to get by him, another run came across.

The final run of the game came in the fourth when Murphy reached first on Post's error and went to second when D. Minadeo walked. McCormick helped his own cause with a single. Johnny Minadeo's second hit drove in Post to give Wiltwycks a 3-0 edge and the ball game.

Fondino was still on the hook, however, before the inning ended. He struck out A. Passante to ease the tension and with the bases still loaded, got E. Passante to hoist out to Finn in left for the final out.

The Motormen had another big opportunity in the sixth when they loaded the bases with two out with the aid of a single, hit batsman and a walk. Fondino arose to the occasion, however, and got out of any further trouble as E. Passante lifted to right for the final out.

Steeger's Notes: McCormick, the Wiltwyck hurler, was never in trouble in going on to his second straight victory. The Merchants never managed to get more than one man on base in any inning... The game might have wound up in a scoreless tie except for three blooper hits. About six of the eight bingles for the both teams were out of the cheap variety... F. Francello, who batted for Clearwater in the fifth, got the only solid hit off McCormick... The attendance was fair considering the threatening weather... No league action until Sunday afternoon when Boulevard Gulf meets Chez Emile.

Ez 2-1 Choice To Regain Crown

Philadelphia, June 5 (AP)—The fourth and most lucrative episode in the Jersey Joe Walcott-Ezzard Charles road series will be unreeled tonight with Charles rated a 2-to-1 favorite to make boxing history and become the first former heavyweight king to win back his crown.

Forecasts of fair weather for the 9 p. m. (E.S.T.) 15-rounder in Municipal Stadium, site of many historic events in sports, boosted promoter Herman Taylor's confidence that about 35,000 will pay $250,000 to see the scrap.

With $175,000 paid for the radio-TV rights, this latest, and no doubt last, number in the 3-year-old rivalry appears a cinch to eclipse the financial take of the other three stops in Chicago, Detroit and Pittsburgh.

Provenzano's 714 High Single Series In State Money

John S. Provenzano's 714 gross series led Kingston in-the-money totals in the singles division of the state tournament and should be worth about $75 in prize money, an official compilation reveals.

Runnerup was Frank Grimaldi with a 709 blast. Hymie Arlesnsky shot 683 and Ed Rhymer, a 45-handicap bowler, reeled off a 681.

The unofficial list of in-the-money scores:

John S. Provenzano, 714
Frank Grimaldi, 709
Hymie Arlensky, 683
Ed Rhymer, 681

Orv Van Alstyne, 664; Gene Vogel 663; Jack Martin 658; Dick Howard 658; James Secreto 654; Ray Otto 654; Marty Kellenberger 652; Joe Misasi 647; Larry Petersen Sr. 643; Al Kieffer 642; Ralph Frederick 641; A. Bali 641,

Also, Charlie Manfro 639; S. Zwirn 639; Eddie Heins 636; Percy Slover 636; Bill Johnson 635; Charlie Horne 635; J. Ennis 634; George Svirsky 632; Don McConnell 632,

Also, Anton Werbalowsky 631; Vernon Freese 627; J. Quigley 618; Frank Cirone 618; Ken Williams 618; Tom Amato 618; Bill Lawrence 617; B. K. Burr 617; Harry Houska 616; A. Fondino 616; Mike Provenzano 616; Elwood Robinson 615.

Saddle Pals Put Off Horse Show

The Ulster County Saddle Pals Horse Show has been postponed from June 8 to June 22, it was announced today. The show, which will be held at Kenneth Davenport's Field in Stone Ridge, will begin at 10 a. m. and continue until 5 p. m.

Judges will be F. A. Gildersleeve of Kingston, Virgil Van Wagonen of Woodstock and Bud Smiley of the Lake Mohonk Hotel. Navajo Joe McNierney of Kingston will be ring steward and Mrs. Albert E. Milliken will be ring secretary. Dr. A. Evans will serve as veterinarian and Charles Kinkade of Kingston as farrier.

Entry blanks may be obtained from Blair Cornish of Stone Ridge

Saxton Registers 29th Straight Boxing Win

Chicago, June 5 (AP)—Muscular Johnny Saxton followed out his plans of crowding, covering and connecting to whip rangy Luther Rawlings last night and register his 29th consecutive ring victory without a loss.

The New York welterweight, outweighting his Chicago opponent 147 to 144½ pounds, showed off his steaming left hook and close-in artistry before a mere 2,411 customers in Chicago Stadium.

In piling up a big edge in point-scoring from both judges and the referee, the 22-year-old Saxton repeatedly forced his 5-foot 11½-inch foe into the ropes with left hooks and pounded him with lefts and rights.

Rawlings, absorbing his ninth defeat in 42 pro bouts, slowed Saxton down with a crisp left to the chin in the fourth and stepped up his pace for the next three rounds.

But Saxton matched anything the No. 2 lightweight contender could offer and four times drove him into the ropes in the eighth. Rawlings never could equal the New York slugger's speed and aggressiveness.

Field Cut Down

Cleveland, June 5 (AP)—A starting field of 21 was down to four today in the International Professional tennis championships. The survivors are defending champion Frank Kovacs of Oakland, Calif., second-seeded Francisco (Pancho) Segura of Ecuador, third-seeded Richard (Pancho) Gonzales of Los Angeles, and fourth-seeded Don Budge of Los Angeles. Budge will play Segura tonight and Kovacs will meet Gonzales in another semifinal match tomorrow night.

Four Unbeaten Keglers In Line for Masters

Milwaukee, June 5 (AP)—The American Bowling Congress' Masters' invitational double elimination match tourney looks more like the all-star classic every day.

Of the undefeated bowlers, three of them figured prominently in this season's all-star—Junie McMahon of Chicago, the national match game champion; Steve Nagy of Cleveland, who boasted high average of 209 in the all-star, and Andy Varipapa of Hempstead, N. Y., twice winner of the national crown.

The lone "outsider" is Willard Taylor of South Charleston, W. Va.

This quartet, and 12 others who have one defeat each, still are in the running for the Masters' crown, but one more defeat will eliminate any of the 12. It will take two losses to oust the four in the winners' bracket.

McMahon clashes with Varipapa and Nagy opposes Taylor in tonight's matches.

Last night's best match saw McMahon edge Ned Day of West Allis, Wis., former national match champion, 903-886 in their four-game duel.

In other winners' bracket matches, Nagy beat Charles Polich of Caspian, Mich., 807-750; Taylor beat Don Nesta, the tourney darkhorse from Watertown, Wis., 729-684, and Varipapa beat Jack Soelberg, Portland, Ore., 766-749.

Port Jervis Nails Down DUSO Bunting

Clinches Flag With 3-1 Win Over NFA

With Lefthander John Barbarino hurling a crafty two-hitter, Port Jervis High School clinched the DUSO Baseball championship this week with a 3 to 1 squeaker victory over Newburgh Free Academy in Newburgh.

Barbarino was well on his way to the DUSO Hall of Fame by flinging six straight frames of hitless ball.

The no-hitter was lost in the seventh when Jack Fanning, NFA catcher, belted a long drive to left field for a homer. Bobby Spreer followed with a double but after that Barbarino settled down again to retire the next three batters.

Port entertains Newburgh Friday afternoon but the Academy nine is just going along for the ride and the possibility that a lot of Academy reserve players will see some action.

This week's win by Port wrapped up the title regardless of the outcome of Friday's tilt.

With only one game remaining, Port has a two-game bulge over both Newburgh and Kingston.

Kingston also winds up its 1952 campaign Friday by playing Poughkeepsie at the municipal stadium. Game time is 4 p. m.

Red Sox Get Early Dividends On Recent Trade With Tigers

Ex-Bengals Pace Sox Into Lead

By RALPH RODEN
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

This may be the year that Tom Yawkey is rewarded for his costly and unceasing efforts to bring an American League pennant to Boston.

The generous owner of the Red Sox found out painfully that pennants couldn't be bought. Yawkey then set up an expensive farm system. It produced a pennant in 1946 and heartaches ever since.

Yawkey, far from discouraged, tried another method. Tuesday he okayed a one-million-dollar deal that brought four veterans from Detroit in exchange for infielders Johnny Pesky, Walt Dropo, Fred Hatfield, pitcher Bill Wight and outfielder Don Lenhardt.

The trade already has paid the Red Sox dividends. Three of the newcomers, third baseman George Kell, outfielder Hoot Evers, and pitcher Dizzy Trout teamed up yesterday to lead the Sox to a 13-11 triumph over the Cleveland Indians. The other Tiger acquired in the deal, shortstop Johnny Lipon, didn't play. The victory enabled the Red Sox to take over the lead from the Indians.

Kell, Evers Homer

Kell and Evers each cracked a home run and drove in three runs apiece. Trout, working in relief, gained his second victory.

Boston took an early lead against the Indians, rolling up an 8-2 advantage against Bobby Feller in two innings but Lefty Mel Parnell couldn't hold it. The Indians chased Parnell in the fifth when they scored five runs to tie the score at 9-9.

Kell broke the tie in the bottom of the fifth with a two-run homer off Steve Gromek. All told the Red Sox collected 15 hits including five singles by Billy Goodman. Larry Doby was Cleveland's big gun. He drove in six runs on a homer, triple, double and single.

The New York Yankees climbed into third place, 1½ games behind Boston and five percentage points ahead of Washington, by beating the Chicago White Sox, 6-3.

Ed Lopat, with help in the ninth from Bob Hogue, gained credit for his second victory. The Yanks clipped Joe Dobson for all of their 13 hits and runs in six innings. Yogi Berra, with a homer and single, and Irv Noren, with three singles, led the Yankee attack.

Schantz Wins 8th

Little Bobby Shantz turned in his eighth straight yictory and his ninth of the season as the Athletics shaded Detroit, 4-3, in a night game at Philadelphia. Eddie Joost's two-run homer in the fourth decided the issue in a game delayed an hour and 21 minutes by rain.

In the National League, the Brooklyn Dodgers stretched their lead to two games, downing the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-4, in a night game while the runner-up New York Giants bowed, 6-2, to Chicago in the afternoon.

Jackie Robinson pounded out a single, double and home run to lead Brooklyn to its seventh straight victory over the Pirates. Duke Snider also homered for Brooklyn while Ralph Kiner socked his eighth for Pittsburgh. Carl Erskine, with help in the ninth from Billy Loes, was the winner and Bob Friend the loser.

Big Bob Rush recorded his seventh consecutive triumph for Chicago in beating the Giants. The Giants scored twice in the fourth to check Rush's consecutive scoreless inning streak at 32. Then the Cubs rocked Larry Jansen for five runs in the seventh to wipe out a 2-1 deficit. Hank Sauer belted his 12th homer for Chicago in the fifth.

Cloyd Boyer came up with his second shutout of the season as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Braves, 6-0, in a night game at St. Louis. Boyer allowed four hits, fanned seven and walked none.

The Reds outlasted the Philadelphia Phillies, 10-8, in a night game at Cincinnati. The Reds scored seven runs in the second and led, 8-1, going into the sixth when the Phils tied it with a seven-run rally. The Reds broke it us with two in the eighth. Grady Hatton singled home the winning run and Willard Marshall's fly drove across the insurance marker.

U. S. Is Favored In Curtis Golf

Muirfield, Scotland, June 5 (AP)—The seventh annual edition of the Curtis cup golf competition is scheduled for this ancient course tomorrow and Saturday—and as usual, the American lassies are favored to carry it off.

Their record now stands at five victories and no defeats. They halved the matches once.

The seven young American girls—their average age is only 25—and their British counterparts have been adapting themselves to the rolling links of the Honorable Company of Edinburgh Golfers, and seemed completely undaunted by the fact that they were storming a masculine citadel of golf.

The American girls are enthusiastic about the course.

"It's in beautiful shape," said Mae Murray, the young lady from Rutland, Vt., when she finished a foursome practice round yesterday with Dot Kirby of Atlanta, the American women's champion, Polly Riley of Fort Worth, Tex., and Grace De Moss of Corcallis, Ore.

Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, the non-playing captain will select six player from Miss Murray, Miss Kirby, Miss Riley, Miss De Moss, Pat O'Sullivan of Orange, Conn., Marjorie Lindsay of Decateur, Ill., and Claire Doran of Cleveland.

Barron's 139 Low Score Paces U. S. Golf Qualifiers

Montclair, N. J., June 5 (AP)—Herman Barron, Fenway pro, was low scorer among the 12 qualifiers in sectional tryouts held here yesterday for the U. S. Open golf tournament.

He had a five-under-par 72-67—139 over the par-72 Montclair golf course to pace the 131 competing golfers.

Barron had plenty of company when he finished the first round at 72, but his afternoon 35-32—67 gave him a two-shot margin over Mike Turnesa of Knollwood, who was second with a 36-hole total of 141.

Some of the section's better pros and amateurs didn't make the grade for the open play at Dallas, Tex., June 12, 13, 14.

Claude Harmon, Mamaroneck, N. Y., and Vic Ghezzi, former Masters champion from Inwood, N. Y., were among those who failed to qualify.

Amateur Frank Stranahan of Toledo, runnerup to Harvey Ward in the British Open, battled through a five-way playoff to qualify for the event.

He won on the second hole of the playoff with an 18-foot birdie putt, eliminating Joe Turnesa of Grossinger, N. Y., Michael Homa of New York, Steve Doctor of Siwanoy and Frank Strafaci of Garden City, N. Y., who had been lumped at 145.

El Paso, Tex.—Charley Salas, Phoenix, stopped Ramon Perez, El Paso, 4. (Welterweights, but exact weights not available).

Miami Beach, Fla.—Joe Rindone, 163½, Boston, outpointed Billy Kilgore, 165, Miami, 10.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)

Pitching—Bobby Shantz, Athletics, turned in his eighth straight victory and ninth of the season in pitching Philadelphia to 4-3 triumph over Detroit.

Batting—Larry Doby, Indians, drove home six runs on home, triple, double and single but effort was wasted as Cleveland bowed, 13-11, to Boston.

Racing

New York—Renew ($42.50) won the $20,000-added Top Flight handicap at Belmont Park.

Stanton, Del.—County Delight ($9.60) captured Ridgely House purse at Delaware Park.

Boston — Poopcha ($19.40) scored his first victory in two years winning the feature at Suffolk Downs.

Inglewood, Calif.—Count Me Out ($24.10) won the Whittier handicap at Hollywood Park.

Red Sox Get Early Dividends On Recent Trade With Tigers

Ex-Bengals Pace Sox Into Lead

By RALPH RODEN
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

This may be the year that Tom Yawkey is rewarded for his costly and unceasing efforts to bring an American League pennant to Boston.

The generous owner of the Red Sox found out painfully that pennants couldn't be bought. Yawkey then set up an expensive farm system. It produced a pennant in 1946 and heartaches ever since.

Yawkey, far from discouraged, tried another method. Tuesday he okayed a one-million-dollar deal that brought four veterans from Detroit in exchange for infielders Johnny Pesky, Walt Dropo, Fred Hatfield, pitcher Bill Wight and outfielder Don Lenhardt.

The trade already has paid the Red Sox dividends. Three of the newcomers, third baseman George Kell, outfielder Hoot Evers, and pitcher Dizzy Trout teamed up yesterday to lead the Sox to a 13-11 triumph over the Cleveland Indians. The other Tiger acquired in the deal, shortstop Johnny Lipon, didn't play. The victory enabled the Red Sox to take over the lead from the Indians.

Kell, Evers Homer

Kell and Evers each cracked a home run and drove in three runs apiece. Trout, working in relief, gained his second victory.

Boston took an early lead against the Indians, rolling up an 8-2 advantage against Bobby Feller in two innings but Lefty Mel Parnell couldn't hold it. The Indians chased Parnell in the fifth when they scored five runs to tie the score at 9-9.

Kell broke the tie in the bottom of the fifth with a two-run homer off Steve Gromek. All told the Red Sox collected 15 hits including five singles by Billy Goodman. Larry Doby was Cleveland's big gun. He drove in six runs on a homer, triple, double and single.

The New York Yankees climbed into third place, 1½ games behind Boston and five percentage points ahead of Washington, by beating the Chicago White Sox, 6-3.

Ed Lopat, with help in the ninth from Bob Hogue, gained credit for his second victory. The Yanks clipped Joe Dobson for all of their 13 hits and runs in six innings. Yogi Berra, with a homer and single, and Irv Noren, with three singles, led the Yankee attack.

Schantz Wins 8th

Little Bobby Shantz turned in his eighth straight victory and his ninth of the season as the Athletics shaded Detroit, 4-3, in a night game at Philadelphia. Eddie Joost's two-run homer in the fourth decided the issue in a game delayed an hour and 21 minutes by rain.

In the National League, the Brooklyn Dodgers stretched their lead to two games, downing the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-4, in a night game while the runner-up New York Giants bowed, 6-2, to Chicago in the afternoon.

Jackie Robinson pounded out a single, double and home run to lead Brooklyn to its seventh straight victory over the Pirates. Duke Snider also homered for Brooklyn while Ralph Kiner socked his eighth for Pittsburgh. Carl Erskine, with help in the ninth from Billy Loes, was the winner and Bob Friend the loser.

Big Bob Rush recorded his seventh consecutive triumph for Chicago in beating the Giants. The Giants scored twice in the fourth to check Rush's consecutive scoreless inning streak at 32. Then the Cubs rocked Larry Jansen for five runs in the seventh to wipe out a 2-1 deficit. Hank Sauer belted his 12th homer for Chicago in the fifth.

Cloyd Boyer came up with his second shutout of the season as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Braves, 6-0, in a night game at St. Louis. Boyer allowed four hits, fanned seven and walked none.

The Reds outlasted the Philadelphia Phillies, 10-8, in a night game at Cincinnati. The Reds scored seven runs in the second and led, 8-1, going into the sixth when the Phils tied it with a seven-run rally. The Reds broke it us with two in the eighth. Grady Hatton singled home the winning run and Willard Marshall's fly drove across the insurance marker.

PUBLIC HEARING
STATE OF NEW YORK
MINIMUM WAGE
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Pursuant to Section 656 of the Labor Law, the Hotel Industry Minimum Wage Board, prior to recommending minimum wage standards for the hotel industry in New York State, will hold a public hearing for interested parties in:

Monticello, Wednesday, June 18, 1952 at 11 A. M., Surrogate's Room, County Court House, Monticello, N. Y.
Saranac Lake, Tuesday, July 8, 1952 at 11 A. M., Town Hall, Room 5, 30 Main St., Saranac Lake, N. Y.

DEFINITION

The term "hotel industry" includes any establishment which, as a whole or part of its business activities, offers lodging accommodations for hire to the public, to employees, or to members or guests of members, and services in connection therewith or incidental thereto.

The industry includes, but is not limited to, commercial hotels, apartment hotels, resort hotels, lodging houses, boarding houses, furnished room houses, children's camps, adult camps, tourist camps, tourist houses, auto camps, motels, residence clubs, membership clubs, dude ranches, Turkish baths and Russian baths.

The term "hotel industry" excludes:

a. Eating or drinking places customarily offering lodging accommodations of less than five rooms to the public, to employees, or to members or guests of members;

b. Establishments in which lodging accommodation is not available to the public, or to members or to guests of members, but is incidental to instruction, medical care, religious observance, or to the care of handicapped or destitute persons or other public charges.

Dated: June 2, 1952.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By AL McCLANE
(Fishing Editor)

One of the trickiest reverse plays in the game of fish management has apparently paid off, because Ohio has thrown all waters open to "liberalized" fishing.

You still need a license, but there's no closed season, no legal length, and no bag limit. The only areas closed to fishing are state hatcheries, certain bathing beaches, and a few small fish sanctuaries.

It took 15 years of fact finding to liberalize the first lake, but in 1950 they opened 100 lakes to unrestricted fishing, and the result was a jolt—under maximum fishing pressure none of the ponds showed more than a normal dent in their fish population.

Ohio figures about 25 per cent of the big breeder fish put out in the past 20 years have been snaffled by lucky Waltonians.

How not to lose bass? Stop using dull hooks. According to a recent survey, 90 per cent of the anglers fishing for bass today are using such blunted hooks that a terrific sock is needed to penetrate the bone and gristle in a bass' choppers.

Even a strong arm pull isn't good insurance, because the fish is moving fast and hitting the bait at an angle. I would suggest a small carbonundum stone or an Arkansas stone as regular equipment; just wipe the stone along the barb toward the hook point each time you go fishing.

The point should be needle sharp so that it sinks in with an easy tightening of the line.

Bluegills are very smart fish. Did you ever watch a school of them in water? A trout or pike would rush away the instant an angler came in view, but not the bluegill.

Most folks think the fish have had bad optics because they go about their business in plain sight, but actually they can read the labels on your boots. You're just getting the cold shoulder. If you become a nuisance the school will drift away, but otherwise the bluegill will keep one eye on you and one on his lunch.

This usually frustrates the beginner, who may spend hours flipping baits at them, under the delusion that he hasn't been spotted. The only way to fool 'em is to fish some place else for an hour or two, and then sneak back to a spot where you can drift your bait toward the school . . . without any bluegill seeing you.

Wednesday Is Warmest

Wednesday was the warmest day to date this year. The mercury hit 90 at 2:30 p. m., and the warmest day before that was May 28 when the temperature was 87 degrees. The rainfall in May was five inches and the total to date in June is 2.82 inches. The average May rainfall, according to the city engineer's records is slightly more than 3 inches.

'Brandt and Record Catch

Auto Old Timers Plan New Council

Pioneers of the automobile world resident in Poughkeepsie, Newburgh and Kingston who are members of the Automobile Old Timers, the national organization of America's motor car pioneers, will attend a luncheon at the Dutchess Golf and Country Club on Friday, June 13, to organize a local council of the national body.

Following members approval of this Mid-Hudson Council, officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

John Van Benschoten of Poughkeepsie, a life member and director of Automobile Old Timers and the oldest automobile dealer in point of continuous service in the Empire State, and Daniel M. Keyes, veteran Ford dealer, are completing arrangements for the luncheon.

Frederick H. Elliott of New York founder and executive vice president of the national organization, will attend the luncheon.

It is estimated that America has about a 1,150,000,000 acres of farm land, an increase of about 95 million acres since 1935.

Gives Them Color

The brilliant color of flowers that glow at high altitudes generally is attributed to the ultra-violet light in the clear sky at high elevations.

The bassoon can be used for comic effects in orchestration and hence has been called the humorist of the orchestra.

STATE OF NEW YORK
MINIMUM WAGE
DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Pursuant to Section 656 of the Labor Law, the Hotel Industry Minimum Wage Board, prior to recommending minimum wage standards for the hotel industry in New York State, will hold a public hearing for interested parties in:

Monticello, Wednesday, June 18, 1952 at 11 A. M., Surrogate's Room, County Court House, Monticello, N. Y.
Saranac Lake, Tuesday, July 8, 1952 at 11 A. M., Town Hall, Room 5, 30 Main St., Saranac Lake, N. Y.

DEFINITION

The term "hotel industry" includes any establishment which, as a whole or part of its business activities, offers lodging accommodations for hire to the public, to employees, or to members or guests of members, and services in connection therewith or incidental thereto.

The industry includes, but is not limited to, commercial hotels, apartment hotels, resort hotels, lodging houses, boarding houses, furnished room houses, children's camps, adult camps, tourist camps, tourist houses, auto camps, motels, residence clubs, membership clubs, dude ranches, Turkish baths and Russian baths.

The term "hotel industry" excludes:

a. Eating or drinking places customarily offering lodging accommodations of less than five rooms to the public, to employees, or to members or guests of members;

b. Establishments in which lodging accommodation is not available to the public, or to members or to guests of members, but is incidental to instruction, medical care, religious observance, or to the care of handicapped or destitute persons or other public charges.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By AL McCLANE
(Fishing Editor)

One of the trickiest reverse plays in the game of fish management has apparently paid off, because Ohio has thrown all waters open to "liberalized" fishing.

You still need a license, but there's no closed season, no legal length, and no bag limit. The only areas closed to fishing are state hatcheries, certain bathing beaches, and a few small fish sanctuaries.

It took 15 years of fact finding to liberalize the first lake, but in 1950 they opened 100 lakes to unrestricted fishing, and the result was a jolt—under maximum fishing pressure none of the ponds showed more than a normal dent in their fish population.

Ohio figures about 25 per cent of the big breeder fish put out in the past 20 years have been snaffled by lucky Waltonians.

How not to lose bass? Stop using dull hooks. According to a recent survey, 90 per cent of the anglers fishing for bass today are using such blunted hooks that a terrific sock is needed to penetrate the bone and gristle in a bass' choppers.

Even a strong arm pull isn't good insurance, because the fish is moving fast and hitting the bait at an angle. I would suggest a small carbonundum stone or an Arkansas stone as regular equipment; just wipe the stone along the barb toward the hook point each time you go fishing.

The point should be needle sharp so that it sinks in with an easy tightening of the line.

Bluegills are very smart fish. Did you ever watch a school of them in water? A trout or pike would rush away the instant an angler came in view, but not the bluegill.

Most folks think the fish have had bad optics because they go about their business in plain sight, but actually they can read the labels on your boots. You're just getting the cold shoulder. If you become a nuisance the school will drift away, but otherwise the bluegill will keep one eye on you and one on his lunch.

This usually frustrates the beginner, who may spend hours flipping baits at them, under the delusion that he hasn't been spotted. The only way to fool 'em is to fish some place else for an hour or two, and then sneak back to a spot where you can drift your bait toward the school . . . without any bluegill seeing you.

Wednesday Is Warmest

Wednesday was the warmest day to date this year. The mercury hit 90 at 2:30 p. m., and the warmest day before that was May 28 when the temperature was 87 degrees. The rainfall in May was five inches and the total to date in June is 2.82 inches. The average May rainfall, according to the city engineer's records is slightly more than 3 inches.

Brandt and Record Catch

Bill Brandt of 119 Hunter street poses with his recent record catch of a 38½ pound striped bass which he landed in the Hudson river near Esopus. The fish was 42 inches long. Brandt's catch is the heaviest reported to The Freeman sports department to date. A few weeks ago a 30-pounder was reported. (Freeman Photo)

Auto Old Timers Plan New Council

Pioneers of the automobile world resident in Poughkeepsie, Newburgh and Kingston who are members of the Automobile Old Timers, the national organization of America's motor car pioneers, will attend a luncheon at the Dutchess Golf and Country Club on Friday, June 13, to organize a local council of the national body.

Following members approval of this Mid-Hudson Council, officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

John Van Benschoten of Poughkeepsie, a life member and director of Automobile Old Timers and the oldest automobile dealer in point of continuous service in the Empire State, and Daniel M. Keyes, veteran Ford dealer, are completing arrangements for the luncheon.

Frederick H. Elliott of New York founder and executive vice president of the national organization, will attend the luncheon.

It is estimated that America has about a 1,150,000,000 acres of farm land, an increase of about 95 million acres since 1935.

Gives Them Color

The brilliant color of flowers that glow at high altitudes generally is attribued to the ultraviolet light in the clear sky at high elevations.

The bassoon can be used for comic effects in orchestration and hence has been called the humorist of the orchestra.

The Weather

THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1942

Sun rises at 4:08 a. m.; sun sets at 7:18 p. m., E.S.T.
Weather, cloudy.

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 63 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 75 degrees.

Weather Forecast

New York city and vicinity: Mostly fair today except for some morning fog and cloudiness, highest temperature in the mid 70's. Some cloudiness and a little cooler tonight, lowest temperature 55 to 60 except in the low 50's in the northern interior sections. Friday mostly cloudy and not so mild, highest temperature near 70.

Eastern New York: Fair and a little cooler in southeast portion tonight. Friday, fair and mild.

The city engineer's weather records showed a temperature of 75 degrees at 10 a. m., today, a barometric pressure of 29.7 inches, a humidity of 86 per cent, and a northeast wind with a velocity of four miles an hour. The high temperature yesterday was 90 degrees at 1:30 p. m., and the low 60 at 4 a. m. The mean temperature was 75 and the normal is 68. The humidity was 95 at 5 a. m., and 71 at 1 p. m. The barometric pressure was 29.7 at 6 a. m., and 29.63 at 4 p. m. The top velocity of a variable wind was about 34 miles an hour.

Really Hot

Surface temperature of the sun is estimated at about 11,000 degrees, and the heat in its interior is said to reach many million degrees.

Discharged

PFC. JOHN RINALDO

Marine Private First Class John J. Rinaldo, 25, husband of Mrs. Jennie M. Rinaldo, 75 Harding avenue, was recently discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps. Pfc. Rinaldo performed duty at Camp Lejeune, N. C., and Marine Barracks, Brooklyn Navy Yard, prior to his discharge. He was a former employe of Knaust Bros., Catskill.

Nash Case Is Put Over

The case of Joseph F. Nash, 35, of 100 O'Neil street, who was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with impairing the morals of a minor, was put over to June 12 when he appeared before City Judge Raymond J. Mino today. Lt. William Leonard of the local police, said the arrest was made following a statement taken from a 14-year-old boy. Nash was represented today by Attorney Charles Saccoman.

'Beads'

The word "bead" stems from a root which means to pray and it was only gradually that it came to apply to ornaments which were not prayer beads.

Rosendale Will Replenish Its 'Blood Pool' June 10

The Town of Rosendale will replenish its "blood pool" Tuesday, June 10, at the Grange Hall in the village of Rosendale, it was announced today by the City of Kingston Laboratory. The drawing of blood will begin at 7 p. m.

Mrs. George Mollenhauer is chairman of the pool which supplies the people of the Town of Rosendale, consisting of DeWitt Lake, Whiteport, Creek Locks, Maple Hill, Williams Lake, Binnewater, Tillson, Bloomington and that part of Cottekill south of the O and W Railroad.

Persons owing blood in replacement for blood issued to them from the Laboratory Bank at a previous date, may make appointments with Mrs. Mollenhauer if it is more convenient for them to make the replacement in their own locality. She may be reached at New Paltz, Route 2, or Rosendale 2154. Persons living in this area and needing credit for blood may contact Mrs. Mollenhauer and receive assistance from this community project.

This is but one of numerous blood pools conducted and maintained by townships or organizations within Ulster county. Any club, industrial organization or township wishing to form such a credit pool may do so by contacting the City of Kingston Laboratory Blood Bank which will provide any assistance or information relative to the establishment of such a pool.

It was pointed out that the chief aim of the blood bank or pool was to see that adequate blood was available immediately for any emergency. Dr. Herbert Derman, director of laboratories, emphasizes that time is the important element and that "carrying out this task would not be possible if it were not for blood donor replacements. Upon you, the blood donor, depends its success. As the hospitals increase in size and the rate of blood use increases, the need for blood in the bank increases. The need must be met by volunteer donations, township banks and replacement by family and friends or private patients."

'Deseret'

The state of Utah long was called "Deseret," which, in the book of Mormon language, means "a honey bee" according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Cattle fattening operations near Unionville, Pa., involve cowboys who ride the range in traditional costume.

Ask Yourself These Questions:
If you are approached by an itinerant applicator offering a "bargain" on a new roof for your home, or siding job, ask yourself these important questions:
1. DO I KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT THE SALESMAN OR HIS COMPANY?
2. HAVE I ASKED THE SALESMAN OR HIS COMPANY FOR REFERENCES?
3. HAVE I REASON TO BELIEVE THAT THE COMPANY WILL BE in existence and financially able to fulfill its guarantees five or ten years from now?
4. HAVE I OBTAINED A PRICE ON THIS JOB ON EXACTLY the same specifications from my local dealer?
5. DOES THE COMPANY PROVIDE LIABILITY AND COMPENSATION INSURANCE TO PROTECT ME IN case of accident?
6. DO I KNOW THE BRAND GRADE OR QUALITY OF MATERIAL I am getting?
7. IF THE EVENT I PAY FOR THE JOB ON AN INSTALLMENT BASIS, do I know what finance company will have my note?
IF THE ANSWER TO ANY OF THESE QUESTIONS IS "NO" — BE CAREFUL!
Watch out for the misrepresentation and watch out for "tricky" contracts. Play SAFE. Before you purchase material or enter into a contract with an unknown firm, consult SMITH PARISH who are RELIABLE AND RESPONSIBLE!

The Weather

THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1942

Sun rises at 4:08 a. m.; sun sets at 7:18 p. m., E.S.T.
Weather, cloudy.

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 63 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 75 degrees.

Weather Forecast

New York city and vicinity: Mostly fair today except for some morning fog and cloudiness, highest temperature in the mid 70's. Some cloudiness and a little cooler tonight, lowest temperature 55 to 60 except in the low 50's in the northern interior sections. Friday mostly cloudy and not so mild, highest temperature near 70.

Eastern New York: Fair and a little cooler in southeast portion tonight. Friday, fair and mild.

The city engineer's weather records showed a temperature of 75 degrees at 10 a. m., today, a barometric pressure of 29.7 inches, a humidity of 86 per cent, and a northeast wind with a velocity of four miles an hour. The high temperature yesterday was 90 degrees at 1:30 p. m., and the low 60 at 4 a. m. The mean temperature was 75 and the normal is 68. The humidity was 95 at 5 a. m., and 71 at 1 p. m. The barometric pressure was 29.7 at 6 a. m., and 29.63 at 4 p. m. The top velocity of a variable wind was about 34 miles an hour.

Really Hot

Surface temperature of the sun is estimated at about 11,000 degrees, and the heat in its interior is said to reach many million degrees.

Discharged

PFC. JOHN RINALDO

Marine Private First Class John J. Rinaldo, 25, husband of Mrs. Jennie M. Rinaldo, 75 Harding avenue, was recently discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps. Pfc. Rinaldo performed duty at Camp Lejeune, N. C., and Marine Barracks, Brooklyn Navy Yard, prior to his discharge. He was a former employe of Knaust Bros., Catskill.

Nash Case Is Put Over

The case of Joseph F. Nash, 35, of 100 O'Neil street, who was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with impairing the morals of a minor, was put over to June 12 when he appeared before City Judge Raymond J. Mino today. Lt. William Leonard of the local police, said the arrest was made following a statement taken from a 14-year-old boy. Nash was represented today by Attorney Charles Saccoman.

'Beads'

The word "bead" stems from a root which means to pray and it was only gradually that it came to apply to ornaments which were not prayer beads.

Rosendale Will Replenish Its 'Blood Pool' June 10

The Town of Rosendale will replenish its "blood pool" Tuesday, June 10, at the Grange Hall in the village of Rosendale, it was announced today by the City of Kingston Laboratory. The drawing of blood will begin at 7 p. m.

Mrs. George Mollenhauer is chairman of the pool which supplies the people of the Town of Rosendale, consisting of DeWitt Lake, Whiteport, Creek Locks, Maple Hill, Williams Lake, Binnewater, Tillson, Bloomington and that part of Cottekill south of the O and W Railroad.

Persons owing blood in replacement for blood issued to them from the Laboratory Bank at a previous date, may make appointments with Mrs. Mollenhauer if it is more convenient for them to make the replacement in their own locality. She may be reached at New Paltz, Route 2, or Rosendale 2154. Persons living in this area and needing credit for blood may contact Mrs. Mollenhauer and receive assistance from this community project.

This is but one of numerous blood pools conducted and maintained by townships or organizations within Ulster county. Any club, industrial organization or township wishing to form such a credit pool may do so by contacting the City of Kingston Laboratory Blood Bank which will provide any assistance or information relative to the establishment of such a pool.

It was pointed out that the chief aim of the blood bank or pool was to see that adequate blood was available immediately for any emergency. Dr. Herbert Derman, director of laboratories, emphasizes that time is the important element and that "carrying out this task would not be possible if it were not for blood donor replacements. Upon you, the blood donor, depends its success. As the hospitals increase in size and the rate of blood use increases, the need for blood in the bank increases. The need must be met by volunteer donations, township banks and replacement by family and friends or private patients."

'Deseret'

The state of Utah long was called "Deseret," which, in the book of Mormon language, means "a honey bee" according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Cattle fattening operations near Unionville, Pa., involve cowboys who ride the range in traditional costume.

Consult Us First...
when considering a new roof or siding job . . . .
Ask Yourself These Questions:
If you are approached by an itinerant applicator offering a "bargain" on a new roof for your home, or siding job, ask yourself these important questions:
1. DO I KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT THE SALESMAN OR HIS COMPANY?
2. HAVE I ASKED THE SALESMAN OR HIS COMPANY FOR REFERENCES?
3. HAVE I REASON TO BELIEVE THAT THE COMPANY WILL BE in existence and financially able to fulfill its guarantees five or ten years from now?
4. HAVE I OBTAINED A PRICE ON THIS JOB ON EXACTLY the same specifications from my local dealer?
5. DOES THE COMPANY PROVIDE LIABILITY AND COMPENSATION INSURANCE TO PROTECT ME IN case of accident?
6. DO I KNOW THE BRAND GRADE OR QUALITY OF MATERIAL I am getting?
7. IN THE EVENT I PAY FOR THE JOB ON AN INSTALLMENT BASIS, do I know what finance company will have my note?
IF THE ANSWER TO ANY OF THESE QUESTIONS IS "NO" — BE CAREFUL!
Watch out for the misrepresentation and watch out for "tricky" contracts. Play SAFE. Before you purchase material or enter into a contract with an unknown firm, consult SMITH PARISH who are RELIABLE AND RESPONSIBLE!
